Benachrichtigung.

Der Verfasser beabsichtigt in dem vorliegenden Werke die Resultate seiner Collation des zweiten Bandes des Londoner Inschriftenwerkes, welcher die Grundlage der assyrischen und akkadischen Studien enthält, in der Form eines Wörterverzeichnisses den Assyriologen und Anfängern in diesen Studien zugänglich zu machen. Schon öfter ist von verschiedenen Seiten der Wunsch ausgesprochen worden, diese Inschriften selbst von Neuem veröffentlicht zu sehen. Er wählte diese Form, um zugleich einen Beitrag zu einem künftigen philologisch-kritischen assyrischen Wörterbuche zu liefern und die Vorarbeiten dazu zu erleichtern. Die assyrischen und akkadischen Wörter sind in Transscription und Keilschrift der Reihe nach angeführt mit dem Citate der Stelle, wo sie in den Texten vorkommen, und dem Zusammenhange. Auch andere Texte aus dem ersten und fünften Bande der Cuneiform Inscriptions sind dabei berücksichtigt worden, wenngleich nicht mit derselben Vollständigkeit. Besonders ist darauf Rücksicht genommen worden, die den einzelnen assyrischen Wörtern entsprechenden akkadischen zu geben und umgekehrt. Es schien am einfachsten, das Akkadische nicht getrennt zu behandeln, sondern unter die assyrischen Wörter, nach der allgemein üblichen Transscription und nach dem semitischen Alphabete einzuordnen. Besondere Sorgfalt ist auch der Paläographie gewidmet worden, indem alle Wörter genau so wie sie an den citirten Stellen der Originale erscheinen, in archaischen, assyrischen oder babylonischen Charakteren angeführt worden sind.

Fünfter Band:

KEILSCHRIFTTEXTE SARGON'S, KÖNIGS VON ASSYRIEN. (722—705 v. Chr.)

Nach den Originalen neu herausgegeben, umschrieben, übersetzt und erklärt

von Dr. David Gordon Lyon,

Professor an der Harvard Universität zu Cambridge, Mass. U. S. A.

1883. gr. 4. XVI u. 94 Seiten. M. 24. —

Der Verfasser giebt die Cylinder- und Stier-Inschrift, sowie die Bronze-, Silber-, Gold- und Antimon-Inschrift des assyrischen Königs Sargon in sorgfältigster Abschrift nebst einer grossen Zahl Varianten anderer Copien dieser Inschriften und hebt, um nirgends Zweifel zu lassen, die mangelhaften Abweichungen der früheren Ausgaben absichtlich hervor. Für die assyrische Paläographie verspricht das Werk besonders werthvoll zu werden, da es durchweg die Keilschriftzeichen in peinlichster Übereinstimmung mit den Originalen wiedergiebt. Im Commentar beschränkt sich der Verf. wesentlich auf die schwereren, bis jetzt missverstandenen Stellen, jedoch mit steter Berücksichtigung der älteren Erklärungsversuche.

I. Abtheilung. Der Keilschrifttext der ersten 10 Tafeln.

1884. gr. 4. 76 Tafeln. circa M. 15. —

Das Werk enthält den autographirten Keilschrifttext von 40 im Britischen Museum befindlichen Bruchstücken der ersten 10 Gesänge der sogenannten Izdubarlegenden, in deren elftem sich die keilinschriftliche Sintfluthepisode findet. Bisher war nur ein Theil der sechsten und der elften Tafel im vierten Bande des englischen Inschriftenwerkes herausgegeben worden; die übrigen sind nur aus den Übersetzungen in George Smith's „Chaldäischer Genesis“ bekannt. Von mehreren der Tafeln haben wir verschiedene Exemplare, allein von dem Sintfluthberichte kennen wir bis jetzt schon die Bruchstücke von neun Tafeln. Der Herausgeber hat jedes Fragment besonders mit der grössten Sorgfalt copirt und zu wiederholten Malen genau collationirt; auch alle seine Abschriften, mit Einschluss sämtlicher Duplicate, vollständig veröffentlicht; nicht bloss einen nach den verschiedenen Exemplaren zusammengesetzten Text, wie er sich im Londoner Inschriftenwerke findet, da es mindestens von gleicher Wichtigkeit ist, die Übereinstimmungen der Duplicate kennen zu lernen, wie ihre Abweichungen. Nur bei der sechsten Tafel ist in erster Linie für den Gebrauch bei akademischen Vorlesungen, ausser den einzelnen Bruchstücken auch der vollständige aus den Fragmenten RM 578, Sm. 401, Fm. 2112, K. 5335, K. 4579 + D.T. 2, K. 3990, K. 231 zusammengesetzte Text mit sämtlichen Varianten gegeben worden. Dasselbe wird auch bei den Sintfluth tafeln geschehen, welche mit dem zwölften und letzten Gesange zusammen in der zweiten Abtheilung zur Veröffentlichung kommen werden. Nach Fertigstellung des Textes und einer nochmaligen Collation desselben mit den Originalen, gedenkt der Verfasser, die Transscription und Übersetzung nebst Commentar und Glossar in der Weise seiner Bearbeitung des keilinschriftlichen Sintfluthberichtes in der zweiten Auflage von Eberhard Schrader's „Die Keilinschriften und das Alte Testament“ (Giessen 1853) folgen zu lassen.

Benachrichtigung.

Der Verfasser beabsichtigt in dem vorliegenden Werke die Resultate seiner Collation des zweiten Bandes des Londoner Inschriftenwerkes, welcher die Grundlage der assyrischen und akkadischen Studien enthält, in der Form eines Wörterverzeichnisses den Assyriologen und Anfängern in diesen Studien zugänglich zu machen. Schon öfter ist von verschiedenen Seiten der Wunsch ausgesprochen worden, diese Inschriften selbst von Neuem veröffentlicht zu sehen. Er wählte diese Form, um zugleich einen Beitrag zu einem künftigen philologisch-kritischen assyrischen Wörterbuche zu liefern und die Vorarbeiten dazu zu erleichtern. Die assyrischen und akkadischen Wörter sind in Transscription und Keilschrift der Reihe nach angeführt mit dem Citate der Stelle, wo sie in den Texten vorkommen, und dem Zusammenhange. Auch andere Texte aus dem ersten und fünften Bande der Cuneiform Inscriptions sind dabei berücksichtigt worden, wengleich nicht mit derselben Vollständigkeit. Besonders ist darauf Rücksicht genommen worden, die den einzelnen assyrischen Wörtern entsprechenden akkadischen zu geben und umgekehrt. Es schien am einfachsten, das Akkadische nicht getrennt zu behandeln, sondern unter die assyrischen Wörter, nach der allgemein üblichen Transscription und nach dem semitischen Alphabete einzuordnen. Besondere Sorgfalt ist auch der Paläographie gewidmet worden, indem alle Wörter genau so wie sie an den citirten Stellen der Originale erscheinen, in archaistischen, assyrischen oder babylonischen Charakteren angeführt worden sind.

Fünfter Band:

KEILSCHRIFTTEXTE SARGON'S, KÖNIGS VON ASSYRIEN.

(722—705 v. Chr.)

Nach den Originalen neu herausgegeben, umschrieben, übersetzt und erklärt

von Dr. David Gordon Lyon,

Professor an der Harvard Universität zu Cambridge, Mass. U. S. A.

1883. gr. 4. XVI u. 94 Seiten. M. 24. —

Der Verfasser giebt die Cylinder- und Stier-Inschrift, sowie die Bronze-, Silber-, Gold- und Antimon-Inschrift des assyrischen Königs Sargon in sorgfältigster Abschrift nebst einer grossen Zahl Varianten anderer Copien dieser Inschriften und hebt, um nirgends Zweifel zu lassen, die mangelhaften Abweichungen der früheren Ausgaben absichtlich hervor. Für die assyrische Paläographie verspricht das Werk besonders werthvoll zu werden, da es durchweg die Keilschriftzeichen in peinlichster Übereinstimmung mit den Originalen wiedergiebt. Im Commentar beschränkt sich der Verf. wesentlich auf die schwereren, bis jetzt missverstandenen Stellen, jedoch mit steter Berücksichtigung der älteren Erklärungsversuche.

Der Verfasser hat diesem Werke eine möglichst übersichtliche und correcte Ausgabe des in verschiedenen, zum Theil schwer zugänglichen, Publicationen verstreuten Textes der sogenannten „Trilinguen Inschriften“ mit danebenstehender Übersetzung zu geben versucht. Die Lesarten sämtlicher früheren Editionen von Niebuhr, de Saulcy, Westergaard, Rawlinson, Oppert etc. sind in zahlreichen, siebzehn Seiten füllenden, autographirten textkritischen Anmerkungen verzeichnet und geprüft worden. Als Anhang ist auf sechzehn von Paul Haupt autographirten Tafeln der Keilschrifttext der kleineren Achämenideninschriften, zum Theil nach neu angefertigten Copien der im Britischen Museum aufbewahrten Papierabklatsche und den photographischen Aufnahmen in dem Stolze'schen Prachtwerke „Persepolis“, beigegeben.

Keilschrifttext der Bruchstücke der sogenannten Izdubarlegenden mit dem keilinschriftlichen Sintfluthberichte

Nach den Originalen im Britischen Museum copirt und herausgegeben

Professor der Assyriologie an der Universität Göttingen.

I. Abtheilung. Der Keilschrifttext der ersten 10 Tafeln.

1884. gr. 4. 78 autogr. Seiten. M. 20. —

Das Werk enthält den autographirten Keilschrifttext von 42 im Britischen Museum befindlichen Bruchstücken der ersten 10 Gesänge der sogenannten Izdubarlegenden, in deren elftem sich die keilinschriftliche Sintfluthepisode findet. Bisher war nur ein Theil der sechsten und der elften Tafel im vierten Bande des englischen Inschriftenwerkes herausgegeben worden; die übrigen sind nur aus den Übersetzungen in George Smith's „Chaldäischer Genesis“ bekannt. Von mehreren der Tafeln haben wir verschiedene Exemplare, allein von dem Sintfluthberichte kennen wir bis jetzt schon die Bruchstücke von neun Tafeln. Der Herausgeber hat jedes Fragment besonders mit der grössten Sorgfalt copirt und zu wiederholten Malen genau collationirt; auch alle seine Abschriften, mit Einschluss sämtlicher Duplicate, vollständig veröffentlicht; nicht bloss einen nach den verschiedenen Exemplaren zusammengesetzten Text, wie er sich im Londoner Inschriftenwerke findet, da es mindestens von gleicher Wichtigkeit ist, die Übereinstimmungen der Duplicate kennen zu lernen, wie ihre Abweichungen. Nur bei der sechsten Tafel ist in erster Linie für den Gebrauch bei akademischen Vorlesungen, ausser den einzelnen Bruchstücken auch der vollständige aus den Fragmenten RM 578, Sm. 401, Fm. 2112, K. 5335, K. 4579 + D.T. 2, K. 3990, K. 231 zusammengesetzte Text mit sämtlichen Varianten gegeben worden. Dasselbe wird auch bei den Sintfluthafeln geschehen, welche mit dem zwölften und letzten Gesange zusammen in der zweiten Abtheilung zur Veröffentlichung kommen werden. Nach Fertigstellung des Textes und einer nochmaligen Collation desselben mit den Originalen, gedenkt der Verfasser, die Transcription und Übersetzung nebst Commentar und Glossar in der Weise seiner Bearbeitung des keilinschriftlichen Sintfluthberichtes in der zweiten Auflage von Eberhard Schrader's „Die Keilinschriften und das Alte Testament“ (Giesesen 1883) folgen zu lassen.
