CAUTION AGAINST IMPOSTORS.

Persons, pretending to be employed by the Proprietors of this Work, having been to several Gentlemen's houses demanding money for the insertion of names in the Court Guide, the Nobility and Gentry are respectfully requested to take notice, that no money is or ever has been charged for such insertions, and the men employed are forbidden, under pain of prosecution, to make any charge. A Reward of Five Pounds will be given to any servant, or other person, through whose means the impostor shall be brought to conviction.

As many Families of Distinction take Houses in town for the whole, or part of the Fashionable Season, it has been found necessary to insert them, as well as the Owners of the Houses; the Nobility and Gentry, therefore, are respectfully requested to observe that, generally, where two names are inserted in the same Number, the first name is that of the Family to whom the House belongs, (who when in Town reside there,) and the second that of the temporary resident.

CHARING CROSS HOSPITAL, STRAND, near CHARING-CROSS.

The GOVERNORS of this Hospital beg to state that its Objects comprise the two-fold intention of a DISPENSARY for the relief of the Sick Poor at their own homes, and of an HOSPITAL for the reception of the more helpless and destitute; to afford immediate assistance in cases of accident, and gratuitous attendance and medicines to all needy afflicted persons, soldiers, sailors, and distressed foreigners, (who, far from their native homes, and the solace of their friends, and possessing no parochial aid, have powerful claims to commiseration;) to supply, under certain regulations, Trusses to those who require them, and Instruments to cases of Lameness and Deformity; to provide the attendance of experienced Midwives to Lying-in Women.

Since the first establishment of this Institution, it has afforded relief to upwards of NINETY THOUSAND SICK POOR, the greater part of whom have been restored to the blessings of health.

ADMITTED DURING THE LAST NINE YEARS.

Resident Director.

13, George Street, Hanover-square,
Nov. 20th, 1843.

The rapidity with which the Enrolment of Members for this New Literary Club has been filled up, is the best proof of its general popularity, and its perfect adaptation to the wants and tastes of a large portion of the community. Patronized as it has been, from the beginning, by persons of the highest rank in the kingdom, with a large accession of the Clergy and Gentry of the country, as well as Foreigners of distinction, from Greece, Italy, France, Spain, Germany, and America, and residents in the extensive Colonies of Great Britain, it can hardly fail to be one of the most agreeable places of resort in the metropolis. The conveniences of its Club department will be an additional recommendation to Gentlemen, while its popular Lectures, and Literary Musical Soirées, at which some of the first Vocal and Instrumental Professors will assist, will make it agreeable to Ladies; and as Peers and Prelates have entered their names as Family Members, there can be no doubt but that the circle of its society will be as select as it will be brilliant and accomplished.

* MR. BUCKINGHAM'S INAUGURAL DISCOURSE, delivered before the Members of the Institute, at the First Evening Meeting, the EARL OF DEVON in the Chair, contains the fullest development of the plan, objects, and details, of the Institute. A Second Edition of this, with the latest List of the Members enrolled, amounting to nearly 800 up to the present date, is just published, and may be had through any bookseller in Town or Country. Price One Shilling.

The peculiar feature of the FAMILY ENDOWMENT SOCIETY (established under special Act of Parliament in 1835) consists in securing a provision at a given age, to each of all the future children born of the same parents. The consideration may be a single sum paid down, or an equivalent annual premium.

The Annual Premiums required to secure an Endowment of £100 to each future Child, on attaining the age of 21, are as follow :—

Age of the Wife last birthday.	Annual Pre- miums to cease in 22 Years.	Age of the Wife last birthday.	Annual Pre- miums to cease in 22 Years.

Endowments may be secured payable at any other age ; and to Children of one sex only.

Endowments are likewise granted, the Annual Premiums for which may cease at the Parent's death, without affecting the future provision for the Children.

The Society also grants Endowments to an existing Child or Children singly. The contracts are always made payable to the Parent or Trustee, unless specially directed to be otherwise.

The Society also secures property to Heirs Presumptive, by assuring against the contingency of Children who might become Heirs.

The Society likewise assures Lives, and grants Annuities, and carries on all the business of an ordinary Life Assurance Company.

The leading features which distinguish the first of these plans from those of other Life Assurance Offices are, that the business is carried on by the Corporation without any charge for management being deducted from the profits, and that the assured are exempt from all liability of partnership.

The Abatement of Premium for the year 1843 on Policies of five years' standing, under the first of the above plans, was £31 10s. 2d. per cent.

Attendance daily from Ten till Four, at both Offices, where Prospectuses and every information may be obtained.

This Society is essentially one of Mutual Assurance, in which the Premiums of its Members are reduced, in an abatement after Seven Years, to the lowest amount consistent with safety. The abatement in 1838, 1839, 1840, was 60 per Cent.; in 1841, 62½; in 1842 and 1843, 65 per Cent.

But the Society also undertakes other descriptions of Insurance, in which the assured do not become members; and in order to confer on these a corresponding advantage of reduced Premiums, the Court of Directors, being ceased to allow any Agency Commission, have determined to effect this Class of Assurances in future at the following very low rates; and it has also been determined to reduce the Premiums charged upon existing Policies of the same Class to the same Scale.

Annual Premium for the Assurance of £100.

A Peruque should be a beautiful imposition of art, defying the possibility of discovery, or the object is defeated, and as the tincture of the skin varies with the colour of the hair, COLLEY has invented, and brought to the ne plus ultra of perfection a Peruque, so curiously constructed as to assimilate with every form of countenance; the complexional colours are wonderfully imitated, and the Wig is in such strict accordance with every point of the head, that the wearer is under the happy delusion of possessing a luxuriance of Natural Hair—in fact, the effect is inimitable, forming a Model for the Artist, and exhibits to the astonished eye the extraordinary power of art. Colley's Hair Cutting Rooms are attended by the most skilful and fashionable Practitioners, always at the command of those Ladies and Gentlemen who honour him with their patronage.

Policies in force Seven Years not forfeited by suicide.

The superior advantages to those Assured with this Society will be best understood by a comparison of its principles and a reference to the last Annual Bonus declared on Policies of five years' standing, at the Society's Meeting on the 10th May, 1843. The Report exhibited a steady increase in its business, and a Bonus was then declared, varying from 97 to 36 per cent. on Premiums, as an addition to the Policy—17½ per cent. in Cash, or 10 per cent. permanent reduction on all future premiums.

This Company, established by Act of Parliament, affords the most perfect security in an ample paid-up Capital, and in the great success which has attended it since its commencement in 1834.

In 1841, the Company declared an addition to the Shareholders of one-half of their Stock, and also added £2 per cent. per annum, from the date of the policies to those parties who had insured with Profits.

The Premiums, nevertheless, are on the most moderate scale, and only a moiety need be paid for the first five years, where the Insurance is for Life.

The amount of bonus added to policies since the commencement of the Company, in March, 1834, to the 31st Dec. 1840, is as follows:—

Sum Assured.	Time Assured.	Sum added to Policy.

For Stopping Decayed Teeth.

Patronised by Her Majesty,
His Royal Highness Prince Albert,
And Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Kent.

MR. THOMAS'S SUCCEDANEUM,

For Stopping Decayed Teeth, however large the cavity. It is far superior to anything ever before used, as it is placed in the tooth in a soft state without any pressure or pain, and in a short time becomes as hard as the enamel, and will remain firm in the tooth for many years, rendering extraction unnecessary. It arrests all further progress of decay, and renders them again useful in mastication.

Prepared only by Mr. THOMAS, Surgeon-Dentist, 68, Berners Street, Oxford Street.

Mr. THOMAS continues to supply the loss of Teeth without Springs or Wires, and has introduced an entirely NEW DESCRIPTION of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, which will be found very superior to all others, as they will never decay, nor become discoloured, and their perfect resemblance to nature defies detection even by the closest observer. This method does not require the extraction of any teeth or roots, or any painful operation whatever.

Mr. THOMAS, Surgeon-Dentist, 68, Berners Street, Oxford Street. At home from 11 till 4.

Auditors—O. Biddulph, Esq., Charing Cross; J. Freeman, Esq., Vauxhall Bridge; J. B. White, Jun., Esq., Tulse Hill.

Consulting Counsel—William Page Wood, Esq., 3, Stone-buildings.

Conveyancing Counsel—Samuel Jay, Esq., 10, Old-square, Lincoln's Inn.

Physician—W. R. Basham, M.D., 17 Chester-street, Grosvenor-place.

Surgeons—A. Leggatt, Esq., Ebury-street, Eaton-square; G. D. Pollock, Esq., Maddox-street, Hanover-square.

Bankers—Messrs. Cocks, Biddulph, and Co., Charing-cross.

Solicitors—Messrs. J. L. Bicknell and J. C. Lethbridge, 25, Abingdon-street, Westminster.

The leading features of this Society are:—

First—The very moderate rate of Premium when viewed as combined with security to the Assured.

Secondly—The advantage to Assurers of becoming entitled to THREE-FOURTHS of the Profits.

Thirdly—The Assurance of a certain bonus.

Fourthly—The facility of Securing Debts.

Fifthly—The Allowance of half the Annual Premiums to remain unpaid for seven years.

And Lastly—The Accommodation of temporary loans to the Assured on available Security.

By the mode adopted at this Office the prudent man is enabled, by the payment of a moderate Premium, to secure a certain provision to his family in the event of his death, even should that take place immediately after the Assurance has been effected. For example—A person, aged 30, may, with this Society, assure his life for £500, by the annual payment of £11 3s. 4d., which, in a Society where the Bonus is held out as a main inducement, would cost him £13 7s. 1d.; or, in other words, for the same annual premium he could at this Office assure very nearly £600, whereby he derives at once a Bonus of £100.

IMMEDIATE and DEFERRED annuities are granted by this Society on Terms advantageous to the Public.

E. T. RICHARDSON, Secretary.

A Dividend of the Profits of this Society was declared on the 1st of January, 1842, by which an addition, amounting on the average to 45 per cent. on the premiums received was made to all Policies entitled to share therein.

Four-fifths, or 80 per cent. of the total profits, are divided among the Assured at intervals of five years, and all Policies on which two payments have been made participate therein.

The Profits respectively allotted may be received by the Assured in present Money, by a reduction of the Annual Premium, or by adding to the policy an equivalent reversionary sum.

*All persons assured on their own lives for 1000*l.* or upwards have the right (after two annual payments) to attend and vote at the General Meetings of the Society.*

King William Street, London.

Empowered by Act of Parliament.

George Frederick Young, Esq., Chairman.

Matthew Forster, Esq., M.P., Deputy Chairman.

The superiority of the system of Assurance adopted by this Company, will be found in the fact that the Premium required by a Bonus office to assure £1000 on the life of a person in the 20th year of his age would in this office insure £1291 7s. 6d.

Assurances at other ages are effected on equally favourable terms, and thus the assured has an immediate bonus instead of a chance dependent upon longevity and the profits of an office. In cases of assurance for a limited number of years, the advantage offered by this Company is still greater, no part of the profits of a bonus office being ever allotted to such assurances.

Prospectuses, containing tables framed to meet the circumstances of all who desire to provide for themselves, or those who may survive them, by assurance, either of fixed sums or annuities, may be had at the office as above, or of the agents.

DEANE'S IMPROVED KITCHEN RANGE.

This Range is in its construction the least complicated, and in its operation by far the most expeditious and economical of any yet brought out.

Complete in itself, either fixed or unfixed, the Purchaser is, even before it is set, secure of a perfect Cooking Apparatus. Hence it has a decided superiority over other Ranges, which are never perfect until the Bricklayer has made them so: and thus they become dangerous for small houses, or such as are chiefly constructed of wood, or which have timber in the wall adjoining the kitchen fire-place.

By this Range every process of Cooking may be carried on:—Roasting, Baking, Broiling, Frying, Steaming, Boiling, Stewing, &c., and with the least possible consumption of fuel. Moreover, it is particularly adapted for Ships and Steam-packet use. By No. 5 size, a Dinner for not less than One Hundred people might be got up without delay or confusion.

There is no advantage contemplated in the arrangement of any modern Cooking Apparatus which is not realized in this. It comprehends every useful novelty, and excludes no ancient benefit. Roasting may be carried on, either as it is now so much the mode, with a closed front, or after the old-fashioned method, and to any extent, with an open fire. This double advantage is peculiar to the above Kitchen Range.

The top being loose, access may be had to the interior at any time, without a minute's delay; and unlike many modern Ranges, which are burned up after a few months' use, the substance of the metal and the construction of this Stove are such, that with very inconsiderable repairs it will last for many years. Where this Range is used, the chimney cannot smoke, and the quantity of soot produced is so small, that sweeping will be rendered superfluous, and the risks of fire are consequently superseded.

While it is everything that a limited housekeeper can wish for, it is exceedingly well fitted for Club Houses and Hotels, and is calculated for the utmost refinements of Cookery.

Its simplicity of construction, and especially, as noticed above, its being a perfect Range of itself, and independently of any Brick-work or setting, fit this Apparatus pre-eminently for use in warm climates. With suitable piping, which may be affixed at a very trifling additional cost, every process of Cooking may be carried on in the open air; and if Coal is not to be had, the construction of this Range provides against that deficiency also, enabling the Emigrant in the Forest to secure, by means of a Wood fire, all the comforts of a London Kitchen and Newcastle Coal.

An examination of the Range itself will prove at once that none of these assertions exceed the fact; and the Public are most respectfully invited to inspect it in operation at DEANE'S Warehouse.

DEANEAN PLATE.

A large addition has been made this season to the patterns of Tea-sets, Cruets, Toast-racks, Bottle-stands, &c., into which this beautiful metal is manufactured. The Spoons and Forks have all the breadth, finish, and elegance of the best London Silver plate. "The Deanean Plate Book," recently published, may be had in the Counting-houses.

DEANE'S

Registered Detonating Gun.

GEORGE and JOHN DEANE respectfully invite Noblemen and Gentlemen to inspect their Registered Detonating Gun, the quality and finish of which they will challenge any maker, however celebrated, to surpass. Manufactured on their Premises, at the Opening to the Monument, 46, King William Street, London Bridge.

DEANE'S

PORTABLE CONICAL STOVE.

This Stove is, unquestionably, one of the most useful and economical hitherto produced.

First, it is portable. After using it in your sitting-room, you may carry it with you to your chamber; and whenever a fire is suddenly wanted in any part of the house, thither it may be conveyed in Deane's Portable Conical Stove without a minute's delay.

Then, it is perfectly safe. Enclosed on all sides, no spark nor flame can issue from it; and the Stove may be left in a room with the fire burning unattended for hours, or even all night, without the slightest occasion for alarm.

Besides, it possesses an almost universal applicability. It is adapted either for the hall or the bed-room, the small green-house, or even the harness-room.

For lowness of cost it has certainly no rival, and the consumption of fuel will not be at a heavier charge than five farthings in twelve hours.

And lastly, it requires little or no attention after the fire is once lighted; only let the rules which accompany it be strictly observed, and you secure a comfortable fire for a considerable period, without a moment's care on your part.

RHEUMATISM.

THE MODE OF CURE,

BY WILLIAM COLES,

OF CHARING CROSS.

WHEN George the Fourth walk'd limping in his knee,
I hasten'd to the Court "to learn the cause
Of his distress;" as I could set him free,
If curable, by art, or Nature's laws.

How very strange some things are brought about;
The King had gout which could'nt be conceal'd;
By art and science taught, I soon found out
The mode of cure, which I to him reveal'd.

The Duke of Clarence kindly took my band,
And also an address, at least, a line,
In which I said, 'twould prove throughout the land,
And to the King himself, a thing divine.

What reckless thoughts were these! The band came back,
When lo! a royal page went hobbling past;
God save the king, "he takes me for a quack."
"Wear this," I said; "now mind, his die is cast!"

How strange it is that kings should have cold feet,
Kidneys touched with bile, sore throats, or spleen,
When that occurs, nought can with bands compete;
Such bonâ fide cures were never seen.

His dear Fitzherbert suffer'd most severe;
She sought relief, nor was it sought in vain;
The Lady Ludolph fain her friend would cheer,
And with the magic bands relieved her pain.

Court physicians,* however great and wise,
How pure their consciences, or great their souls,
Have fail'd to recommend that richest prize,
That certain mode of cure by DOCTOR COLES.

* One of these sages has a near relative who purchased one of Coles's Patent Trusses, and he was so much pleased that he purchased another the following day, when he took up his old truss, which lay before him, and said he was very much surprised that a surgeon, professing to have a regard for him, should get him into such a thing as that, and he threw it under the table.

Where, gentle reader, do you think he would have thrown it, had his friend just popped into the room at that moment?

HERNIA,

ITS REMEDY, & THE MEANS OF CURE.

BY WILLIAM COLES,

OF

3, CHARING CROSS.

Some surgeons never dreamt of stopping Hernia, still less the cure.

WHEN William ceased to wear an earthly crown,
I posted the first time, for half an age,
To Windsor, seeking in that ancient town
A former customer, a royal page.

I thus began: "Some fifteen years ago
You had some instruments," I said, "of me?"
" 'Tis true," he said, "and they relieved my woe,
And made me just the man that you now see."

"Your life preservers eight long years I wore;
I found them most efficient and complete;
Sockets and balls could not my health restore:
I intimated that to Surgeon Keate.

"If you through Keate's* advice got freed from pain,
Had told the king, whose sufferings were severe,
Many a happy hour he still might reign,
And not an early grave so soon found here.

* Had not numerous claims on Mr. Keate's valuable time, of perhaps greater importance than that of his Majesty's, precluded him from giving Mr. Coles a fuller audience when called upon to give his report to William the Fourth on COLES'S PATENT TRUSS, the latter could have told him, in another five minutes—

That a peer of the realm, who had been ten times consulting a serjeant-surgeon, who procured him many trusses that he could not wear; but his lordship would have overlooked that, had he also told him where he could get one that he could wear.

That another nobleman, who is uncle to a peer, and brother to one, who had employed during twenty years every truss then in use, was told by another serjeant-surgeon, that Mr. Coles's truss would not do at all in his case. That nobleman, however, has not since worn a truss of any other description but Coles's.

That a Right Hon. Baronet and Member of Parliament, in whose case also every truss-maker in London of any note had been employed—this noble patient declared he would do Mr. Coles all the good that lay in his power, for he never had a comfortable truss till he made it. And these three cases respectively might have been appended to Mr. Keate's Report. The Royal

" Had kings to useful science given a thought,
As they have done in less important arts ;
Such studies might their majesties have taught,
Why bunglers were preferred to men of parts.

" Let not the faculty, pursuing wealth,
Lay homicidal guilt upon their souls ;
Nor by neglect destroy their patients' health,
Merely to triumph over DOCTOR COLES."

page's case might also be included, who was not only furnished with the means to cure his Hernia, but also for the Gout or Rheumatism at the same time; and he wore (for two years occasionally, when the pain came on) the very band which his Majesty George the Fourth had returned. This occurred in 1822, whilst the nobleman's, alluded to by Mr. Coles in his Letter to William the Fourth, occurred four years after, (viz. 1826,) and they are great sporting characters, still capable of enjoying air and exercise, and two of them were positively cured of Hernia, in addition to the page, whilst a report is current that his Majesty's case cost him Fifty pounds only two days before his decease.

Moreover, Dr. Halkes, a banker at Deal, told Mr. Coles, when King William was lying in state, that he had furnished His Royal Highness with trusses when he was Lord High Admiral; but he might as well put on as many garters as the trusses he had been wearing.

The Doctor was ninety-two years old when this conversation took place, and he then purchased a new lease for his life—viz. the Second New Truss, at No. 3, CHARING CROSS.

The late Robert Shout, Esq., of Treherne House, Hampstead, sent a present to Mr. Coles, his Truss maker, which will serve as a Barometer, or Ruptured Man's Guide—viz., A Common Truss, entirely new; Mr. Egg's Truss, considerably worse for wear; A Ball and Socket, or rather Socket and Pipe Truss, perfectly new; Six Trusses of different kinds, of his own construction, together with the following brief note:—

17th August, 1843.

My dear Sir,—Having, by your assistance, attained my 80th year, I feel not only a pleasure, but also a duty, to give you this written testimony in favour of your Patent Trusses, three different kinds of which I have worn, and I can truly say the worst of them was of a hundred times more value in my case than any others I had employed.

I am, dear Sir,

Your humble servant,

ROBERT SHOUT.

STEPHEN DAVIES,
Times Wharf, Grosvenor Basin, Wilton Road,
Pimlico; and Somerset Wharf, Bankside,
Southwark. Central Office, 450 A, West
Strand; and City Office, Crosby Hall Chambers, Bishopsgate Street.

Established in 1827.

Proprietor of the Business of the late "London and Sunderland Coal Company," and to whose experience of Seventeen Years may be added the testimony of a Ledger of reference from upwards of 6000 families, has found it necessary, from the great increase of his business, to establish the above Wharf, for the more immediate accommodation of his West end friends and customers.

Studious to supply the very best article at the lowest possible prices, and enjoying the great advantage of importing coal direct from the collieries, he trusts still to receive that distinguished patronage which has hitherto crowned his exertions.

S. D.'s Prices are advertised in the Times, Morning Post, and other leading journals, every Saturday, and on other days.

Stephen Davies assures the Public that his keenest competitor cannot offer lower prices without substituting coals of an inferior quality, and pledges himself to give satisfaction in the event of any grounds of complaint.

Terms—Cash on Delivery.

N.B.—The Trade supplied on the most liberal Terms from the Ship, Barge, or Wharf.

CAUTION.—S. D. considers it his imperative duty, in justice to society, to caution the Public not to be misled by mock companies, assumed firms, or self-styled associations, vague and unblushing pretensions; he appeals to common sense, whether or not the merchant who freights his coals direct from the collieries to the consumer is not the person to be most relied upon.

Paper Hangings Washed and Paint Cleaned.

R. BURRIDGE,

The Original Inventor, begs most respectfully to call the attention of the Nobility and Gentry to his method of Cleaning India, Satin, and Bed-room Papers, by a chemical process of washing, without injuring the brilliancy of the colours or beauty of the designs. It is entirely free from any offensive smell, and particularly adapted for bed-rooms, as it removes every vestige of those repulsive insects generally found in sleeping apartments.

He also begs strongly to recommend his method of Cleaning Paint as being far superior to anything now in use for Painted Ceilings, Stucco Walls, Wainscots, &c.

MARBLE BUSTS, VASES, CHIMNEY PIECES, AND EVERY DESCRIPTION OF STATUARY AND ALABASTER, Bleached and Cleaned, without taking down or making any dirt.

HOUSE-PAINTING, PAPER HANGING, GILDING, WHITEWASHING, COLOURING, AND DISTEMPERING, done in the best possible manner and on the lowest terms.

GILT MOULDINGS, PICTURE AND LOOKING-GLASS FRAMES, CURTAIN CORNICES, &c. &c., having been stained by the action of smoke and fire, are Cleaned and Repaired to look nearly equal to new.

The Newly-Invented Marble Papers.

These beautiful and unequalled Papers, made to imitate Marbles and Larvæ, invented and brought to their present state of perfection, after great study, by Mr. R. BURRIDGE, are particularly adapted for Entrance Halls, Staircases, Baths, Waiting Rooms, &c. &c. One of the principal features of these Papers consists in the great variety of pattern they assume, there being no repetition whatever throughout, as is invariably the case with all the Marble Papers hitherto made.

Patterns of Paper Hangings from One Penny per Yard sent to any part of the Kingdom. Ladies and Gentlemen waited upon by addressing—

ELEGANCE AND ECONOMY FOR THE TABLE.

SILVER SUPERSEDED, and those corrosive and injurious metals, called Nickel and German Silver, supplanted by the introduction of a new and perfectly matchless ALBATA PLATE. C. WATSON, (late ALDERMAN,) 41 and 42, BARBICAN, and 16, NORTON FOLGATE, aided by a person of science in the amalgamation of metals, has succeeded in bringing to public notice, the most beautiful article ever yet offered, possessing all the richness of Silver in appearance—with all its durability and hardness—with its perfect sweetness in use—undergoing as it does a Chemical Process, by which all that is nauseous in mixed metals is entirely extracted—resisting all acids—may be cleaned as silver, and is manufactured into every article for the Table and Sideboard.

C. WATSON begs the Public will understand that this metal is peculiarly his own, and that Silver is not more different from Gold, than his metal is from all others—on its intrinsic merit alone he wishes it to be tested, and from the daily increasing eulogiums he receives, he is convinced that nothing can prevent its becoming an article of universal wear. C. WATSON'S handsomely ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUE and PRICE CURRENT is just published, and Families who regard economy and elegance should possess themselves of this useful Book, which may be had Gratis and Post Free, from the above Address.

Claudet's Daguerreotype Portraits

Are taken Daily at the ROYAL ADELAIDE GALLERY,
 LOWTHER ARCADE, STRAND.

The wonderful art by which Portraits and Representations of Natural or Artificial objects are permanently fixed upon silver plates by a self-acting process, has received so many improvements since its first discovery four years ago, that now, in point of effect, these unerring productions vie with the best works of human art, while in delicacy and finish they have the perfection of the productions of nature. Thus, Ladies as well as Gentlemen can now rely upon pleasing likenesses. The inspection of Mr. Claudet's Specimens, exhibited at the Royal Adelaide Gallery, will verify that the above statement is not exaggerated.

Price of a Single Portrait, £1 1s.; Colouring the same, 5s. Portraits and Groups of Figures are also taken upon Plates of an enlarged size, and for Locketts, Brooches, or Rings, as small as required.

The dotted lines on the side (...) shew where the Antigropelos open to admit the boots; the caps are the parts which cover the knee, as shewn by Patterns 3, 4, 6, and 7, which, as well as the Spurs, are 3s. per pair extra.

The Patentee begs leave to solicit attention to his unrivalled Invention, by the use of which Noblemen and Gentlemen are enabled to Walk or Ride in the dirtiest weather, without Splashing their Boots or Trousers.

They are put on and taken off without trouble, or soiling the hands, worn without the slightest inconvenience, and cleaned in a minute with a wet sponge; while the elegance of their appearance renders them an ornamental appendage to the outdoor costume.

This admirable Invention is finished in a variety of ways, as exemplified in the above Engravings.

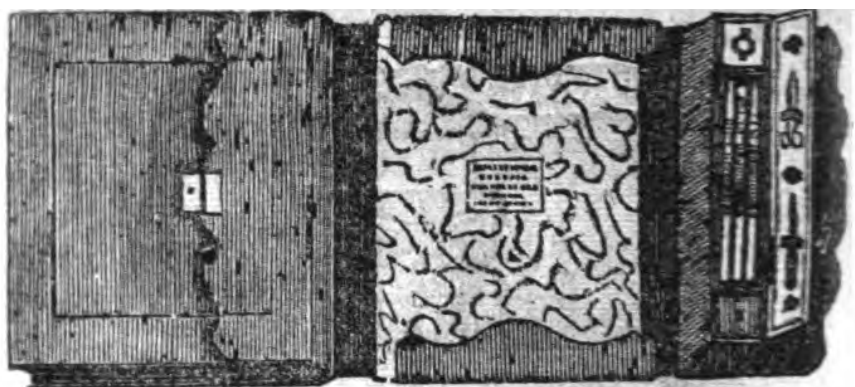

As attempts have been made to impose a spurious article on the Public, the Patentee thinks it necessary to caution Noblemen and Gentlemen, that none are the PATENT ANTIGROPELOS, unless stamped with his Name and the Royal Arms.
