BOYLE'S
COURT GUIDE,

FOR

January 1814.

ELIZA BOYLE, deeply impressed with the warmest sentiments of gratitude, returns her sincere thanks for the extensive patronage bestowed on the COURT GUIDE. In order to preserve a continuance of their great kindness, E. B. begs leave to assure the NOBILITY and GENTRY, that no pains, no expence shall be spared to render this work as correct as possible. An Orphan Family of SEVEN Children, entirely depending on her exertions, offers the surest pledge for her diligence and attention.

CAUTION
TO THE NOBILITY AND GENTRY.

ELIZA BOYLE respectfully cautions the NOBILITY and GENTRY against a man, whom, for great and repeated misconduct she has discharged from her employ. He is about 5 feet, 3 or 4 inches high, has a bald head, thick lips, and talks very fast. Having heard that this man has, in various places, made a demand of money for Insertions in the COURT GUIDE, E. B. begs leave to state that the persons employed by her have positive orders, under pain of dismissal, to make no charge for any Insertion or Alteration they may receive.

All Communications (if by Letter, Post-paid) respecting Change of Residence, Names mis spelt, or Country Residence, addressed to ELIZA BOYLE Printing Office, No. 15, Vine-Street, Piccadilly, will be esteemed a Favor, and strictly attended to.

For the convenience of the NOBILITY and GENTRY, a list of all the principal Hotels &c. is added at the end of the Alphabetical list of Names.

Office for the delivery of Cards,
15, VINE-STREET, PICCADILLY.

ELIZA BOYLE begs leave respectfully to inform the Nobility and Gentry, that she continues the Plan for arranging Visiting Books, delivering Visiting Cards, Cards of Invitation, Thanks, Routs, &c. as established and carried on by her late Husband, and hopes, by every attention to secure a continuance of those favors that may be conferred on her.

She assures them, that, from the arrangements made, she feels entitled to say, that no mistakes shall take place on her part, in the delivery, if the Cards sent to the office are directed right. She engages to deliver all Visiting Cards, Cards of Invitation, Thanks, &c. within 24 hours after the receipt thereof, provided the parties directed for reside within the Circle of Fashion.

SUBSCRIPTION. £. s. d.
