BOUNDARY OF THE MAYOR'S LIBERTIES,

(All within which is under the Jurisdiction of the Mayor and Corporation.)

Walcot Church is within the boundaries; from whence it turns to the right up Guinea-lane, along Cottle's-lane and Abingdon-buildings, to the top of Marlborough-buildings; it then strikes off downwards through the Gardens near the backs of the houses in Marlborough-buildings, in the line of the old ditch, to the River Avon, up the centre of which it takes a direction to the ferry at the bottom of the South-parade, it then turns to the right up the rivulet immediately opposite, into New Pulteney-road, whence it inclines to the left to the back of No. 46, Pulteney-street, through which it passes, crosses the street, and through No. 34; it then leads over Bathwick-fields, leaving Bathwick farm on the right, crosses the River to the center of Walcot burying-ground, through which it passes to Walcot Church.

And for every inhabited house, worth (with the offices, &c.) five pounds and under twenty pounds rent by the year, the yearly sum of 1s. and 6d. in the pound—for every inhabited house, worth 20l. and under 40l. rent by the year, 2s. 3d. in the pound—and for every inhabited house, worth 40l. rent by the year, or upwards, the yearly sum of 2s. 10d. in the pound.

RULES FOR CHARGING WINDOWS.

1. The said duties to be charged yearly upon the occupier, for one whole year from April 5, to be levied on such occupier, or his executors or administrators, except as after provided.

2. Where any change in the occupation shall take place after the assessments, then the duties charged on the occupier shall be paid by the occupier, landlord, or owner, for the time being, without any new assessment, notwithstanding such change in occupation. But where a tenant shall quit, on the termination of the lease or demise, and shall have given notice thereof to the assessor, the duty shall be discharged for the remainder of that year, in case it shall appear to the Commissioners at the end of such year, that such house shall have continued wholly unoccupied for the remainder of such year.

3. Where any dwelling-house is let in different apartments, and shall be inhabited by two or more persons, the same shall be charged as if such house were inhabited by one only; and the landlord or owner shall be deemed to be the occupier, and charged.

4. Every house, whereof the keeping is left to the care of any person or servant, shall be subject to the like duties as if it were inhabited by the owner or a tenant; and, if such person shall not pay rates to the church and poor, the said duties shall be paid by the owners or tenants.

5. Every window, including the frame, partitions, and divisions thereof, which by due admeasurement of the whole space on the aperture of the wall, of the house or building, on the outside of such window, shall exceed in height 12 feet, or in breadth 4 feet 9 inches, shall be charged as two windows, except such as shall have been made of greater dimensions prior to the 5th of April, 1785; except also the windows in shops, workshops, and warehouses, and except the windows in the public room of any house licensed to sell wine, ale, or others, by retail, used for the entertainment of guests; and the windows in farm-houses especially exempted from the duties on houses.

6. Every window extending so far as to give light into more rooms, landing, or stories than one, shall be charged as so many separate windows.

7. When a partition or a division between two or more windows fixed in one frame, is of the breadth of twelve inches, the window on each side shall be charged as a distinct window.

8. All skylights, and all windows in staircases, garrets, cellars, passages, and all other parts of dwelling-houses, to what use soever applied, shall be charged to the said duties.

9. Every window in any kitchen, cellar, scullery, buttery, pantry, larder, wash-house, laundry, bakehouse, brewhouse, and lodging room, belonging to or occupied with any dwelling-house, whether the same shall or shall not be within, or contiguous to, or disjointed from the body of such dwelling-house, shall also be charged to the said duties.

EXEMPTIONS.

Houses belonging to his Majesty, or any of the Royal Family; public offices, hospitals, charity-schools, and poor-houses, except such apartments as are occupied by the officers and servants, which are to be assessed as separate dwelling-houses; the windows in any room licensed for divine worship, and used for no other purpose; and the windows of dairy and cheese rooms, made of splines or wooden laths.

MR. MOODY'S INSTITUTION
For Distorted Spines and Incurvated Limbs,
KINGSTON-HOUSE, BATH.

MR. MOODY,
SURGICAL MECHANIST

TO THE
BATH DISPENSARY AND INFIRMARY,

Most respectfully informs his Friends and the Public in general, that he has taken the above eligible and spacious Premises, for the Reception of Young Persons afflicted with

DISTORTIONS OF THE SPINE,

Or, Incurvations of the Limbs.

More than twenty years' extensive practice have enabled him to adopt, with the greatest success, such mechanical means as best tend to the correction and cure of these affections.

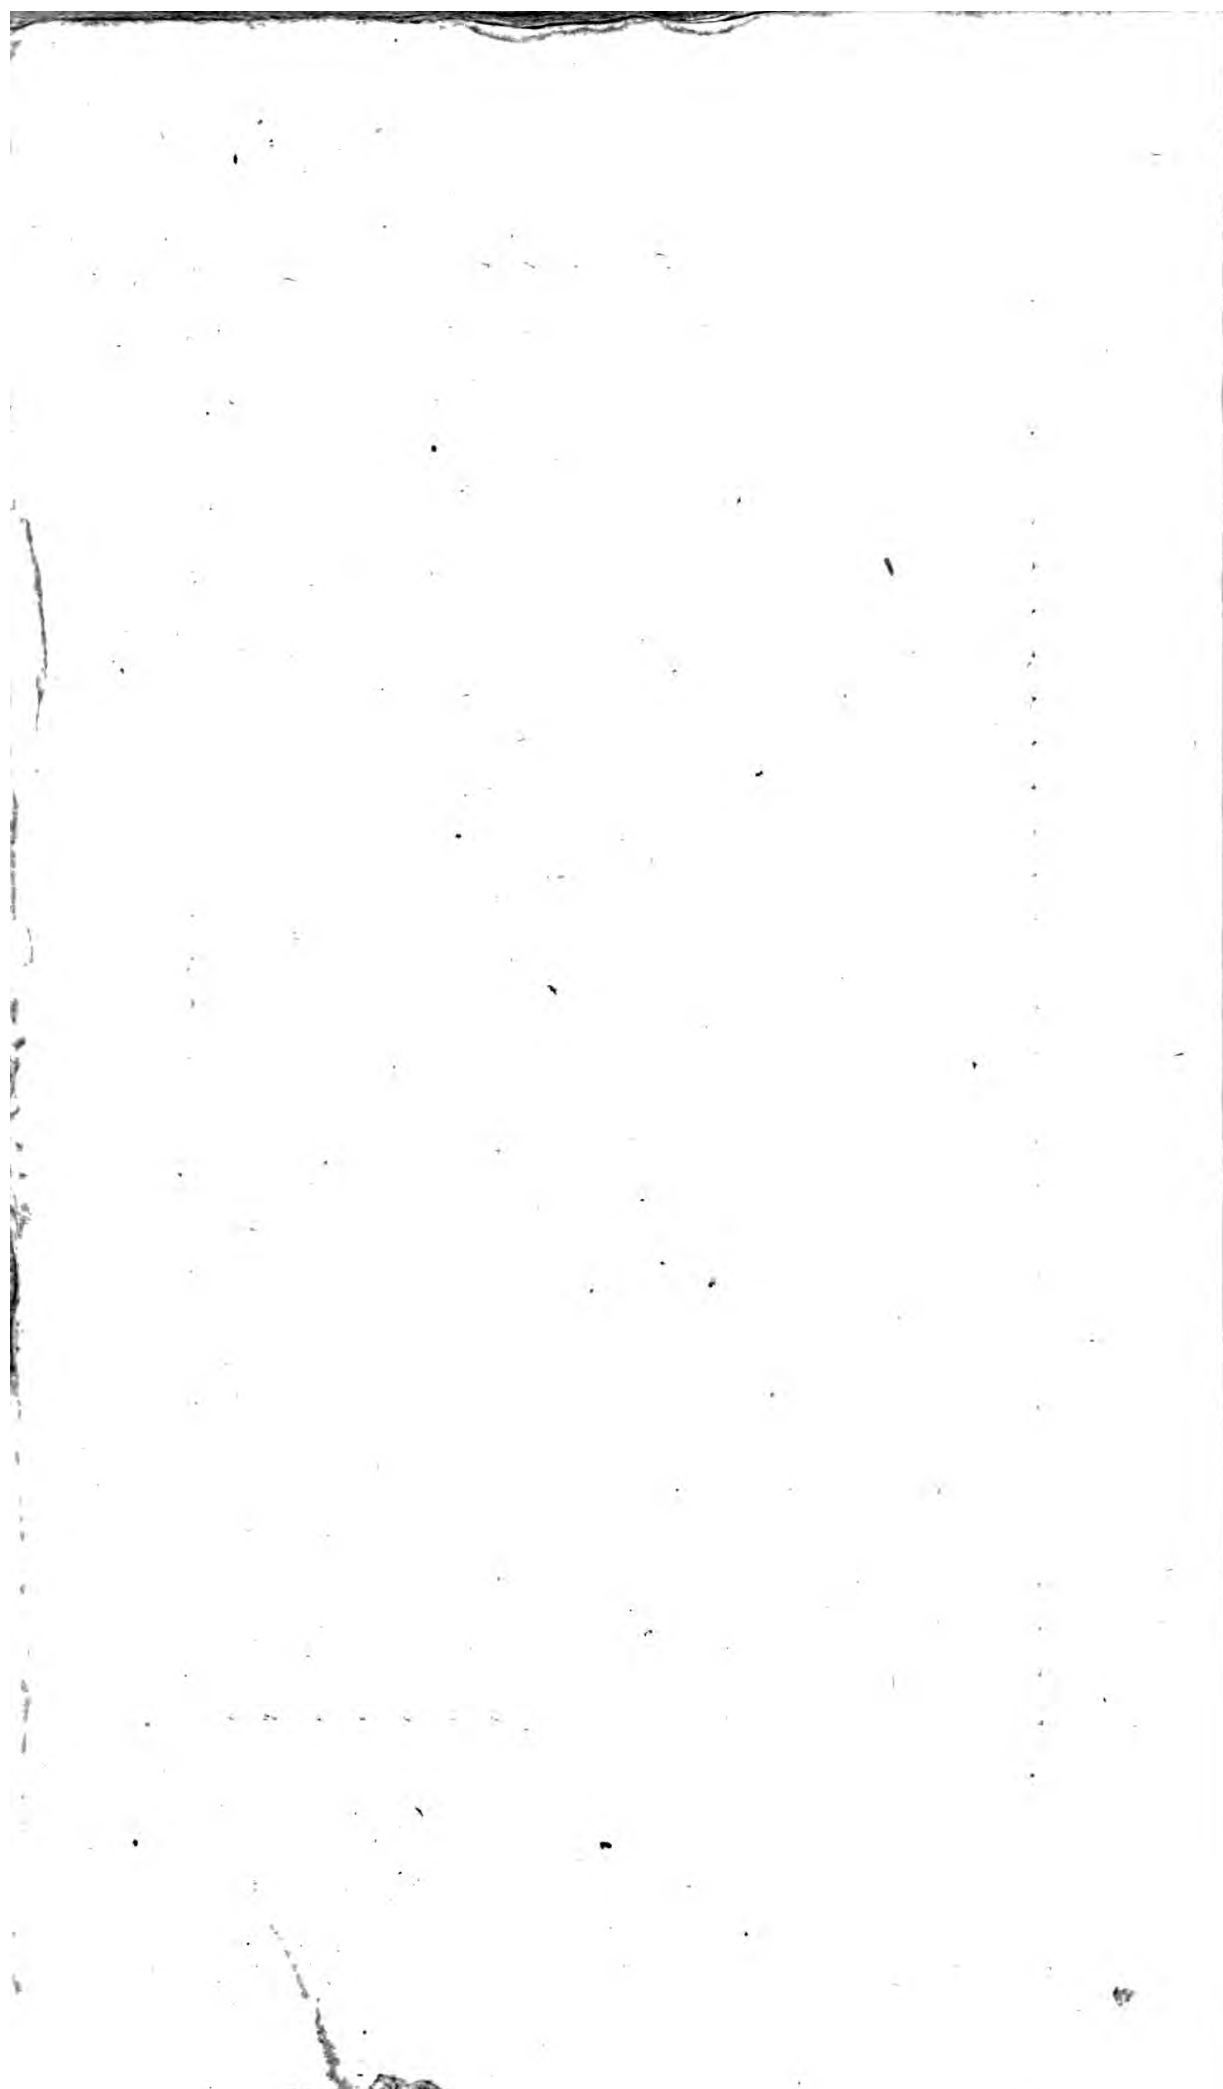

Within the range of his Premises he has all the advantages of warm, tepid, vapour, and shower baths; and also at his Establishment, the best constructed electrical and galvanic apparatus, whenever the aid of these powerful agents, in various cases of muscular debility, may be advantageously employed.

Mr. Moody begs leave to observe, that he has paid particular attention to the construction of artificial legs, made of cork or wood, arranged with proper joints so as to resemble the natural limbs.

In cases of Herniæ, or Ruptures, Prolapsus Ani and Uteri, his TRUSSES and SUSPENDERS are worn with ease, and are always effectual in their operations.

Mr. M. constructs all instruments and bandages connected with mechanical surgery.

N. B. Ladies are attended by Mrs. Moody.
