DIRECTORY
BARROW-IN-FURNESS

The image shows the front cover of a book bound in dark red, textured leather. The cover features a central gold-tooled title. At the top, the word "DIRECTORY" is written in a serif font, arched over a decorative banner. Below this, a central illustration depicts a bee with its wings spread, facing left. The bee is positioned between two small, stylized floral motifs. Below the bee, the words "BARROW-IN-FURNESS" are written in a bold, serif font, enclosed within a horizontal banner with decorative, curved ends. At the bottom of the title, the year "1875" is printed in a serif font, centered within a decorative, symmetrical floral frame that resembles a stylized wreath or scrollwork. The entire gold-tooled design is set against the dark red leather background.

NOTE.—The return for Lincoln street in this appendix is substituted for the incomplete return at page 36 of the Street Directory.

The returns for outlying portions of the borough and for some of the smaller streets were obtained some months since, and have not been corrected for recent alterations. No return is made of the small cottage property on Barrow Island, owing to the constant change in occupancy.

NOTE AS TO MAP.—Belfast Street has been re-named Argyle street, and Grange street has been re-named Montague street.
