THE MOST EXTRAORDINARY INVENTION OF

VERMACHER'S PATENT PORTABLE

HYDRO-ELECTRIC VOLTAIC CHAIN,

FOR PERSONAL USE,

(First brought before the Public at the great Exhibition of 1851,)

Is an event of the highest importance in the annals of Medicine and Electricity. It relieves, without shock or other disagreeable sensation, instantaneously—the moment it is applied—all acute nervous pains, as rheumatic pain, nervous head, tooth and ear-ache, tic douloureux, &c. ;—cures, when worn on the body for some time, by its mild but continuous action, a great number of chronic diseases of long standing, such as Chronic Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lumbago, Gout, Podagra, Liver Complaints, Organic Congestion, Hysteria and Female Complaints, Paralytic and Epileptic Affections, Chorea, inveterate Ulcers, indolent Swellings and Tumours, &c. ; it precipitates Metals from their solutions, decomposes Unacidulated Water, and shows all other phenomena of a powerful voltaic pile.

The instrument producing these effects weighs about two ounces, can be folded up in a pocket-book, is permanently connected and arranged, so as to be always ready for instantaneous use, requires no cleansing, and will last a man his lifetime, guarding not only himself, but his family, friends, &c. against that immense number of complaints and diseases, in which mild streaming Electricity has been found to be a perfectly safe, certain, and—mostly—instantaneous remedy. The Chains, with every requisite, are sold at, from 4s. 6d. to 26s. 6d.

Incredible as may seem the above stated facts, their reality is corroborated already by thousands of experiences, collected for a considerable part by medical men of the highest standing in the hospitals of the metropolis and country, and therefore scientifically ascertained and pronounced; besides, the action being felt and seen the moment the apparatus is applied, every person can convince himself beforehand at any of the Depots.

There has never existed a remedy of so immediate and startling effect, of so universal character, and of so simple and safe application, as the Hydro-electric Chain.

A full description of this wonderful discovery, terms for agencies, &c. may be obtained at the principal

Depots, 103, Leadenhall Street, City, and 71, Quadrant, Regent Street, London,

From CHARLES MEINIG, Managing Proprietor.

The following Extract of a Letter from Dr. GOLDING BIRD, A.M., M.D., F.R.C.P., F.L.S., dated 29th August, 1851, is published by his kind permission.

. . . . "We have in this ingenious invention, that which has long been a desideratum, viz. an Apparatus of the smallest possible bulk, capable of evolving a continuous uninterrupted current of Electricity of moderate tension, and always in one direction. . . . . I can hardly recommend Dr. Pulvermacher's Invention too strongly to the use of my medical brethren."

The invention has been exhibited with universal acknowledgment before the Royal College of Physicians (meeting 28th June, 1851); the Royal College of Surgeons (meeting 2nd July, 1851); the Royal British Association (meeting at Ipswich 8th July, 1851); the Pharmaceutical Society (meeting 3rd June, 1851); the Provincial Medical and Surgical Association (meeting at Brighton 13th and 14th August, 1851); the Academie Nationale de Medecine at Paris (voted thanks to the inventor). From the following Hospitals, highly favourable testimonials have been received: Guy's Hospital, London Hospital, University College Hospital, King's College Hospital, Royal Free Hospital, Charing Cross Hospital; Hospital Bougeon, Paris; Hospital St. Louis, Paris.

Extract of "The Medical Times" of 2nd August, 1851:

. . . . "We have been thus particular in describing this form of apparatus for the application of Galvanism to medical purposes, because we look upon it as most ingenious and novel. "

Extract of "The Lancet" of [illegible] 1851.

ADDRESS.

In issuing THE GREENWICH AND WOOLWICH DIRECTORY for 1852, the Proprietor has to return his most sincere thanks to those Gentlemen who have suggested various important improvements, which have been carried out as far as time would allow, and which will be completed in the Edition for 1853, and likewise for the very liberal and distinguished patronage bestowed upon the Work.

The Proprietor regrets that the present Edition has been delayed beyond the time promised; but he is desirous to inform his numerous Subscribers that every care has been taken to render it as accurate as possible, the delay, therefore, has been unavoidable.

In Books of this description, particularly in the first publication, there are usually many errors. The Proprietor of this Directory, however, flatters himself that it will be found more correct than such works usually are, still he intends very carefully to revise it, by which means he will be enabled to produce his future Editions as correct as possible.

The generality of Directories have little or no circulation among the Gentry, from the fact that they are not called upon by the Agents employed to collect their addresses, their information being usually obtained from Tax Collectors, and others.

Those, however, who adopt such a course, practise a gross imposition on the advertisers, inasmuch as the extent of the sale is merely extended to persons in business,—subscribers from the Private Residents being in reality few or none.

To those parties who have inserted their advertisements, the Proprietor has much gratification in stating, that they will have a considerable circulation among the Private Residents, each one having been solicited, to subscribe to the work, by which means the number of subscribers have been very much increased.

In conclusion, the Proprietor of THE GREENWICH AND WOOLWICH DIRECTORY, respectfully assures those who may favour him with their Advertisements for the next Edition, that, in justice towards them as well as promoting his own interest, the utmost care will be taken to obtain as large a circulation among the Private Residents as possble.

LETTERS REGISTERED.

Letters can be Registered whether containing Coin or not, on Payment of One Shilling in addition to the Postage The system of Registering Lettters provides a secure mode of transmitting Cash or valuable property, and avoids the risk of sending Money through the medium of the Money Order Office; in addition, to Register a Letter is preferable; for instance, a Money Order may be sent to a person in the country, and the nearest Office may be some miles beyond the party's address, whereas a Registered Letter would be safely delivered at the person's door.

LOST REGISTERED LETTERS.

Every irregularity connected with Registered Letters is immediately communicated to the Secretary in London, and when such letters are lost, if traced to a particular postmaster as the last officer through whose hands they passed, he is held responsible. The receipt of registered letters is acknowledged by the initials or name (on the bill) of the officer who may receive them.

MONEY ORDERS.

The Commission charged for Money Orders is Threepence on sums not exceeding Two Pounds, and on sums above two, and not exceeding Five Pounds, Sixpence. A Money Order cannot be obtained above Five Pounds. Parties wishing to transmit money to a person residing in London, should draw the Order payable at the nearest office to his residence; if not, when the amount is paid to the Postmaster, and he is told to draw on London, such orders are only cashed at the Chief Office, St. Martin's-le-Grand, thereby causing much inconvenience to parties residing in the suburbs of London; therefore, in remitting money to London, refer to the following localities for the nearest office:—

Chief Office, St. Martin's-le-Grand; Branch Offices, Charing Cross; Lombard-street; and Borough-road. NOTE.—Charing Cross and Lombard-street Offices grant Money Orders, but do not pay them.

LOST MONEY ORDERS.

Duplicates may be obtained by writing to the Secretary of the Chief Post Office, giving the date, and where first obtained.

LETTERS THAT ARE OPENED.

Letters which cannot be found as addressed,—unpaid letters, intended to go by private ship,—letters for foreign parts, where the postage should be paid in advance, except there be an unpaid route,—letters posted without any address upon them,—letters containing dangerous articles, when the sender cannot be found,—unpaid letters to sailors or soldiers,—and bankrupts' letters stopped by order of assignee.

LETTERS TO PERSONS REMOVED.

Letters addressed to persons who have gone away or removed, and left no subsequent address, and whose letters in consequence cannot be forwarded, are endorsed "gone away and left no address:" they are treated the same as refused letters, that is, registered by the letter carrier of the district, and either returned to the writer or destroyed, "not having been delivered for the reason assigned thereon," after three days' reserve.

LOST LETTERS—HOW TO ENQUIRE FOR THEM.

Letters which through any cause may not have come to hand, can be most expeditiously enquired for by making an application, in writing, to "Lieutenant-Colonel Maberley, Post Office, London." To facilitate the enquiry it is desirable the fullest information should be stated in the letter, such as the date and place of posting, exact address, whether paid, stamped, unpaid, &c.

NEWSPAPERS.

All Newspapers must be sent in covers, open at the sides, and no words or communication may be printed on such papers after the same shall have been published, nor must there be any writing or marks upon any Newspaper, or the cover, other than the name and address of the person to whom it is sent; nor any paper or thing enclosed or concealed in, or with such newspaper, or the cover, nor any printed words or communication on the cover, except that Newsvenders only may print their names and addresses thereon. Newspapers may be examined by the Officers of the Post Office; and if there be any breach of the above regulations, the packet is chargeable with treble the amount of postage which a letter of the same weight would have been liable to. And any person who shall write or enclose anything in any Newspaper or the cover thereof, or shall print any words or communication on a Newspaper, after it shall have been published, to be sent by the Post, or any person who shall knowingly send, or cause to be sent, by the Post, a Newspaper in respect of which any one of those offences has been committed, may, at the option of the Postmaster General, be prosecuted as for a Misdemeanor.

NEWSPAPERS DIRECT FROM THE BRITISH COLONIES BY PACKET

Are delivered free of Postage at any place within the British dominions (except those from Canada, which are charged ½d. upon delivery): those for Persons who have removed may be forwarded by Post, free of charge, provided they have not been opened at the place to which they were originally addressed.

NEWSPAPERS TO THE BRITISH COLONIES AND FOREIGN PARTS.

Newspapers liable to the Stamp Duty may be forwarded direct to the British Colonies and Possessions by Her Majesty's Packet Boats, free of the duty of Postage, provided the same be duly stamped and made up open at the ends, and put into the Office within seven days after the day of Publication: to some Foreign Parts free, and to others for a Postage of One Penny or Twopence each to be paid at the time of posting, under the same regulations as to date, &c.

NEWSPAPERS TO FRANCE AND BELGIUM

Are forwarded free of charge to the sender. A rate of four centimes (nearly equivalent to One Halfpenny) will be charged upon delivery in France and Belgium.

NEWSPAPERS FROM ABROAD.

All Newspapers from abroad must be printed in the language of the Country from which they are sent, unless in cases specially exempted by the Lords of the Treasury.

Those for Persons who have removed may be redirected to them at any place within the United Kingdom, without extra Postage, provided they have not been opened at the place to which they were originally addressed; but a Newspaper which has been opened is charged at the same rate as if it were a letter, from the place of redirection to the place at which it may ultimately be delivered.

COUNTY COURT ACT.

The Clerks' Offices are open daily from ten till four.

The Plaintiff must take out a Summons for the Defendant to appear and answer his demand.

If the sum sought to be recovered be above £5, the Plaintiff must furnish as many copies of the particulars of his demand as there are Defendants, and one copy for the File of the Court.

The Plaintiff may not divide his demand for the purpose of bringing more actions, but must look upon his demand as full satisfaction of his claim against the Defendant.

He may reduce his debt to bring it to £50, or under, and sue for that amount, accepting the Judgment when recovered for the amount in full satisfaction of his entire claim.

The Plaintiff must take care that his Summons contains full particulars of his demand or claim. He must also be on his guard that the Defendant resides or carries on his business within the district of the Court whence the Summons issues, or that he has resided or carried on his business there within six months.

A Minor may sue for piecework, or wages as a Servant, as if he were of age.

Parties may sue for unliquidated balance of Partnership Accounts where not exceeding £50.

The Defendant may pay the whole debt and costs into Court before the Hearing (thereby saving the Fees), of which the Clerk sends notice to the Plaintiff.

The Defendant may pay part of the claim into Court, stating that he is not further indebted to the Plaintiff. This must be done five clear days before the trial, and all costs paid. This notice is furnished to the Plaintiff, with instructions how to act.

If the Plaintiff accepts the amount thus paid into Court, the action is at an end.

If the Defendant has any set-off, he must deliver notice in writing to the Clerk of the Court, with two copies of the particulars of the same, and this must be done five clear days before the day of Trial.

In case the Defendant do not appear and answer the Summons, the Plaintiff's case is heard, and Judgment given for him.

If the Defendant does appear, and an Order is made by the Judge, or by consent of the parties, for payment of the debt and costs, by instalments, and the same are not paid as they become due, the Plaintiff may take out execution against the Defendant's goods, and if the Defendant has no goods the Judge will, upon application of the Plaintiff, grant a Judgment Summons against his person, and if the Defendant can give no satisfactory reason why the instalments have not been paid, the Judge will commit him to prison

If fraud can be shown in the transaction, and Judgment is given against the Defendant, the Judge has power to commit him at once to prison for some time not exceeding forty days.

Imprisonment does not operate as a satisfaction of the debt.

The Defendant is to be discharged from custody on payment of debt and costs.

LAWS RESPECTING LANDLORDS, TENANTS and LODGERS.

Leases, &c.—A lease must necessarily be for a shorter time than the lessor, or landlord, possesses in the premises; otherwise it would come under the denomination of an Assignment, and not a Lease.

If a lessor, or landlord, let lands on a lease, reserving rent, the lessee, or tenant, is liable to an action of debt for the rent though he never entered on the demised premises; for the rent accrues from the lease, which is the contract, and not from the occupation. He is also liable to an action of covenant before he takes actual possession.

In order to make a lease valid, it is requisite that the parties are competent to make a contract, and that the landlord have sufficient interest in the premises to enable him to give a good title to the tenant. Lunatics and married women are incompetent.

According to law, all leases for a longer time than three years must be in writing; for, by the 29th Car. II., "Leases parole, or by word of mouth, will be void, if they exceed three years from the time of making."

An action of debt will lie after the expiration of a lease, for rent due before. 3 Cro. 23.

A lessee who covenants to pay rent, and to repair, with an exception of casualties by fire, is liable upon the covenant for rent, though the premises be burned down, and not rebuilt by the lessor after notice. Belfour v. Weston, 1 Term Rep. 310. It is therefore proper to make an exception as to accidental fire, in the covenants to repair and pay rent,

When a lease expresses, that if the rent be unpaid at the day appointed, the lease shall be disannulled; yet, though the rent be claimed on the day and not paid, the lease remains valid, unless an entry be made.

Assignment.—An Assignment must necessarily be in writing; for by the Statute of Frauds it is provided, that no leases, estates, or interest, &c., shall be assigned, granted, or surrendered, unless it be by deed or note in writing, signed by the party assigning, or his agent, or by operation of law.

Under this clause it has been determined, that an assignment may be made by a mere memorandum in writing, signed by the party, without being sealed or delivered. But it will not be valid without being duly stamped.

No particular form of words is necessary to make it valid, if it do but clearly express the intention of the parties.

Where an assignment is proper, the assignee has the whole term of the assigner made over to him; then all that the assigner covenants, the assignee is bound to perform.

If a lessee assign over his term, the lessor is not obliged to accept the assignee for his tenant, but may still resort to his lessee; if, however, he receive rent of the assignee, knowing of the assignment, he has determined his election, and shall not afterwards have an action of debt against the lessee for rent due after the assignment; though it has been held that he may nevertheless maintain an action on the lessee's covenant, that being a personal engagement, which is not waived by the assignment. Noy Max. 91.

An assignee is not bound by a covenant entered into by the assigner, and broken before the assignment. 3 Bur. 1271.

A lease may be assigned by indorsement on the lease; but it will require a deed stamp besides the stamp on the lease.

Under-Lease.—When a lessee, or tenant, grants only part of his term to another, the transfer is denominated an under-lease; the under-lessee must fulfil his contracts with the lessee, but has nothing to do with the original lease granted by the landlord.

Tenancy at Will.—This once precarious and uncertain tenure is now generally constructed to be a tenancy from year to year.

Tenant at Sufferance.—When a lease is expired, and the tenant keeps possession without a new contract, he is deemed a tenant at sufferance, at the former rent.

Tenant from Year to Year.—All demises, where no certain term is mentioned, are held to be tenancies from year to year, which neither party can determine without half-a-year's notice. A tenant taking possession of premises by agreement with the former tenant, or lessee, will be liable to pay rent and taxes in arrear; but he may demand repayment from the former tenant, excepting taxes chargeable on the landlord, which may be deducted from the rent.

Lodgings in General.—The laws of England do not seem to make any distinction between lodgers and other tenants as to the payment of their rents, or the turning them out of possession; for lodgers are equally liable to the like regulations, penalties, and forfeitures, in case of nonpayment of their rents, or not quitting the premises according to notice and agreement, as other tenants are. But with respect to lodgings, an exception must be made to the rule laid down, that notice must expire on the quarter day whereon the tenancy began.

What is reasonable notice, must, in case of dispute, be decided by a jury. In London, if no particular notice is mentioned, it is generally understood that a week's notice shall be given, if the apartments are taken by the week; a month's notice, if taken by the month; and a quarter's notice, if taken by the quarter.

A housekeeper may detain the property of a lodger, whilst on the premises, till the rent is paid.

A housekeeper may distrain the goods of a lodger, for rent, in the same manner as a landlord distrains those of a tenant.

Furnished Lodgings.—Lodgings furnished are usually let by the week, on payment of a certain sum, part of which is for the apartment, and part for the use of the furniture, which has given rise to a question of some difficulty, whether the whole is, or is not, rent? It was the opinion of a barrister, whose writings have been held in considerable estimation, that the whole is not rent, and that it is, therefore, unlawful to distrain the property of a lodger for that part of the sum which is due for the use of the furniture. Many lodgers have placed too much confidence in this opinion, and have neglected to pay their rent, till, contrary to their expectation, their property has been distrained and sold.

Persons renting furnished apartments frequently absent themselves without apprising the housekeeper, and probably the rent in arrear. If the housekeeper has reason to believe the lodger has left, the second week of such absence he may send for a constable, and, in his presence, enter the apartment, take out the lodger's property, and secure it, until a request be made for it, and the housekeeper may take possession of his apartment; and if, after fourteen days' public notice be given in the London Gazette, the lodger does not come and pay the arrears, the housekeeper, for the sum due, may sell the said property.

Directions for recovering Apartments and Rent from a Lodger.—The best way for a housekeeper to recover possession when he has let an apartment to a disagreeable character, is to give him reasonable notice, by a person who can be witness, to quit, or pay an advanced rent, not exceeding double the present sum.

In case lodgers of this sort are so refractory that they will neither quit nor pay the advanced rent, after proper warning or notice to quit has expired, the housekeeper may enter the apartments whenever he finds them open (but he must use no force in opening them); he may take out the sashes, remove any of his own fixtures or furniture, take the door off the hinges, or lock or fastening off the door, and block up the chimney. But he is answerable to the landlord for any injury done to the premises.

Ejectment and Re-entry.—Ejectment is a process by which lands or tenements may be recovered from persons holding unlawful possession after proper notice to quit has been given.

When a tenant has given notice to quit, and does not, he is liable to an ejectment, the same as if the landlord had given him notice.

In all cases between landlord and tenant, when half a year's rent is due, such landlord may, without any formal demand or re-entry, serve a declaration of ejectment for the recovery of the leased premises; or, if they are unoccupied, he may affix it to the door, or the most conspicuous part of the premises, which shall be deemed legal, and shall stand instead of a deed and re-entry. 4 Geo. II., c. 28, s. 1.

Fixtures.—Fixtures may be defined to be whatever constitutes such an essential inherent part of the freehold as not to be separated from it without injury to the inheritance, as wainscots, &c.

Doors or windows, although erected by the tenant, must not be removed. Windows, when broken, though glazed by the tenant, must be restored.

A tenant may remove erections and utensils necessary for trade, as brewing utensils, furnaces, coppers, fire-engines, cider-mills, vats, green and hot-houses, or a barn erected upon the premises upon blocks of timber, notwithstanding there be a covenant to leave all buildings which then were or should be erected upon the premises, in repair; for such covenant only includes all buildings annexed to, and become part of, the reversionary estate. Paul, 53.

In general, whatever a tenant has put up in a house for his convenience, he may remove, if done within the term, except such things as cannot be removed without injury to the premises.

Notice to quit Premises.—Agreeable to the opinion of eleven Judges, among whom were Lord Chief Justice De Grey and Lord Mansfield, every tenant for years (or one who holds from year to year) is entitled to half a year's notice, which must be given in such manner, that the tenant must quit the premises at the same quarter-day on which he took possession; for instance, if his rent commenced at Midsummer, the notice must be served at or before Christmas, that he may quit at Midsummer. And they held the like law as to houses let at will, unless there be some usage or custom, in the place or district where the house is situate, to give a shorter or other kind of notice to quit. Many landlords, who have had tenants better acquainted with the law than themselves, have experienced much perplexity from their ignorance on this subject.

Appeals against the Assessed Taxes—The commissioners are to give the collectors notice of the days appointed for appeals, 40 Geo. III. c. 29, s. 27. And the collector, within ten days after, is to cause public notice thereof to be given in the parish church or chapel of the place, and also by fixing up notice on the doors thereof. Ibid.

Appeals between the 1st of July and 20th August shall be heard between the 20th August and 20th of September following, and all other appeals between the 1st of December and 20th of January, between the 20th of January and 10th of February following. Ibid.

Under these clauses, an appeal must be preferred on the day appointed by the commissioners. and cannot be made after the expiration of the year within and for which the tax is to be collected, 6 Term Reports, 433.

All persons who think themselves aggrieved by any charge or surcharge, may appeal to the commissioners, on giving ten days previous notice to the surveyor or one of the assessors.

On the appeal, the surveyor or inspector and assessor may be present to justify the assessment: but commissioners interested in their own right, or concerned in the controversy for any other person, must withdraw.

Distress for the Assessed Taxes.—Collectors are required to make demand (within ten days after the duties become payable) of the party charged therewith, either on the premises, or at his last place of abode; and upon receiving payment, to give an acquittance, without taking anything for such acquittance, except the stamp duty; and if any proportion of the said duties shall not be paid on the days before-mentioned, then they are strictly required to collect and levy the same by distress, in moieties, on or before the days hereinafter-mentioned; viz., one moiety of the whole sum assessed before the 10th day of October, or within twenty-one days thereafter. The distress must be kept four days before it is sold.

The collectors are not to break open any house to make a distress, without a warrant from two or more commissioners, and the assistance of a peace officer.

When a housekeeper has removed, the taxes may be levied in the place to which he has removed.

On the 23rd of June, 1813, it was decided by the unanimous opinion of the Court of King's Bench, that goods in a house, though not the property of the occupier, are liable to be taken by distress under 43 Geo. 3, for king's taxes.

G. SHILLIBEER,

Life Governor, since 1834, of the Licensed Victuallers' School, thankful for the support he has received from the trade and the public generally, in his efforts the past ten years to reform and economise funeral expenses, and stimulated by the success his system of stated, fixed, and inclusive charges, has met with, respectfully announces that he is provided with equipages for funeral transit of the most varied description. the equipments all first rate, and such as no other establishment in the metropolis can alone supply. His new old style state hearse and mourning coaches, and exhibition patent funeral carriages, having been specially constructed by him upon the most modern and approved plans, and not like other old style funeral carriages of the remote fashion of the last century, instead of this period of general improvements, 1851, enable him to offer to the public a funeral system so economic and complete, as to defy the competition of the trade. Expenses will be limited and much lessened, by bereaved relatives sending in the first instance to Shillibeer s Office, instead of employing the nearest upholsterer, or undertaker, who not possessing the needful requirements, resort to the furnishers to hire them, and consequently inflict two-fold profits. Carriage funerals any distance within 10 miles, from £3. City Road, near Finsbury Square. Many other Undertakers imitate, few equal, but none surpass Shillibeer's Funeral system.

Dr. George Papworth's

VITAL COUGH PILLS.

Verily, these are the most wonderful Pills that were ever compounded, as thousands whose Coughs have been remedied by them, both at home and abroad can fully testify. A SINGLE PILL will often immediately ease the most distressing Cough, and a persistive use in them for a short period, has in many cases effected a perfect cure, and in all, given a wonderful amount of ease, even where the Cough has been of many years duration. Refreshing sleep is a necessary concomitant of their use. They ease the breathing, and by giving fluidity to the phlegm, promote expectoration. At the same time they give vigour and strength to the weakest constitution.

Have you a Cough? Do you know a friend suffering from this distressing malady? Try the Vital Cough Pills, and recommend their use; you may do so with the greatest certainty of a satisfactory result.

Directions—Take one Pill twice a day, or if the cough is troublesome during the night, take two Pills at bed-time and one in the morning. In constitutional or long established Coughs, a pill once or twice a day in addition, will materially assist recovery, and will give great ease to the patient when taking exercise. In asthmatic complaints these Pills are invaluable.

To render these Pills more efficacious one of Bishop Berkeley's Stomachic Pills should be taken occasionally: they materially assist the organs of digestion.

In boxes at 1s. 1½d., or Family boxes containing the quantity of Three small ones, 2s. 9d.

Having made considerable alterations, with the addition of a Show Room to his Premises at Greenwich, begs to inform the Inhabitants of Greenwich, Blackheath, and their Vicinity, that he has now on view a new and more extensive Stock of Furnishing Ironmongery, especially in Palmer's Candle Lamps, Tea Urns, Metal Tea and Coffee Pots, Metal and Plated Candlesticks, Papier-Maché Tea Trays, Stoves, Fenders, and Fire Irons, Table Cutlery, Scissors, Pocket and Pen Knives, &c.

He would also particularly invite attention to his excellent assortment of Gas Chandeliers, Brackets, and other Gas Burning Furniture, which he submits for choice at his new Show Room, at Greenwich; and begs to add that, owing to the present cheapness and very general use of Gas in private houses, as well as places of business, for its safety, economy, and brilliancy, and the consequent reduction in the price of Fittings, he is enabled, by means of long experienced workmen, to lay on the same in a manner as efficient, and at prices equally low with any house in London.

BEGS to invite the attention of those affected with HERNIA to an improvement lately effected in the

MOC-MAIN PATENT LEVER TRUSS.

The character of this Truss is extremely simple; it consists of a small, light, and elastic pad, to which is attached a lever, and a soft bandage to circumscribe the body, in lieu of the usual steel spring, the whole fitting so closely as to escape observation, while the resisting power is stronger than in the ordinary Trusses. It is easily adjusted, and may be worn during sleep.

Upwards of two hundred professional gentlemen in London have testified to its excellence.

By sending the circumference of the body two inches below the hips, the Truss, which cannot fail to fit, can be transmitted by post. A Descriptive Circular may be had.

Manufactory, 228, Piccadilly, London.

PAINS IN THE BACK,

GRAVEL, LUMBAGO, RHEUMATISM, GOUT, FLATULENCY, HEADACHE, INDIGESTION, BILE, NERVOUSNESS, DEBILITY, PILES, FISTULA, &c.

To Purify the System purgatives have hitherto been mainly relied on, but while such remedies cleanse, they must of necessity debilitate the sufferer; hence, in many instances, to use an old expression, "the remedy is as bad as the disease."

DR. DE ROO'S COMPOUND RENAL PILLS,

(As their name Renal, or the Kidneys, indicates), are designed to act specifically on the Kidneys and Bladder, by carrying off all impurities through that channel, and being compounded solely from the vegetable kingdom, are so gentle and safe in their action, that they may be taken by the most delicate for any length of time, and instead of diminishing, they will be found to increase the strength. For the above dangerous complaints, Discharges of any kind, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Stone, Retention, Sciatica, Impaired Vision, Loss of Memory, Ticdoloureux, Erysipelas, Loss of Hair and Teeth, Dropsy, Scrofulous Swellings, General Debility, Asthma, and indeed every other affection of the system, dependent on disease of the renal functions, they are infallible. In female complaints they are of essential service, removing obstructions and all affections dependent on irregularities, Giddiness, Heartburn, Yellowness. or excessive Paleness, Pimples, fluttering of the Stomach, shortness of Breath, Cough, Feverishness, pains in the Loins, Lassitude, Weariness, Sick Headache, Nervous irritability, Constipation, &c. &c.; thus assisting nature, and thereby conducing toward that happy end for which marriage was ordained. For worms in Children they act like magic, by expelling these parasites, whose presence frequently produces convulsive fits, starting, grinding of the teeth, fœtid breath, sickness, voracious or capricious appetite, drum belly, emaciation, paleness, &c. One trial will convince the most prejudiced of their surprising properties.

May be obtained, with directions for use, at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., 11s., and 33s. per box, through all Medicine Vendors in the Kingdom; or should difficulty occur, they will be sent free on receipt of the price in postage stamps by Dr. De Roos.

N.B. A considerable saving effected by purchasing the larger boxes.

To prevent fraud on the Public by imitations of the above valuable Medicine, Her Majesty's Hon. Commissioners of Stamps have directed the name of the Proprietor, in white letters on a red ground, to be engraved on the Government Stamp round each box, without which none is genuine, and to imitate which too closely is felony and transportation.

Authentic Testimonials, to test the truth of which reference is kindly permitted to the writers themselves:—

"Mr. Jones, Mold, Flintshire, Oct. 8. 1851.—"I feel it a duty I owe to yourself and the public to state the following:—For years I scarcely knew freedom from illness, being constantly subject to headaches, giddiness, confusion, nervousness, debility, depression of spirits. sickness, and worse than all, a constant dragging pain in my back. I have been under many doctors, and in two hospitals, besides swallowing all sorts of advertised medicines to no purpose, and had almost yielded to despair, when after much reluctance, I was induced to try your Pills, and though I did not find immediate benefit, yet I persevered, and after taking them regularly for four months, am happy to say I find myself quite well."

Mr. Westmacott, 4, Market-street, Manchester.—"Your medicines are very highly spoken of by all who have purchased them of me."

Mr. Milton Welch, Furness.—"Your Renal Pills are the only medicine I have met with that have been of service."

Mr. T. Bloem, Limekiln-street, Dover.—"Please to send a few more of your wonderful Pills. My wife feels great relief already."

Mr. Smith, Times Office, Leeds.—"One person informs me that your Renal Pills are worth a guinea a box.

Policies in this Office are Indisputable, exeept in cases of Fraud.

Persons who have been seen by a Medical officer of the Society are not required to appear before the Directors.

"Free Policies" are issued, at a small increased rate of Premium, which remain in force although the Life assured may go to any part of the World.

Policies do not become void by the Life assured going beyond the prescribed limits, —so far as regards the interest of Third parties,- provided they pay the additional Premium, so soon as the fact comes to their knowledge.

Parties Assuring within Six Months of their last Birth-day are allowed a diminution of Half-a-year in the Premium.

The Tables are especially favorable to young and middle-aged Lives, and the Limits allowed to the Assured, without extra charge, are unusually extensive.

Eighty per cent. of the Profits are divided at the end of every Five years among the Assured. At the first Division, to the end of 1849, the addition to the Amount Assured averaged above 50 per cent. on the Premiums paid.
