ADDRESS.

THE Court Directory of the Resident Nobility, Clergy, and Gentry of Brighton, Hove, and Cliftonville, will for the future be published in this form annually, corrected to the month of January in each year.

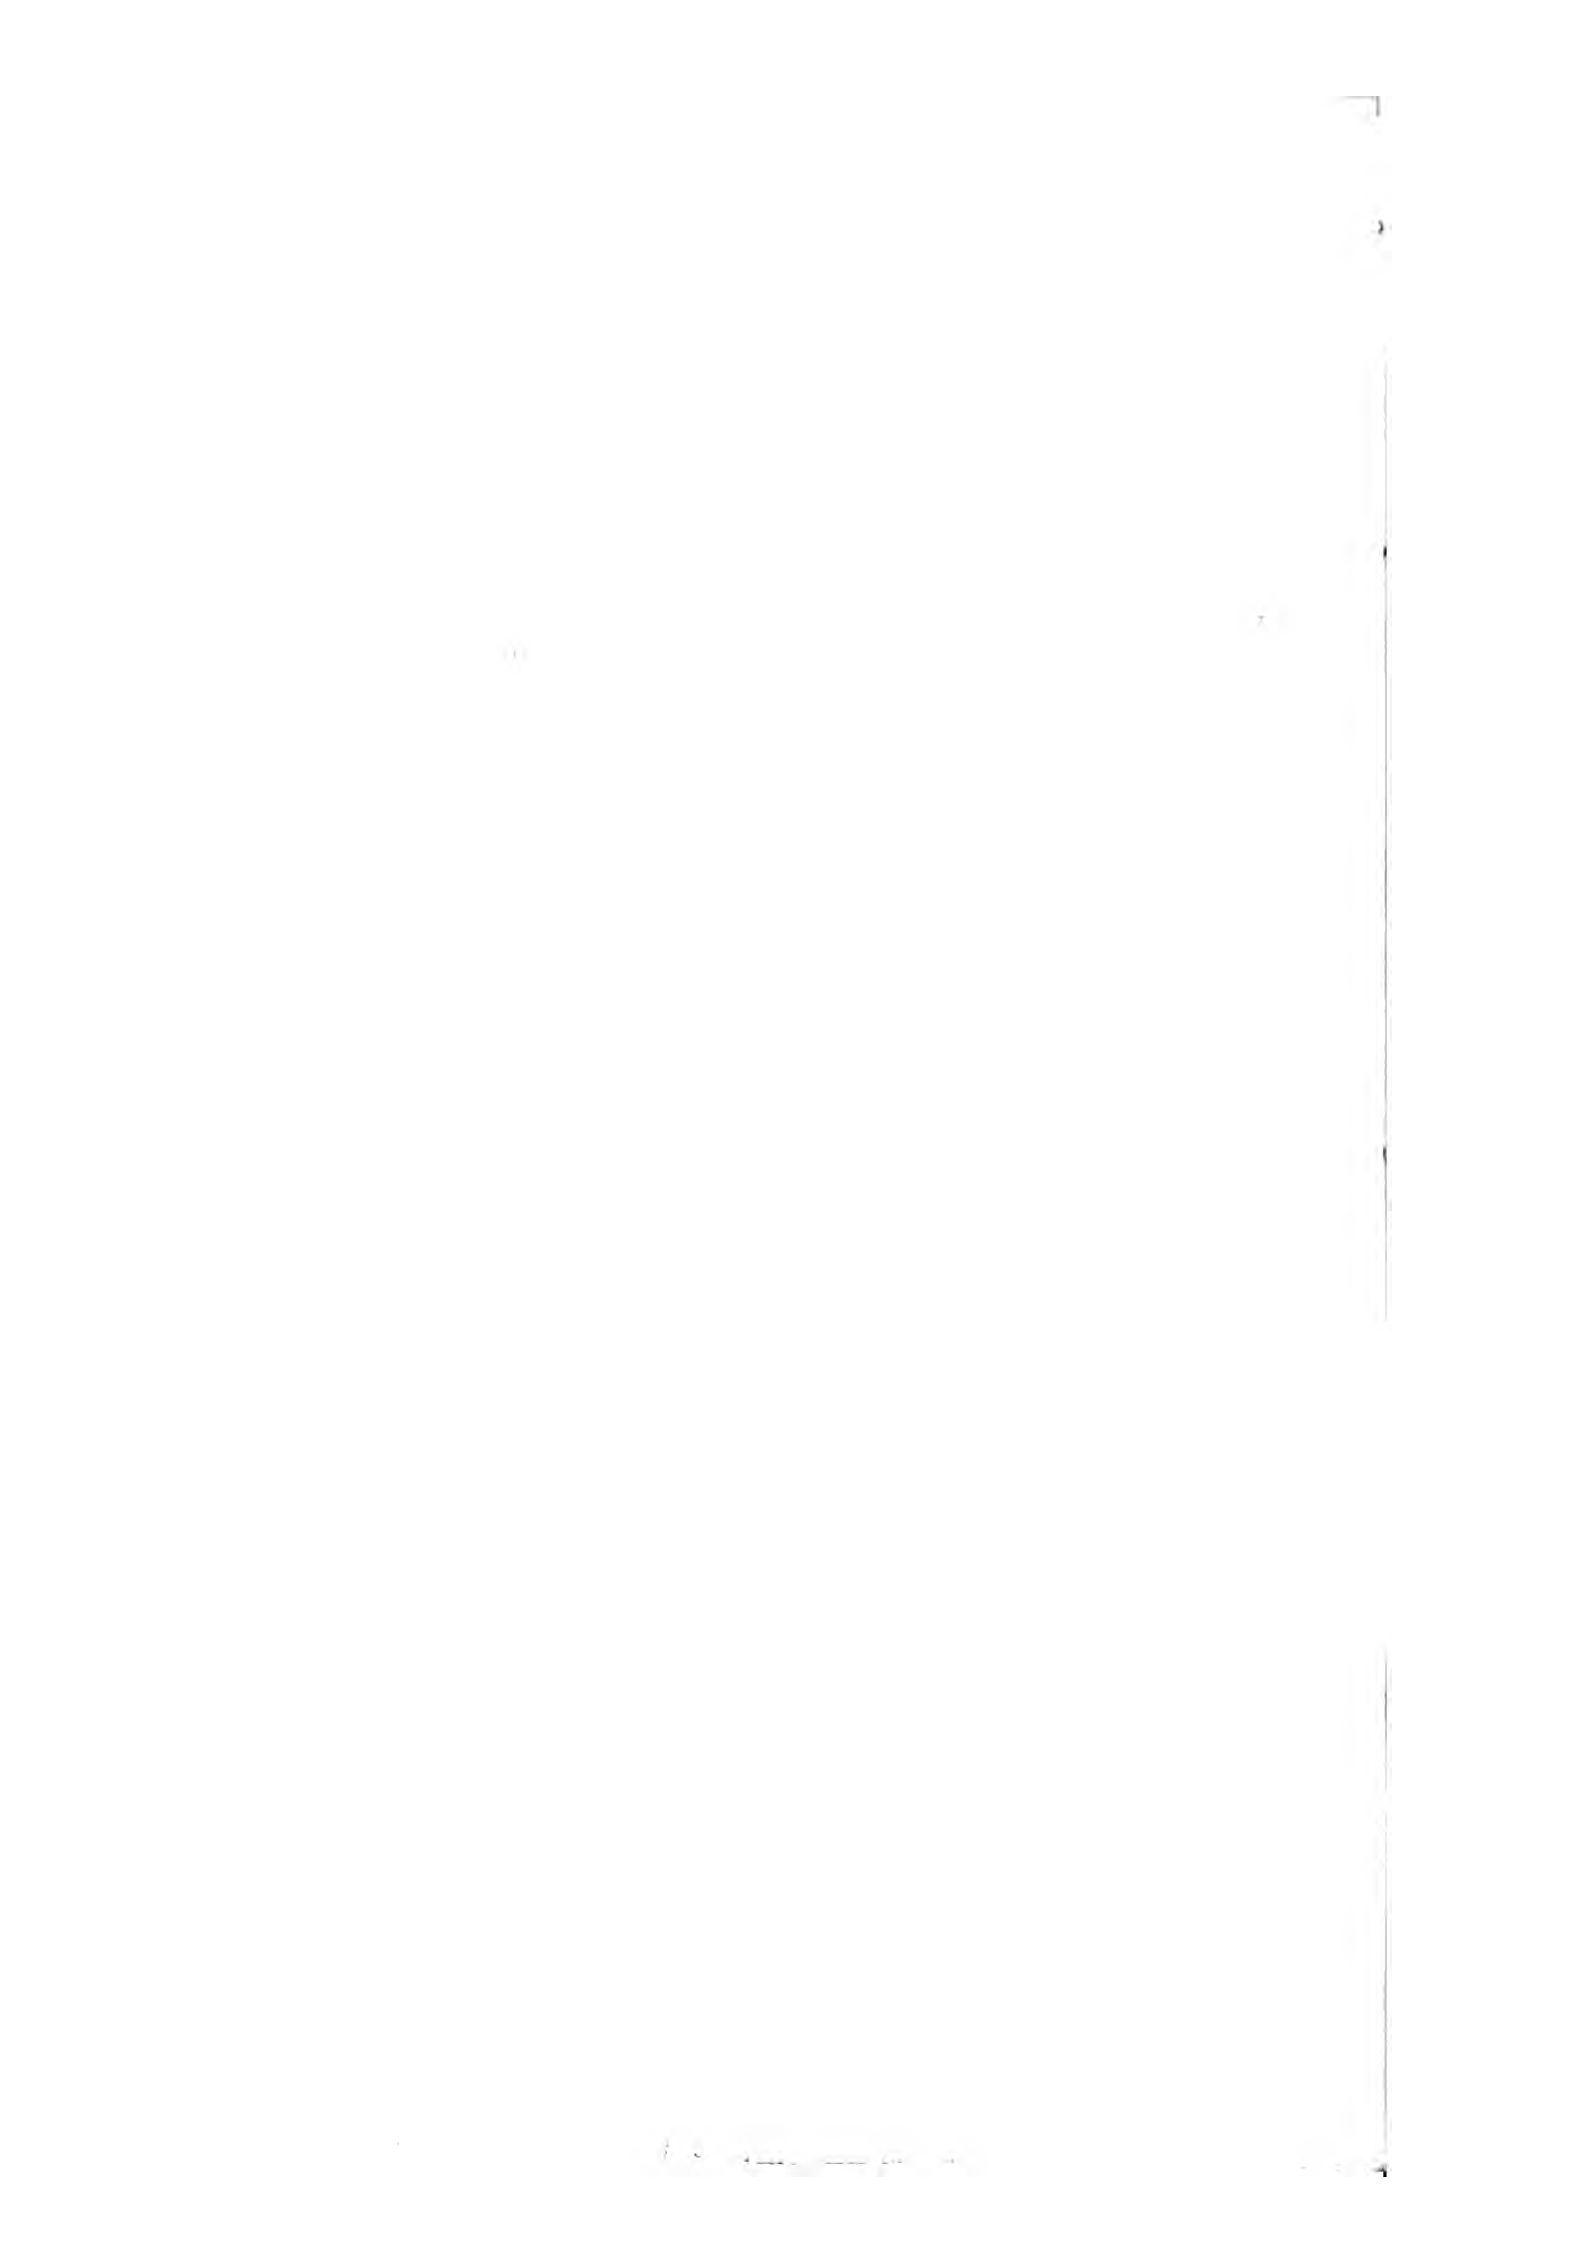

The complete Court and Tradesmen's Directory, with the Street Guide and Classification of Professions and Trades, will still be published triennially; and the next edition, with very considerable improvements, will therefore appear in the spring of 1862.

The very great number of superior residences which are in the constant course of occupation in every part of the town, and its vicinity, and the consequent great increase of permanent inhabitants, has determined the Publisher to adopt this alteration; so that a perfectly correct list of the residents in private houses, as well as of the changes of the preceding year, may appear annually.

The alterations in the General Trade Directory are considerably less frequent, and therefore a new edition of the complete book is not required more frequently than every third year.

The Publisher most respectfully solicits the favour of the occupiers of private houses, to help him in his endeavour to render this Directory in all respects completely accurate, by giving an early intimation of any removal or new occupancy.

173 North-street,
Feb. 1861.

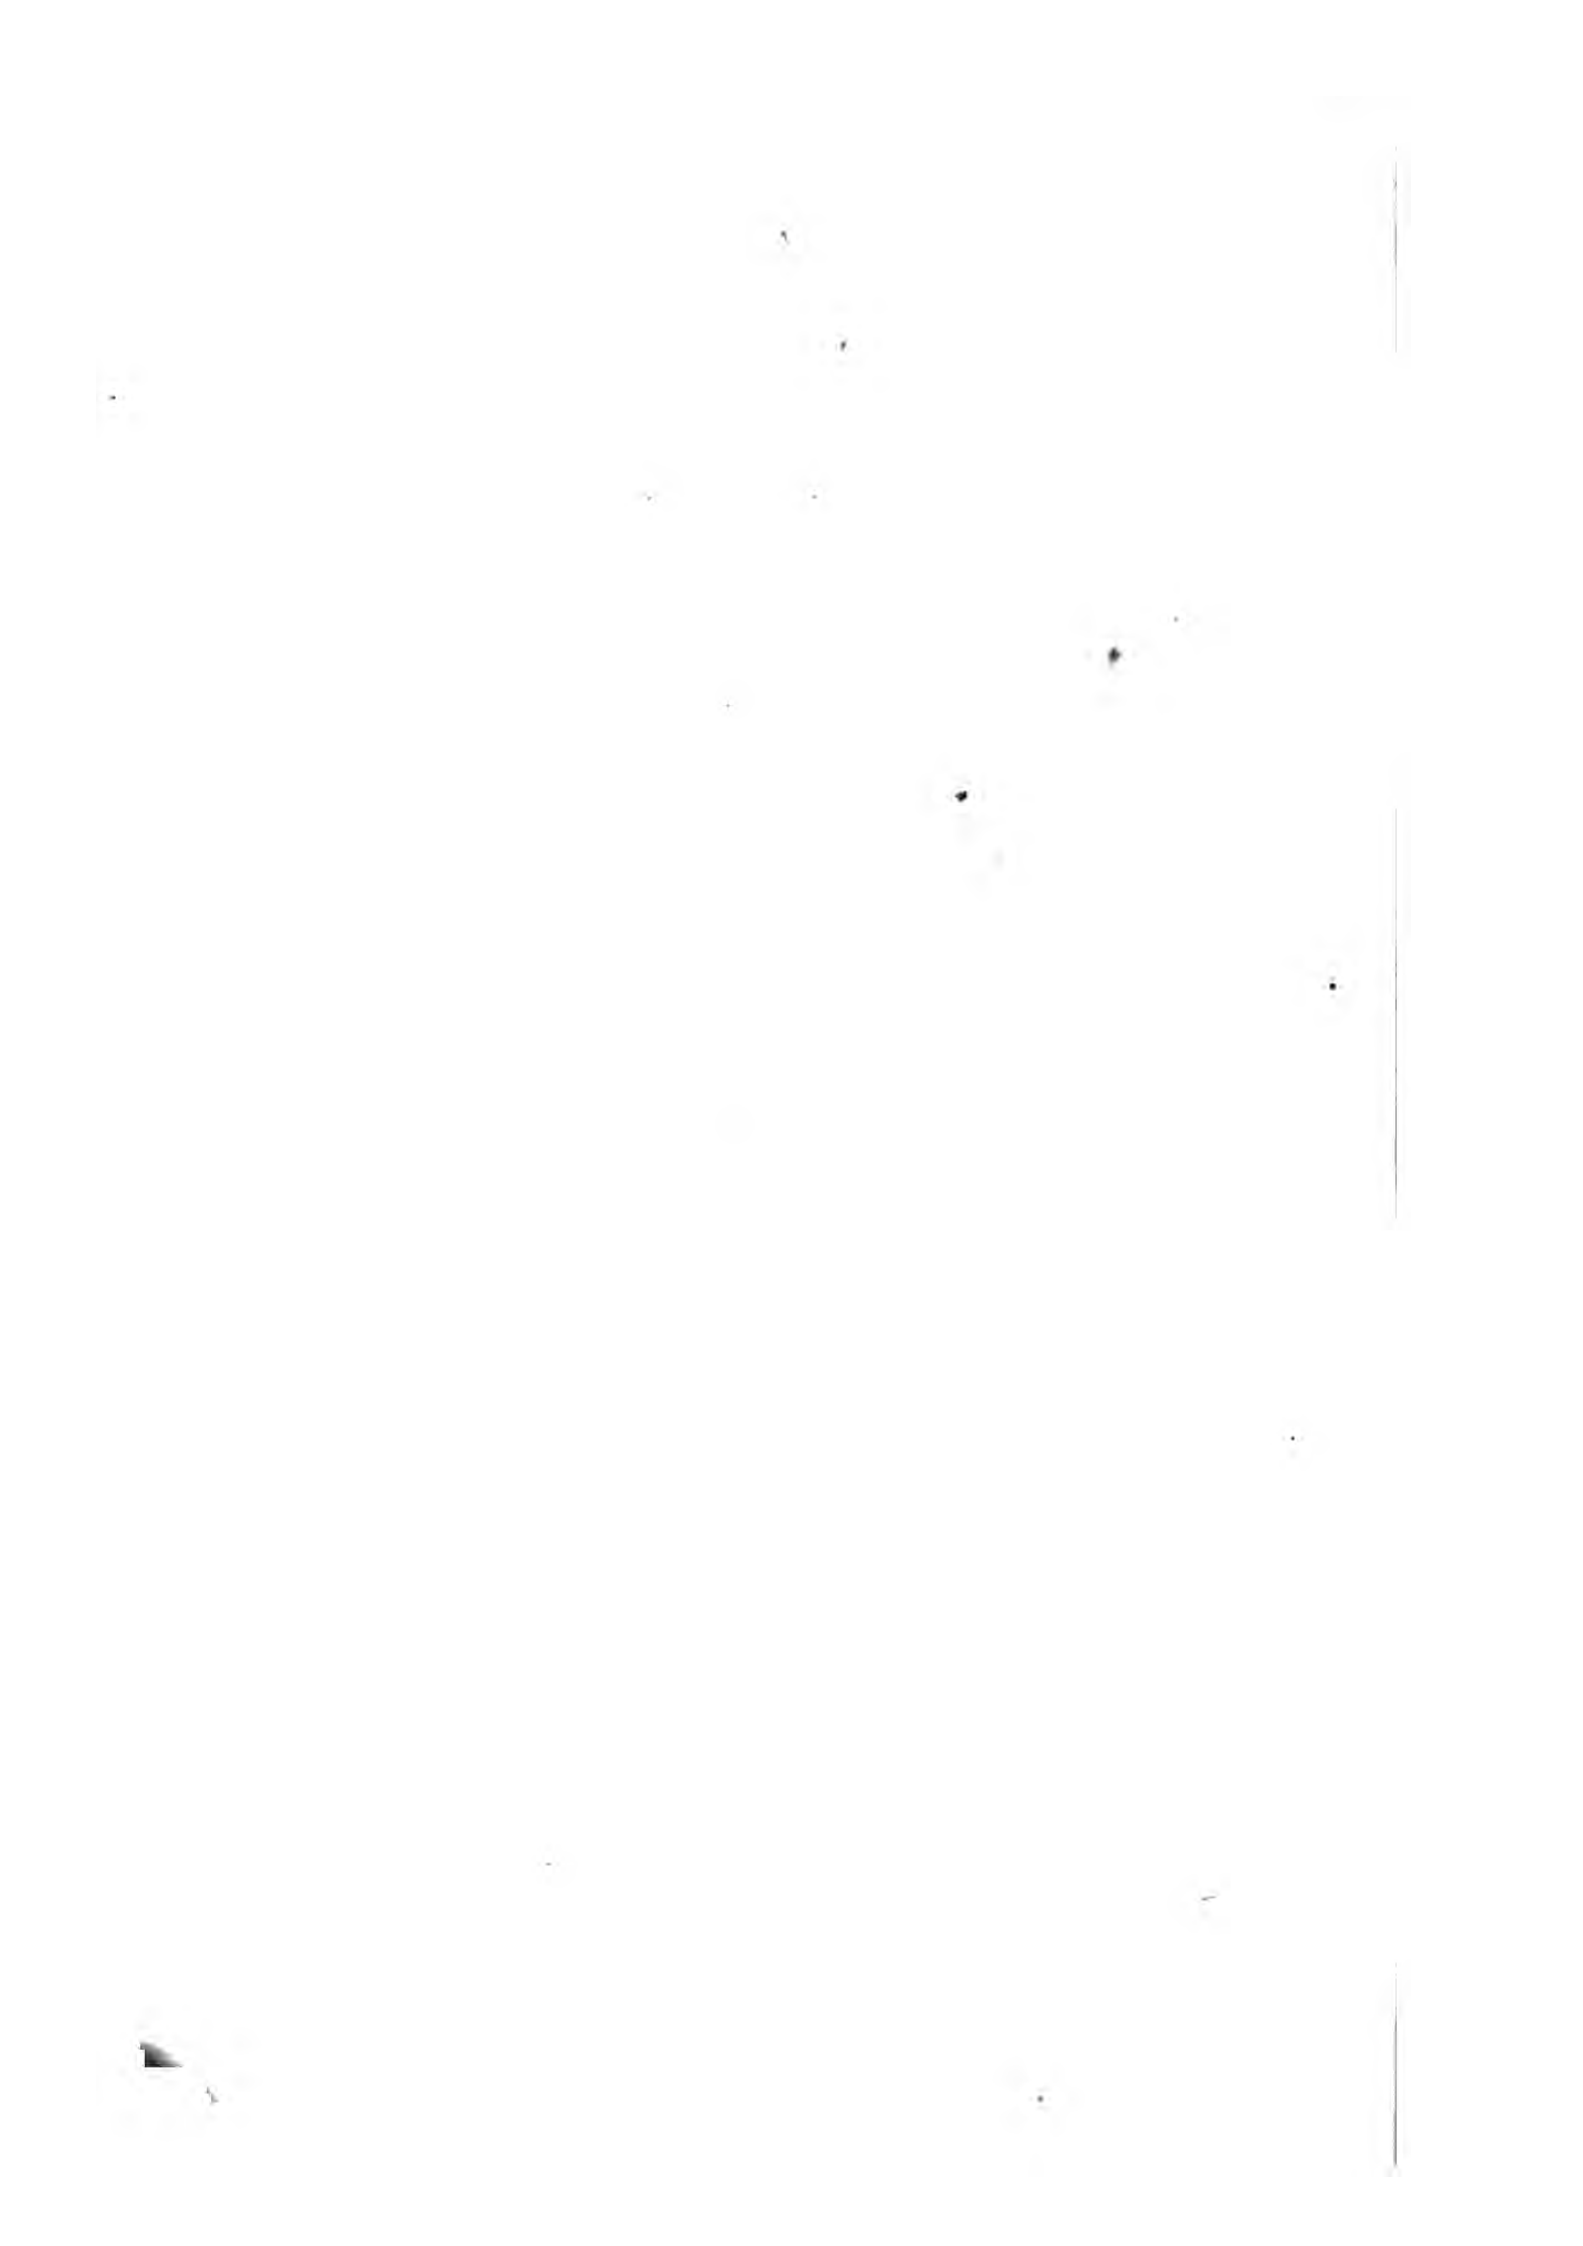

PROSPERITY AND POPULATION OF BRIGHTON.*

The prosperity of Brighton is altogether unexampled in the history of English watering-places. When the next census is taken, it is supposed that it will be found to contain a resident population of upwards of 80,000. It is impossible, of course, to state precisely the number of visitors that annually resort to it for health or pleasure, but it has been roughly estimated that not less than 100,000 persons visit Brighton every year. The following tabular view of the population at different periods since 1761, will indicate the rapidity of its progress:—

In 1761 the population of Brighton was	2,000
1786	3,600
1794	5,669
1801	7,339
1811	12,012
1821	24,429
1831	40,634
1841	46,661
1851	65,573

Lord Macaulay, in his “History of England,” states that in the time of Charles the Second “Brighton was described as a place which had once been thriving, which had possessed many small fishing barks, and which had, when at the height of prosperity, contained about two thousand inhabitants; but which was then sinking into decay. So desolate was the place that the vicarage at that date was thought scarcely worth having. A few poor fishermen, however, still continued to dry their nets on the very cliffs on which a town twice as large and populous as the Bristol of the Stuarts, now presents, mile after mile, its gay and fantastic front to the sea.”

FOURTH DIVISION OF PROFITS.

Special Notice. — Parties desirous of participating in the Fourth Division of Profits to be declared on Policies effected prior to the 31st of December 1861, should make immediate application. There have already been Three Divisions of Profits, and the Bonuses divided have averaged nearly 2 per Cent. per annum on the sums assured, or from 30 to 100 per Cent. on the premiums paid, without the risk of copartnership.

To show more clearly what these Bonuses amount to, the three following cases are given as examples :—

Sums Insured.	Bonuses added.	Amount payable up to Dec. 1854.
£5,000	£1,987 10	£6,987 10
1,000	397 10	1,397 10
100	39 15	139 15

Notwithstanding these large additions, the Premiums are on the lowest scale compatible with security; in addition to which advantages, one half of the Premiums may, if desired, for the term of five years, remain unpaid at 5 per Cent. interest, without security or deposit of the Policy.

The Assets of the Company at the 31st of December 1859 amounted to £690,140. 19s., all of which has been invested in Government and other approved securities.

No charge for Volunteer Military Corps whilst serving in the United Kingdom. Policy stamps paid by the Office.

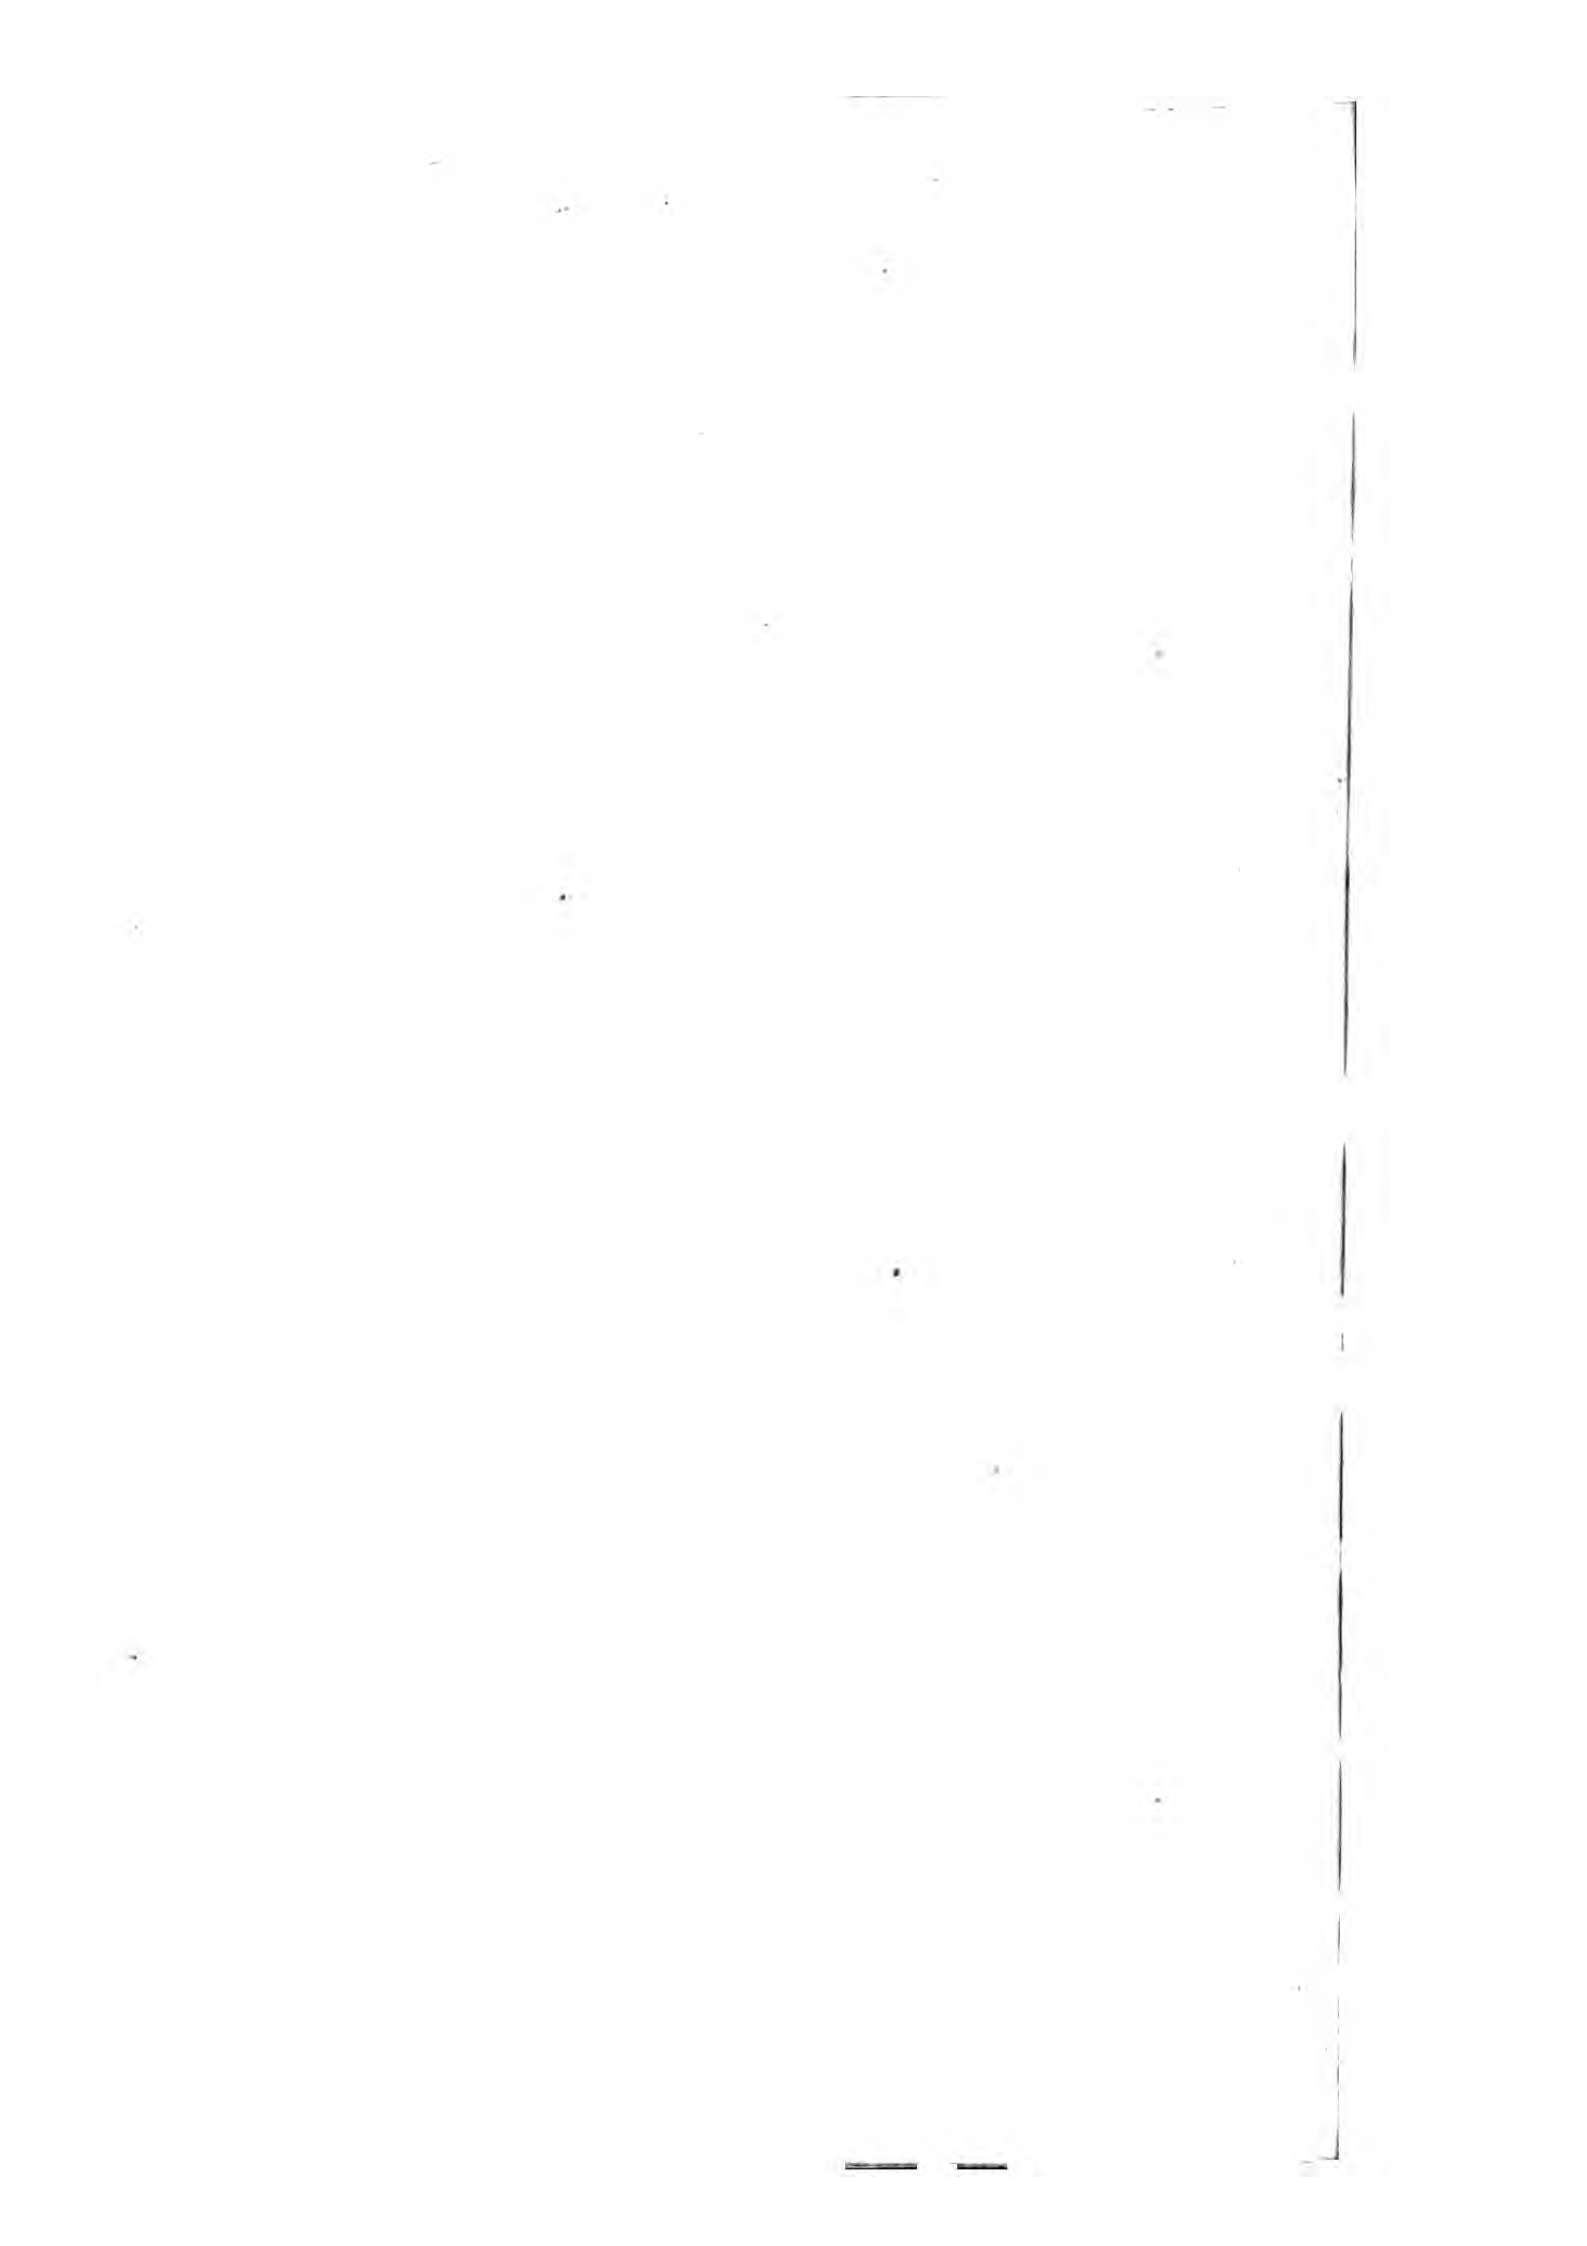

For Prospectuses, &c., apply to the Resident Director, No. 8 Waterloo Place, Pall Mall.

By Order, E. L. BOYD, Resident Director.
