THE

"CLARENDON" HOTEL,

GRAVESEND.

(Facing the River.)

JOHN NEALE, - - Proprietor.

THIS OLD-ESTABLISHED HOTEL commands the most beautiful views of the surrounding country, and the ever-changing panorama produced by the Shipping to and from all parts of the World. It is three minutes' walk from the Town and Terrace Piers, at which all Steamboats from London and the Railway from Fenchurch Street land their passengers, and close to Her Majesty's Custom House, the Mercantile Marine Office, Dock Offices, Board of Trade Office, Sea and River Pilots' Office, Harbour Master's Office, Post and Telegraph Offices, &c. The "CLARENDON" stands in its own grounds facing the river, and is as private as if it were 100 miles in the country. It is six minutes journey from the North Kent Railway Station at Gravesend, and forty-five minutes from Charing Cross. All apartments command sea views. Every convenience for large or small Dinner Parties. Several suites of Private Apartments, and commodious Public Rooms for Balls, Wedding Parties, etc., etc. Visitors are requested to give their names on arrival, to prevent delay in the delivery of letters, etc., addressed to them.
