NOTE.—When the date of despatch from London falls on Sunday, the correspondence must be posted in time for the Night Mail from London of the previous day

Although correspondence forwarded from London by the Mails, specified in the above Table will, under ordinary circumstances reach the Port of Departure in time for the Packets, it is recommended as a matter of precaution that, in all practicable cases, Letters should be posted in time to be forwarded in the preceding Mail for France in order to avoid the risk of any accidental delay that may occur between London and such Port of Departure.

REGISTRATION OF LETTERS, NEWSPAPERS, BOOKS & PATTERNS TO PLACES ABROAD.

LETTERS, &c., for the Colonies or Foreign Countries can be on payment of a registration fee of TWOPENCE in addition to the ordinary rates of Postage. The postage and fee must be paid wholly by means of postage stamps.

As regards Foreign Letters, &c., it must be clearly understood that Registration cannot in some cases extend beyond the Port of Despatch in the United Kingdom, though the senders, if they wish it, may Register such Letters, &c., as far as the Port of Despatch. In the List of Colonial and Foreign Postages in the Post Office Guide, those places to which the registration only extends to the Port of Despatch are distinguished from the others.

The transmission of letters containing coin, jewellery or precious articles, or anything liable to Customs duties, through the Post to any country of the Postal Union is prohibited. Packets containing jewellery or other articles of value for the Cape of Good Hope or Queensland, are liable to be detained and not delivered to the addresses until the Customs duties have been paid, and those containing jewellery (which is liable to Customs duty) sent through the Post to Victoria (Australia) are liable with their contents to be forfeited.

NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICERS, SCHOOLMASTERS, SCHOOL MISTRESSES, WRITERS, STEWARDS, CLERKS-ASSISTANTS, SEAMEN, STOKERS, AND PRIVATE SOLDIERS can send and receive Letters, not exceeding the weight of half an ounce, on their own private concerns only, while they are employed on Her Majesty's Service, for one penny each, if such letters do not pass through a foreign country and incur a transit postage, subject to the following regulations:—

1. The penny must be paid at the time the letter is put into the Post Office.

2. The name of the person, his Class or Description, and the name of the Ship or Regiment, Corps or Detachment, to which he belongs, must be specified.

3. The Officer having the Command must sign his name, and pecify the name of the Ship or Regiment, Corps or Detachment, e commands.

The postage upon Soldiers' and Seamen's, &c., letters received from abroad without the penny having been prepaid is twopence in addition to the Ship Letter gratuity, if received by Private Ship

Letters to or from private Soldiers or Seamen passing through a foreign country are liable to the following rates of postage:—

To or from *India, *China, Australia, *Ceylon, or Japan, vid Brindisi	2d. each
To or from the West Coast of South America, vid Panama and Bermudas, vid New York	2d. „
To Mauritius by French Packet	3d. „

*If letters for Soldiers in India, Ceylon, or China be posted so as to leave London on Thursday morning they can be forwarded for 1d. only.

The postage of letters coming from H.M. naval forces abroad should be prepaid with British Stamps, whether from Officers or Men.

LETTERS RE-DIRECTED to Commissioned Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, Private Soldiers, or Seamen actually employed in Her Majesty's service at home or abroad will not be liable to any additional postage, except, however, those for Commissioned Officers re-directed from one part of the United Kingdom to another, or (if posted in the United Kingdom) re-directed to a place abroad.

LETTERS, &c., BY PRIVATE SHIP.

The postage on Letters, &c., between the United Kingdom and countries comprised in the Postal Union, is the same by Private Ship as by Packet. The postage of a Letter to St. Helena is 4d. per ½ oz.; and to all other countries 6d. per ½ oz., the postage of a Newspaper being 1d. per 4 oz. in all cases.

PERSONS EXEMPT FROM SHIP LETTER POSTAGE.

The OWNERS, CHARTERERS, or CONSIGNEES (resident in the United Kingdom), and the OWNERS, CONSIGNEES, and SHIPPERS of Goods on board Vessels inward bound, are entitled to receive their Letters free from SEA Postage, to the extent collectively of Six ounces in weight, by any One Vessel to any One such PERSON. In the case of Vessels coming from Ceylon, the Mauritius, the East Indies, or the Cape of Good Hope, for an OWNER, CHARTERER, or CONSIGNEE of such Vessel, the letters may be collectively Twenty ounces in weight. The OWNER, CHARTERER or CONSIGNEE must be described as such on the address and superscription; and in the case of OWNERS, SHIPPERS, or CONSIGNEES of goods, it must also appear by the Ship's Manifest that they have Goods on board the Vessel. Such persons are entitled to have their Letters which come within the above Conditions before the Master of the Vessel delivers the other Letters in his charge to the Post Office.

 Every Person who shall, with intent to evade any Duty of Postage, falsely superscribe a Letter as being the OWNER, or the CHARTERER, or the CONSIGNEE of a Vessel conveying the same, or as the OWNER, or the SHIPPER, or the CONSIGNEE of Goods shipped in such Vessel, shall for every such offence forfeit TEN POUNDS.

LETTERS NOT TO BE SEALED WHEN SENT TO WARM CLIMATES.

The practice of Sealing Letters passing to and from the East and West Indies, and other warm Climates, with Wax (except such as is specially prepared), is attended with much inconvenience, and frequently with serious injury to the Letters, in consequence of the Melting of the Wax and Adhesion of the Letters to each other; the public are therefore recommended in all cases to use Adhesive Envelopes or Wafers in preference to Wax in securing their letters sent to India or other warm Climates, and also to advise their Correspondents in those Countries to pursue the same course.

POST CARDS.

Post Cards for abroad with impressed stamps of 1*d.*, 1½*d.* and 2*d.* each are sold at those rates, and may be sent to all the countries comprised in the Postal Union.

Post Cards with prepaid replies can be forwarded to most countries in the Postal Union, stamps of the above rates being impressed on each half. For places to which such Cards can be forwarded, see separate table.

The regulations relating to Inland Post Cards apply also to Cards posted for places abroad, except that the latter, when these regulations are infringed, are not forwarded.

BOOK POST TO THE BRITISH COLONIES AND FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

1. Articles which may be sent to places abroad under the Book Post Regulations consist of two classes, as follows:—

"Commercial Papers," under which are comprised all papers or documents written or drawn wholly or partly by hand (except letters or communications in the nature of letters, or other papers or documents having the character of an actual and personal correspondence), documents of Legal procedure, Deeds drawn up by public functionaries, copies of or extracts from Deeds under private seal (and whether written or printed on stamped or unstamped paper), Way Bills, Bills of Lading, Invoices, and other documents of a mercantile character, documents of Insurance and other public Companies, all kinds of manuscript Music, the manuscript of Books and other literary works, and other papers of a similar description.

"Printed Papers," including periodical works, books (stitched or bound), pamphlets, sheets of music (printed), visiting cards, address cards, proofs of printing (with or without the manuscript relating thereto), engravings, photographs (when not on glass or in frames containing glass), drawings, including cardboard drawings, models stamped in relief (except for Russia & Sweden), plans, maps, catalogues, prospectuses, announcements, and notices of various kinds, whether printed, engraved, or lithographed, and in general all impressions or copies obtained upon paper, parchment, or card-board by means of printing, lithographing, or any other mechanical process easy to recognise, except the copying press, and anything usually attached or appurtenant to any of the before-mentioned articles in the way of binding, mounting, or otherwise, and anything convenient for their safe transmission by post which shall be contained in the same packet; also printed, engraved, or lithographed circulars notwithstanding that such circulars may be letters or communications in the nature of a letter.

The two classes are subject to the same rates of postage, except that when addressed to countries in the Postal Union the initial rate for Commercial Papers is higher than that for printed papers. If there be any mixture of the two in the same packet, the whole packet is treated as Commercial Papers.

2. Every packet must be posted either without a cover (in which case it must not be fastened, whether by means of gum, wafer, sealing wax, postage stamp, or otherwise) or in an open cover so as to admit of the contents being easily withdrawn for examination; otherwise it is treated as a letter. For the greater security of the contents, however, it may be tied at the ends with string; Postmasters being authorised to cut the string in such cases, although if they do so they must again tie up the packet.

3. The limit of size for a packet addressed to any place abroad is 24 inches in length and 12 inches in width or depth.

4. The rates of postage, which must be prepaid, on packets to places abroad are given in a separate Table.

The following information respecting Books and Photographs for the United States has been received from the Post Office at Washington:—

"The only Books absolutely free from Customs Duty, under the United States laws, are those which have been printed more than 20 years; and Pamphlets, Periodicals, and other like Publications, for the personal use of the individual to whom they are addressed."

"Nevertheless, any book valued at not more than one dollar is also considered as exempt from Customs Duty; and so are Photographs, when sent in limited numbers, for the private use of the person to whom they are addressed, or for distribution to relatives or friends."

PATTERNS AND SAMPLES.

1. There is a Pattern and Sample Post to Foreign Countries and the Colonies generally; but it is restricted to bonâ fide trade patterns or samples of merchandise. Goods sent for sale, or in execution of an order (however small the quantity may be), or any articles sent by one private individual to another which are not actually patterns or samples are not admissible.

2. No article liable to Custom Duties can be sent as a sample or pattern.

3. The rates of postage, which must be prepaid, will be found in a separate Table.

4. Patterns or Samples, when practicable, must be sent in covers open at the ends, and in such a manner as to be easy of examination. But samples of seeds, drugs, and such like articles, which cannot be sent in covers of this kind, may be posted enclosed in boxes, or in bags of linen, or other material fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened.

5. There must be no writing or printing upon or in any packet except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender, a trade mark or number, and the price of the articles. But a packet for any country in the Postal Union may have enclosed in it any of the articles designated as "Commercial Papers" if the rate applicable to Commercial Papers be paid for the whole packet.

6. Samples of saleable value must not be sent to any foreign country, or to any of the British Possessions which are comprised in the Postal Union. Samples of eider down, raw or thread silk, woollen or goats' hair thread, vanilla, saffron carmine, or isinglass, are considered to fall under this rule, if they weigh more than three ounces.

7. Such articles as scissors, knives, razors, forks, steel pens nails, keys, watch machinery, metal tubing, pieces of metal or ore, provided that they be packed and guarded in so secure a manner as to afford complete protection to the contents of the mail bags and to the Officers of the Post Office, while at the same time they may be easily examined, may be sent as samples to places abroad. Neither indigo, liquids, glass, anything of a greasy nature, explosives, nor powder of any kind can be sent to any place abroad.

8. The limit of weight is not the same to all countries. For particulars see Table of rates of postage.

9. A packet of patterns or samples sent to any place comprised in the Postal Union (except Belgium, France, Greece, Luxemburg, Portugal, Switzerland, viâ France, and the United States) must not exceed 8 inches in length, 4 inches in width, or 2 inches in depth. The limit to Belgium, France, Greece, Luxemburg, Portugal, Switzerland, viâ France, or the United States is 12 inches in length, 8 inches in width, and 4 inches in depth. The size of a packet for a non-Union country or colony is limited to 24 inches in length and 12 inches in width or depth.

NEWSPAPERS.

1. The rates of passage, which must be prepaid, to Foreign countries and the Colonies on newspapers registered for transmission abroad will be found in the Table of Foreign and Colonial Postage in the Post Office Guide.

2. The conditions of registration for transmission abroad are the same as those for inland transmission; excepting that for foreign transmission a Newspaper may be published at intervals of thirty-one days. Moreover, Prices Current and Market Reports (but not private price lists or trade catalogues) may be registered as Newspapers for foreign transmission, provided that they be published at intervals not exceeding thirty-one days.

3. All publications registered for transmission abroad must be posted within eight days from the day of publication, including that day; and any Newspaper posted more than eight days after the date of publication, as well as any unregistered publication, must be prepaid at the book rates of postage.

4. The collected numbers issued during the month of a weekly or fortnightly publication are not allowed to pass as a monthly publication.

5. Every Newspaper must be posted either without a cover (in which case it must not be fastened, whether by means of gum, wafer, sealing-wax, postage stamp, or otherwise), or in a cover entirely open at both ends, so as to admit of easy withdrawal for examination.

6. Every Newspaper must be so folded as to admit of the title being readily inspected.

7. No Newspaper, whether posted singly or in a packet, may contain any enclosure except the supplement or supplements belonging to it.

8. There must be no writing or other mark on a Newspaper sent abroad but the name and address of the person to whom it is sent; nor anything on the cover but such name and address, the printed title of the publication, the printed name and address of the publisher or vendor who sends it, and words indicating the date on which the subscription to the newspaper will end.

9. No packet of Newspapers may exceed two feet in length or one foot in width or depth. The limit of weight, which is not the same to all countries, is stated in the Table of rates of postage.

NEWSPAPERS FROM ABROAD.

Newspapers from abroad are, with few exceptions, delivered in the United Kingdom free of charge.

Those for Persons who have removed may be re-directed to them at any place within the United Kingdom, without extra Postage, provided they have not been opened at the place to which they were originally addressed; but a Newspaper which has been opened is charged as a Book Packet.

POST TOWNS AND PRINCIPAL PLACES.

In order that the public may be kept aware of the great improvements continually making in the various departments of the Post Office, it has been found advisable to publish Quarterly the "Post Office Guide," price 6d which contains a list of all the Post Towns and principal places in England and Wales, Scotland, and Ireland: it is therefore unnecessary to increase the bulk of the present annual work by the insertion of information which can be obtained of more recent Date in the publication referred to.

POSTING OF LATE LETTERS AND NEWSPAPERS AT LONDON RAILWAY STATIONS.

In order to afford the public the means of posting letters and newspapers for most of the principal mails despatched from London up to the latest possible time, such letters and newspapers are received at the railway stations from which the mails are respectively despatched, on payment with each (except when otherwise specified) of a late fee of ½*d.* The fee as well as the postage must be prepaid in stamps.

The subjoined table shows at what stations this arrangement prevails, the mails to which it is applicable, and the respective periods during which letters can be posted. A special late letter box is erected for the purpose at each of the stations mentioned, and a list is exhibited, near the box, of all places for which letters can be posted with advantage.

Any letter or newspaper found in these late letter boxes insufficiently stamped, will not be forwarded by the outgoing mail.

Letters or packets put unpaid into the letter boxes are charged with double the prepaid rates. Letters insufficiently paid are charged with double the amount of the deficient postage.

At the Chief and District Post Offices, and at the Charing Cross, Gracechurch Street, Lombard Street and Mark Lane Post Offices in London, as well as at the Head Offices in Edinburgh and Dublin, Belfast, Birmingham, Bristol, Glasgow, Liverpool and Manchester, letters and book-packets may be prepaid in money, provided the amount be never less than £1 in London, Edinburgh and Dublin, nor less than £5 in any of the other towns named, and that the letters and book-packets be tied in bundles representing a postage of 5s. each, with the addresses arranged in the same direction.

At the District Post Offices, and at the Charing Cross, Gracechurch Street, Lombard Street and Mark Lane Post Offices in London, such letters and book-packets must be presented at the counter between 10 a.m. and 3.30 p.m., and at the Chief Office between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m.

In all other cases, whether addressed to the United Kingdom, to the Colonies, or to Foreign Countries, the postage must be prepaid by stamps, the option of prepaying letters for places Abroad in money having been abolished.

LIMITATION OF SIZE OF LETTERS.

A Letter to pass by the Post, either paid or unpaid, must not exceed the dimensions of one foot six inches in length, nine inches in width, and six inches in depth. Any Letter above those dimensions may be detained and opened, or forwarded at the option of the Postmaster-General. If un-

The only Exceptions to the foregoing Regulations as to size and weight of Letters are in the cases of—1. Parliamentary Petitions or Addresses to Her Majesty. 2. Petitions to either House of Parliament forwarded to any Member of such House. 3. Printed Votes or Proceedings of Parliament. 4. Letters or Packets to or from Public Departments or Public Officers on Her Majesty's service. 5. Letters, &c., to or from places Abroad.

POSTAGE OF UNDELIVERED UNPAID LETTERS RECOVERABLE FROM THE SENDERS.

All persons sending Letters by the Post Unpaid, which, from any cause whatever, cannot be delivered to the parties to whom they are addressed, are liable to pay the Postage charged thereon, which may be recovered, with costs, by summary process before a Magistrate.

NEWSPAPERS.

Under the "Post Office Act, 1870" any publication fulfilling the conditions hereafter named can, upon payment of an annual fee of 5s., be registered at the General Post Office to pass within the United Kingdom as a newspaper for a postage of one halfpenny. Without such registration a newspaper cannot be sent through the post at less than the book rate of postage.

The conditions are as follows:—

1st. The publication must consist wholly or in great part of political or other news, or of articles relating thereto, or to other current topics, with or without advertisements.

2nd. It must be printed and published in the United Kingdom, and must be published in numbers at intervals of not more than seven days.

3rd. The full title and date of publication must be printed at the top of the first page, and the whole or part of the title and the date of publication at the top of every subsequent page; and this regulation applies to "Tables of Contents" and "Indices."

4th. A supplement must consist wholly or in great part of matter like that of a newspaper, or of advertisements, printed on a sheet or sheets, or on a piece or pieces of paper, unstitched; or wholly or in part of engravings, prints, or lithographs illustrative of articles in the newspaper. The supplement must in every case be published with the newspaper, and must have the title and date of publication of the newspaper printed at the top of every page; or if it consists of engravings, prints, or lithographs, at the top of every sheet or side.

Registration for inland circulation includes registration for transmission abroad.

For each inland newspaper, whether posted singly or in a packet, the postage, when prepaid, is one halfpenny; but a packet containing two or more registered newspapers is not chargeable with a higher rate of postage than would be chargeable on a book packet of the same weight, viz., one halfpenny for every 2 oz. or part of that weight.

A newspaper posted unpaid, or a packet of newspapers posted either unpaid or insufficiently paid, is treated as an unpaid or insufficiently paid book packet of the same weight.

The postage must be prepaid either by an adhesive stamp, or by the use of a stamped wrapper.

No newspaper can be sent through the post a second time for the original postage. For each transmission a fresh postage is required.

Every newspaper must be posted either without a cover, or in a cover entirely open at both ends, so as to admit of easy removal for examination. A newspaper must not be fastened in its cover by means of gum, sealing wax, postage stamp, or otherwise If this rule be infringed, the newspaper is treated as a letter.

Every newspaper must be so folded as to admit of the title being readily seen.

A newspaper or packet of newspapers which contains any enclosure (except supplements) is charged as a letter, unless the enclosure be such as might be sent at the book rate of postage, and the entire packet be sufficiently prepaid as a book packet, in which case it is allowed to pass.

A newspaper which has any letter, or any communication of the nature of a letter, written in it or upon its cover, is charged as an unpaid or insufficiently paid letter.

In order that no failure may occur in the delivery of newspapers through the covers becoming detached, it is recommended that the addresses be written on exposed parts of the newspapers themselves as well as on the covers.

No packet of newspapers may be above 14 lbs. in weight, two feet in length, one foot in width, or one in depth.

PARLIAMENTARY PROCEEDINGS.

Printed Votes or Proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, sent without covers, or in covers open at the ends, may circulate within the United Kingdom at the rate of one halfpenny for every 2 oz. or part of that weight.

The words "Parliamentary Proceedings" must be written or printed on the cover of the packet: otherwise it will be treated as an ordinary book-packet.

Prepayment, when the circulation is within the United Kingdom, is optional; and, if it be made in part, the simple difference only is charged.

Parliamentary Proceedings may be sent, under the Book Post privilege, to all the Colonies, and to those Foreign States between which and this country there is a Book Post.

The limit of size prescribed for ordinary book packets does not apply to printed Parliamentary Proceedings.

NOTICES OF OBJECTION TO VOTERS FOR MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

These may be forwarded through the medium of the post to persons residing at a distance, upon payment of a fee of 2d. with each, in addition to the postage at the letter rate. These notices must be posted half an hour earlier than post letters, and they can be received only at post offices at which Money Orders are issued and paid.

PARLIAMENTARY NOTICES

may be forwarded through the post under the following regulations:—

The words "Parliamentary Notice" must be legibly written or printed on the face of the letter; and in order to secure the speedy return of any notices which may be undelivered, the name and address of the solicitor issuing such parliamentary notice should also be legibly printed or written on the face of the letter; though this is not imperative.

These notices may be posted at any Post Office in the United Kingdom at which Money Order business is transacted.

All notices which by the standing orders of either House of Parliament are required to be served on or before the 15th December must be posted not later than the 12th December, unless the 12th fall on a Sunday, when they must be posted not later than the 11th; and those notices which, by the same orders, may be served after the 15th, must be posted not later than the 18th of December, unless the 18th falls on a Sunday, when they must be posted not later than the 17th.

The postage at the letter rate chargeable on these notices, and the registration fee of sixpence on each, must be prepaid by stamps.

BALLOT PAPERS.

When Ballot-papers are presented by any Returning Officer to be forwarded by post, the Postmaster is required to give such officer an acknowledgment in writing of his having received them, stating the time of receipt.

The prepayment of the postage on Ballot-papers is optional.

NOTICES TO JURORS

may be posted at any Post Office at which Money Order and Savings Bank business is transacted. They must bear the words "Jury Summons" above the address, and a fee of 2d. in addition to the letter rate of postage must be prepaid by stamps affixed to each.

BOOK POST.

The postage is one halfpenny for every 2 oz. or part of that weight.

A packet posted wholly unpaid is charged with double the book-postage; and if posted partially prepaid, with double the deficiency.

A book-packet may contain any number of separate books or other publications, photographs (when not on glass or in cases containing glass or any like substance), drawings, prints, or maps, and any quantity of paper, or any other substance in ordinary use for writing or printing upon; and the books or other publications, prints, maps, &c., may be either printed, written, engraved, lithographed, or plain, or any mixture of these. Further, all legitimate binding, mounting, or covering of a book, &c., or of a portion thereof, is allowed, whether such binding, &c. be loose or attached; as also rollers in the case of prints or maps, markers (whether of paper or otherwise) in the case of books, pens or pencils in the case of pocket-books, &c., and, in short, whatever is necessary for the safe transmission of such articles, or usually appertains thereto; but the binding, rollers, &c. must not be sent as a separate packet.

Circulars,—i.e., letters which, from internal evidence, appear intended for transmission in identical terms to several persons, and the whole or the greater part of which is produced by means of ordinary type, engraving, lithography, or some other mechanical process, may also be sent by book post.

But a book-packet may not contain any letter, or communication of the nature of a letter (whether separate or otherwise), unless it be a circular-letter; nor any other enclosure sealed or in any way closed against inspection; nor any other enclosure not allowed by the foregoing regulations. If this rule be infringed, the entire packet is charged as a letter.

A book-packet may be posted either without a cover (in which case it must not be fastened, whether by means of gum, wafer, sealing wax, postage stamp, or otherwise), or in a cover entirely open at both ends, so as to admit of the contents being easily withdrawn for examination; otherwise it is treated as a letter. For the greater security of the contents, however, it may be tied at the ends with string; Postmasters being authorised to cut the string in such cases, although if they do so they must again tie up the packet.

No book-packet may be above 5 lbs. in weight, nor above one foot six inches in length, nine inches in width, or six inches in depth, unless it be sent to or from one of the Government offices.

INLAND PATTERN AND SAMPLE POST.

The Inland Pattern and Sample Post, for the transmission of samples in open covers for a postage of ½d. for every 2 ounces, is abolished. Samples sent by post to places in the United Kingdom are now charged as ordinary letters, and may accordingly be forwarded in closed covers.

INLAND PARCELS POST.

An Inland Parcels Post is now in operation, and parcels can be posted at every Post Office during the same hours as for general postal business.

The following are the principal regulations and conditions:—

1. Parcels should have the words "Parcels Post" clearly written on the left-hand top corner of the packet, and be handed in for transmission as a parcel.

2. If posted in a letter box the parcel will not be sent by Parcels Post, but be treated as a letter, or as a book packet if it can pass under the Book Post regulations.

3. A parcel may not be more than three feet six inches long or more than six feet in length and girth combined. Thus a parcel say measuring three feet six inches long must not be more than two feet six inches round its thickest part.

4. The rates of postage are:—

Not exceeding 1 lb. in weight.....	3d.
Exceeding 1 lb. and under 3 lbs.....	6d.
Do. 3 lbs. and under 5 lbs.	9d.
Do. 5 lbs. and under 7 lbs.	1s.

5. No parcel must be more than seven pounds in weight.

6. The postage must be prepaid by ordinary postage stamps, which the sender must affix to the parcel before handing it in for transmission.

7. Parcels of an indecent or offensive nature or of a dangerous character are prohibited.

8. Parcels known to contain a letter, packet, or parcel intended for delivery at an address other than that borne by the parcel itself are prohibited.

9. Parcels to or from the Channel Islands will be received, subject to the Customs regulations, at the same rates of postage applicable to parcels for all other parts of the United Kingdom, but the sender must make a declaration of the contents on a form to be obtained at the office of posting.

10. The same rule applies to parcels to or from the Isle of Man, except that in this case the sender is not required to make a declaration of the contents.

11. The Customs Laws do not admit of the introduction by means of the Parcels Post into the United Kingdom of tobacco in any form.

12. Parcels may be addressed to a Post Office "To be called for" generally under the same conditions as apply to letters.

13. Parcels addressed to a Post Office "To be called for," or to a resident beyond the free postal delivery, will be kept three weeks; or if addressed to a ship they will be kept one month; and if they contain perishable matter they will be kept only forty-eight hours. Should any parcel become offensive, it may be disposed of at any time as the Postmaster-General may direct.

14. Parcels addressed to a Post Office "To be called for," are liable, after having remained in the office one clear day, to a demurrage of 1d. a day.

15. Parcels may be re-directed on receipt of a properly signed authority.

16. To facilitate the return of a parcel, should such a course be requisite, it is desirable that the name and address of the sender appear on the outside of every parcel.

17. Rural letter carriers, whether on foot or mounted, are allowed to accept parcels under certain conditions.

18. The Postmaster-General is not liable to make good any claim in respect of a lost or damaged parcel.

19. The public are requested to take care that parcels are in all cases strongly and securely packed, especially those with fragile or perishable contents.

20. The initials of the Metropolitan postal districts should not be added to parcels for delivery in London or the suburbs.

For full information as to the hours of collecting parcels in London and the suburbs, and approximate times of delivery in London and the country, see the official publication entitled "The Inland Parcels Post," which can be obtained at Post-Offices, price twopence.

INLAND CARD POST.

Official Post Cards, including double or Reply Cards impressed, or private Post Cards embossed, with a halfpenny stamp (adhesive stamps not being accepted in payment of the postage) may be transmitted between places in the United Kingdom with letters printed or written upon the back.

Both the "stout" and the "thin" cards may be bought singly. The prices of the "stout" and "thin" cards respectively are as follows:—

Stout Cards.

1	¾d.	4	2¾d.
2	1½d.	5	3½d.
3	2d.	6	4d.

6s. 8d. per parcel of 120.

Thin Cards.

1	¾d.	4	2¼d.
2	1½d.	5	3d.
3	1¾d.	6	3¾d.

11s. 8d. per parcel of 240.

Reply Stout Cards.

3	4d.	6	8d.

6s. 8d. per parcel of 60.

Reply Thin Cards.

1	1¼d.	4	4¾d.
2	2½d.	5	6d.
3	3½d.	6	7d.

11s. 8d. per parcel of 120.

The front (or stamped) side is intended for the address only, in addition to the printed words "Post Card" and "The address only to be written on this side." There must be nothing else written, printed, or otherwise impressed on it, nor must there be any writing or printing across the stamp. On the reverse side any communication, whether of the nature of a letter or otherwise, may be written or printed. Nothing whatever may be attached; nor may the card be folded, cut, or otherwise altered. If any one of these rules be infringed, the card will be charged 1d. on delivery.

When, owing to a great and unusual influx of letters, books, &c., the transmission or delivery of the letters would be delayed if the whole mail were dealt with without distinction, Post Cards (unless paid for and posted as late letters) may be kept back until the next despatch or delivery.

No card other than one of those issued by the Government, or a private card embossed with a halfpenny stamp at the Office of Inland Revenue, Somerset House, or at the Stamp Offices at Liverpool and Newcastle-on-Tyne, will pass under a halfpenny stamp, if it bear on it a communication of the nature of a letter (unless it be a circular letter).

For information as to the conditions under which private cards are embossed with a halfpenny stamp, application must be made to the Office of Inland Revenue, Somerset House.

REGISTRATION OF LETTERS.

The Registration Fee has been reduced from Fourpence to TWOPENCE.

Letters are registered by Rural Post Messengers, as well as at all Post Offices.

Registered Letter Envelopes, impressed with a two-penny stamp for the fee, and so made as to render it difficult for the contents to escape or be abstracted, are sold at all Post Offices and by Rural Messengers.

By law the Postmaster General is not responsible for the safe delivery of registered articles, but henceforth he will be prepared to make good the contents of a registered article lost while passing through the Post to the extent of £2, in certain cases, provided—

That the sender duly observed all the conditions of registration required:

That the article was securely enclosed in a reasonably strong cover; and, if it contained money, that it was enclosed in one of the Registered Letter Envelopes sold by the Post Office for the purpose:

That application was made to the Secretary of the Post Office immediately the loss was discovered:

[When the complaint is that the contents of a letter or packet have been abstracted, the envelope must accompany the application, otherwise the question will not be entertained.]

That the Postmaster-General, whose decision shall be final, is satisfied that the loss occurred while the letter was in the custody of the British Post Office, and was not caused by any fault on the part of the sender.

The word "loss" here does not include damage to an article which in fact reaches its destination, or destruction by fire or shipwreck, or by the dishonesty or negligence of any person not in the employment of the Post Office.

No Town letter-carrier is allowed to take a letter to be registered; but for the convenience of persons living in country places where no Post Office is near, letters will be registered by Rural Letter carriers, who will take letters for registration on their outward and inward walks, whenever it is practicable for them to do so.

Letters for Registration must be presented at the General Post Office, the District and Branch offices, and the Receiving Houses, half an hour before the time for posting ordinary Letters, for the despatch by which they are intended to be forwarded. At the General Post Office and at the District and Branch offices, however, letters can be registered up to 6 p.m. upon payment of a late fee of 2d. in addition to the ordinary registration fee; and at the General Post Office only till 6.30 p.m. on payment of a late fee of 4d., till 7.0 p.m. upon payment of a late fee of 6d., and until 7.30 p.m. on payment of a late fee of 1s. The postage and fee must in all cases be paid by means of stamps.

Money or other enclosures must be securely packed in a well fastened cover or envelope, otherwise the letter or packet will not be accepted for registration.

Letters addressed to "Initials," or "Fictitious Names," cannot be registered unless they be addressed to the care of a person or firm. Letters marked "Registered" dropped in the Letter Box instead of being given at the counter to be registered, will, if discovered, and if addressed to any place in the United Kingdom, or the British Colonies, be forwarded as registered, charged with a fee of 8d.

ARTICLES OF VALUE should never be sent in unregistered letters. So sent, they are exposed to serious risk, but when registered they are practically safe.

All letters found to CONTAIN COIN, JEWELRY, or WATCHES, posted unregistered, are compulsorily registered, and charged on delivery with a fee of 8d. in addition to the ordinary postage; and when any such letters cannot be registered in time to be forwarded by the mail for which they were posted they are detained for the next despatch.

ARTICLES WHICH MAY NOT BE SENT BY INLAND LETTER POST OR FOREIGN SAMPLE POST,

It is forbidden to forward by Post any indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, book or card, or any other indecent or obscene article, or any letter, newspaper, publication, packet, or card having thereon any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, libellous, or grossly offensive character; also any Glass or Glass Bottle, any Razor, Scissors, Knife, Fork, or other sharp or pointed instrument, any Leeches, Game, Fish, Flesh, Fruit, Vegetable, or other perishable substance, any bladder or other vessel containing liquid; or any article, matter, or thing whatsoever which might, by pressure or otherwise, be liable to injure the other correspondence, or the officers of the Post Office. Should anything be posted falling within this prohibition, it is stopped and sent to the Returned Letter Office, London.

The above regulation is so far relaxed as to permit the transmission abroad as samples of scissors, knives, razors, forks, steel pens, nails, keys, watch machinery, metal tubing, pieces of metal or ore, and such like, provided they be packed and guarded in so secure a manner as to afford complete protection to the contents of the Mail bags, and the Officers dealing with them.

RE-DIRECTED LETTERS, &c.

Every inland re-directed letter, post card, or other postal packet is liable to an additional postage (at the prepaid rate) for each re-direction, unless both the original and the second address be within the delivery of the same Post Office, or Sub-Office, or rural walk, and the re-direction be made by an Officer of the Post Office. For purposes of re-direction the whole of the London District is at present regarded as within the same official delivery. Thus, on a paid or unpaid letter not exceeding 1 oz. in weight, re-directed, either by an Officer of the Post Office, or by anyone else, to a different delivery, an additional postage is levied of one penny; and if the weight be more than 1 oz., but less than 2 oz., of three halfpence, and so on.

Exception.—No charge for re-direction is made on Government letters.

Notices of removal, and applications for letters to be re-directed, must in all cases be duly signed by the persons to whom the letters are addressed, and in provincial towns they must be sent to the local Postmaster. In London printed forms of notice can be obtained at any Head District or Branch Office, or from the Letter Carrier of the walk; and when filled up and signed, they should be given to the Postmaster of the district or to the Letter Carrier; but owing to the frequent removals which take place in the Metropolitan district, it is desirable, for the prevention of mistakes, that persons who are about to change their residence should inform their correspondents beforehand of their intention, so that their letters may be directed by the writers to the new address.

LETTERS LEFT TILL CALLED FOR.

Letters addressed to "Initials," or "Fictitious Names," are not received at the Poste Restante; if so addressed they are returned to the writers.

Letters may not be re-directed from a private address to the Poste Restante.

There is a Poste Restante both at the General Post Office, St. Martin's-le-Grand, and at the Charing Cross Post Office, where letters "to be called for" can be obtained between the hours of 8 a.m. and 8 p.m. at the former, and between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. at the latter. No letters (except communications from the Savings Bank Department) are taken in "to be called for" at the other District or Branch Offices, and any so directed are sent to the Returned Letter Office to be returned to the writers.

The "Poste Restante" being intended solely for the accommodation of Strangers, persons having a fixed residence in London are not allowed to have their letters addressed there.

If the person applying for letters is a Foreigner, he must produce his passport.

When a Foreigner does not apply in person, but by a Messenger despatched for that purpose, the Messenger must produce the passport of the person to whom the letters are addressed, as well as a written order signed and dated by such person. Subjects of States not issuing Passports are treated as subjects of the United Kingdom.

In the case of a Messenger being sent for the letters of more persons than one, he must produce passports and orders from each person.

If the applicant for the letters is a subject of the United Kingdom, he must be able to state from what place or district he expects letters before he can receive them, and must produce some proof of identification.

If letters are directed to individuals, simply addressed "London" (and not "Post Office," or "Poste Restante, London"), they will not be delivered from the window, but will be sent out by letter carrier for delivery at the address furnished by the applicant.

Foreign letters addressed "Poste Restante, London," are retained for two months; letters from the Provinces one month, and those posted in the London District one fortnight, at the Poste Restante Counters. After the expiration of these periods, the letters are respectively sent to the Returned Letter Office, to be disposed of in the usual manner.

All persons applying for letters at the Post Office Window must be prepared to give the necessary explanations to the Clerk at the window, in order to prevent mistakes, and to insure the delivery of the letters to the persons to whom they properly belong.

The words "to be called for," should invariably be added to the address of letters which are directed Post Office, London.

None of the Letter Receivers in the London District are required to take charge of letters to be called for; and all newly appointed Letter Receivers are forbidden to do so. Those who have been for some time in the service are for the present permitted to take in such letters (charging a fee for the accommodation), provided that the letters are addressed "Post Office," and that the persons seeking such accommodation are known to them or have previously made a like application, and that the Receiver is satisfied that proper use will be made of the privilege. When, however, letters for strangers are presented without the Receiver's consent having been first obtained, or, when there is reason to suspect that the Receiving House is being made to serve improper ends, the Receiver is instructed to refuse to take them in. Letters may not be re-directed from the Poste Restante to a Receiving House, or from one Receiving House to another in the London District. This Regulation does not apply to communications from the Savings Bank Department addressed to Receiving Houses to be called for, Letter Receivers being required to take in such communications without any payment from the depositors.

PRIVATE LETTER BOXES

may be rented at the General Post Office, at the Lombard Street, Gracechurch Street, and Mark Lane Branch Offices, and at any Head District Office. The charge for a private box or bag is £3 a year, payable in advance; and no box can be rented for less than a year. Private box-holders can obtain their letters between 7.30 a.m. and 9.45 p.m. at the General Post Office, and between 7.30 a.m. and 7.45 p.m. at the other offices named. At Sub-District Offices, private bags are made up for a payment in advance of 2*l.* a year.

BANKRUPTS' LETTERS.

The letters of a bankrupt may, upon the order of any Commissioner of Bankruptcy, or any Court of Bankruptcy acting under any Fiat or Commission of Bankruptcy, bearing the official Seal of the Bankruptcy Court, be withheld from the bankrupt, and delivered to the Official or other Assignees for a period not exceeding three months. The Order may be renewed for the like or any other less period, as often as may be necessary.

DELIVERY OF LETTERS IN LONDON.

The portion of each District within about 3 miles of the General Post Office is designated the Town Delivery, and the remainder the Suburban Delivery.

Within the limits of the Eastern Central District there are daily twelve deliveries, and within the Town limits of the other Districts eleven deliveries:—The First, or General Post delivery, including all Inland, Colonial, and Foreign letters arriving in sufficient time, commences about 7.20 a.m., and, except on Mondays, or on other days when there are large arrivals of letters from abroad, is generally completed throughout London, by 9 o'clock. In the Eastern Central District the second delivery begins at about 8.30 a.m., and includes the correspondence received by Night Mail from Ireland and by the North Mail arriving at 8 a.m.; and the third delivery in this District, corresponding with the second delivery in other districts, is made at about 10 a.m., and includes the letters collected in London generally at 8.45 a.m., and the correspondence by the Scotch Mail arriving about 9 a.m. The next nine deliveries are made in every District hourly, and include all letters reaching the General Post Office, or the District Offices, in time for each despatch. The last delivery, extending to all the Districts, begins at about 7.45 p.m.

Each delivery within the Town limit occupies about an hour.

The Provincial Day Mails are due at various times, and letters are included in the next delivery after their arrival in London. The Day Mails from Ireland, France, and the Continent generally, and the letters received from Brighton and other towns which have a late afternoon communication with London, are delivered the same evening in London and in the suburbs within the six-mile circle.

SUBURBAN DELIVERIES.

The number of despatches to the Suburban Districts varies according to distance. To most Suburbs there are six despatches daily. The first (at 6.30 a.m.) is to all places within the London District; and includes the correspondence by the Night Mails from the Provinces, and by any Colonial or Foreign Mails arriving in sufficient time. This delivery is generally completed in the nearer Suburbs by 9 a.m., and at the more distant between 9 and 10 a.m. The second despatch (at 9.30 a.m.) is to the Suburban Districts only. The third despatch (at 11.30 a.m.) comprises, with a few exceptions, every part of the London District. The fourth despatch (at 2.30 p.m.) is to most of the Suburban Districts. The fifth despatch (at 4.30 p.m.) extends to the whole of the Suburban Districts; and, except in the remoter rural places, the letters are delivered the same evening. The sixth despatch is at 7.0 p.m. Letters for this despatch posted at the Town Receiving Houses and Pillar Boxes by 6 p.m., or at the Chief Office of the District to which they are addressed by 7.30 p.m., are delivered the same evening, except at a few distant places, where the delivery is made early the following morning.

The deliveries in the Suburban Districts begin from one to two hours after the stated time of despatch, according to the distance from London. The deliveries in rural parts of the remoter Suburban Districts being necessarily fewer than in the towns and villages.

STREET DOOR LETTER BOXES

materially assist in ensuring a more rapid delivery of letters.

Sub-postmasters are required to keep halfpenny and penny stamps and Post Cards and Registered Letter Envelopes, only; but they are bound, on application, to procure any stamps of other values, embossed envelopes, or newspaper wrappers.

Letters enclosed in Stamped Covers, or having Stamps affixed to them, the Stamps in every such case being equal to the Rates of Postage chargeable on such Letters, if prepaid, will pass Free of all other Postage charge in whatever part of the UNITED KINGDOM they may be posted

In those cases where the value of Stamps on the Letter is less than the amount of the Postage to which it would be liable, if prepaid, the Letter will be charged Double the Amount of such difference on delivery. An Inland Letter, for example, weighing more than an Ounce, and not exceeding Two Ounces, if bearing only a Penny Stamp, will be charged One Penny on delivery.

Stamps may be used for Printed Votes and Proceedings in Parliament; and if the Stamps should be less in value than the proper Rate of Postage to which these documents are subject, only the difference, and not double the difference, is charged on delivery.

Note.—Adhesive Stamps, before being used, should be examined to ascertain that they are properly gummed, as, in the event of their falling off, the letters become charged with postage, which is double the prepaid rate; they should then be placed on the Front of the Letter, and at the right-hand upper corner. Should this direction not be attended to, from the rapidity with which the duty must be performed, Letters which bear Stamps will frequently be taxed, while the parties receiving them will be put to some trouble in obtaining a return of the Postage charged. In affixing the stamps the corner of the envelope and the gummed side of the stamp should be slightly wetted, and then the stamp should be gently pressed till it is firmly fixed. The practice of dipping the stamp in water is objectionable; because, unless the stamp be immediately withdrawn, and care be taken, by the use of blotting paper or some other absorbent, to remove any excess of moisture, the gum may be washed off, or the stamp may be rubbed off the letter. In all cases of complaint, whether of over-charge or of any other irregularity, the Covers of the Letters (and contents in all practicable cases) must invariably be kept and sent to the Post Office, as affording the only means of investigating the complaint.

Persons or firms who may be desirous of having their own paper and envelopes or cards impressed with postage stamps must apply for that purpose to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, Somerset House.

It is no longer legal to use for the purpose of prepayment of postage any embossed or impressed stamp cut out or otherwise separated from any cover, paper or card, on which it was embossed. Any such stamp on a letter, newspaper, publication, packet, or card, will, in future, be disregarded.

To discourage the transmission of coin by post, all Postmasters and letter receivers, at whose offices money order business is transacted, are permitted but not compelled to purchase postage stamps of the public, if not soiled or otherwise damaged, at a discount of 2½ per cent. The stamps must be presented in strips containing at least two stamps adhering to each other. Single stamps will not be received.

As a protection to firms who keep a large stock of postage stamps against the purloining of them by persons in their employ, the Department recommends that the name or initials of Firms, &c. be either printed on the back of the stamps, or perforated through the stamps by means of a machine devised for the purpose, so that, by rendering the sale of such stamps difficult, the temptation to steal them may be lessened or altogether removed.

Postmasters have been instructed not to purchase any postage stamps thus marked which may be offered to them for sale.

Impressed Bill Stamps of the respective values of 1d., 2d., 3d., 6d., 9d. and 1s. (for agreements, contracts, &c.), are sold at all London Receiving Offices.

No Order is allowed to contain a fractional part of a penny.

Money Orders are issued and paid in London, within the town limits, between the hours of Ten a.m. and Four p.m., except on Saturdays, when at the Chief Office, the Charing Cross Office, and the other District Offices, the hours of business are from Ten a.m. till One p.m. Orders are issued and paid at the offices in the suburbs of the London District, between he hours of Nine a.m. and Six p.m.

At the end of twelve months from that in which it was issued, a Money Order, if still unpaid, becomes legally void; nevertheless, when a good reason can be given for the delay in presenting it, an application for payment, subject to a certain deduction, is entertained.

Money Orders may be obtained at the CHIEF OFFICE; at the several DISTRICT and BRANCH OFFICES; at the House of Commons (during the Session); at the principal RECEIVING HOUSES; AT ALL HEAD OFFICES; AND AT MOST OF THE SUB-OFFICES THROUGHOUT THE UNITED KINGDOM.

At the House of Commons, Orders are now both issued and paid during the Session.

 In cases where personal attendance is inconvenient, if the Order is receipted by the person to whom it is made payable, and the party presenting it for payment can furnish the name of the person WHO ORIGINALLY OBTAINED THE ORDER, payment will be made; but unless these conditions are strictly complied with, it must be refused. In obtaining Money Orders it is necessary to give the Surname and at least one Initial of the person to whom it is intended to remit the money. This is not requisite in the cases of Peers and Bishops, in whose favour Money Orders may be obtained, drawn according to their ordinary and known title; their usual form of signature to the Money Order being admitted as sufficient discharge for payment. When the remitter notifies at the time of issue that an Order is intended to be paid through a Bank it is left to his option to give or withhold the name of the payee.

Money Orders presented through a Bank are paid without the name of the remitter, provided that the Bank be situated in the town on which the Money Order is drawn, that the Order be crossed with the Banker's name, and that the party applying at the Money Order Office be known as in the employment of the Bank.

POSTAL ORDERS.

Postal Orders, for certain fixed sums from 1s. up to £1, are now issued to the public at all Post Offices at which Money Order business is transacted.

The following are the amounts for which Postal Orders are issued, together with the Poundage payable in respect of each Order:—

Amount of Order.	Poundage
One shilling	One half-penny
One shilling & sixpence	One half-penny
Two shillings	One penny
Half-a-crown	One penny
Three shillings	One penny
Three shillings & sixpence	One penny
Four shillings	One penny
Four shillings & sixpence	One penny
Five shillings	One penny
Seven shillings & sixpence	One penny
Ten shillings	One penny
Ten shillings & sixpence	One penny
Fifteen shillings	Three half-pence
One pound	Three half-pence

Broken amounts may be made up by the use of postage stamps, not exceeding five-pence in value, affixed to the back of any one Postal Order

The person to whom a Postal Order is issued must, before parting with it, fill in the name of the person to whom the amount is to be paid, and may fill in the name of the Money Order Office at which the amount is to be paid. The person so named must, before payment can be made, sign the receipt at the foot of the Order, and must also fill in the name of the Money Order Office, if that has not been already done.

Every person to whom a postal order is issued should keep a record of the number, date, and name of office of issue, to facilitate inquiry if the order should be lost.

If a Postal Order be crossed "_____ & Co." payment will only be made through a Banker, and if the name of a Banker is added, payment will only be made through that Banker.

A Postal Order presented by, or through, a Banker for payment will not (in the absence of an express arrangement between such Banker and the Postmaster-General to the contrary) be paid until after such Order has been examined at the Chief Office.

After a Postal Order has once been paid, to whomsoever it is paid, the Postmaster-General will not be liable for any further claim.

If any erasure or alteration be made, or if the Order is cut, defaced, or mutilated, payment may be refused.

The Regulations under which Postal Orders will be issued allow the Postmaster to delay or refuse the payment of an Order, but he must at once report his reasons for so doing to the Postmaster-General.

After the expiration of three months from the last day of the month of issue, a Postal Order will be payable only on payment of a Commission equal to the amount of the original poundage, with the addition (if more than three months have elapsed since the said expiration) of the amount of the original poundage for every further period of three months which has so elapsed, and for every portion of any such period of three months over and above every complete period.

The Commission thus paid must be affixed in Postage Stamps to the face of the Order.

These Orders are payable in the United Kingdom, and at Malta, Gibraltar, India, Hong Kong & some places in China.

PRINCIPAL RULES OF THE GOVERNMENT INSURANCE AND ANNUITY OFFICE, THE POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANK, AND POST OFFICE TELEGRAPHS.

THE GOVERNMENT INSURANCE AND ANNUITY OFFICE.

1. The Postmaster-General is empowered, under the Act 45 & 46 Vict. cap. 51, to insure the lives of persons of either sex between the ages of 14 and 65, for not less than £5 or more than £100, or if the amount does not exceed £5 not under the age of 8 years. He is also empowered under the same Act to grant immediate or deferred annuities of not less than £1 or more than £100 on the lives of persons of either sex, and of the age of 5 years and upwards. The persons whose lives are insured, or to whom annuities are granted by the Postmaster-General, have direct Government security for the payment of the money at the proper time.

2. Forms of proposal for the insurance of lives and the purchase of annuities, and information as to filling them up, may be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank, where also the Tables of the premium to be charged may be seen and purchased.

3. Persons proposing to insure their lives or to purchase annuities, must furnish a statement with full particulars of their age upon a form which will be supplied by Postmaster with the form of proposal. If such statement can be verified by the Registrar-General no further evidence of age will be required, but if not, proposers must furnish, at their own cost, such certificates of birth or baptism, or other evidence of age as shall be required.

4. The premiums to be charged for the insurance of lives vary with the ages of the persons whose lives are to be insured, and with the mode in which they are to be paid.

5. The life of a man or woman in his or her 30th year may be insured for £100 under any one of the following arrangements:—

By a single payment of	45	19	6
By an annual payment, throughout life, of....	2	6	0
By an annual payment, until the insured person reaches the age of 60, of.....	2	12	6

Smaller sums may be insured by proportionate payments.

6. No one life can be insured for less than £5 in the whole; but when a life has been insured for £5, further insurances may be effected on the same life from time to time, for any amount, until the whole sum for which it is insured amounts t £100.

7. If, after having duly made his payments for a period of two years, the insured person shall be unable to continue, or shall desire to discontinue the payments, such sum of money as the National Debt Commissioner shall specify will be returned to him.

8. The sums to be charged for the purchase of immediate annuities will vary with the age and sex of the person on whose life the annuity is to depend:—

	£	s.	d.
A man aged 65 can purchase an immediate annuity of £1, payable half yearly, for	9	13	4
A woman of the same age can purchase a like annuity for	10	14	7
A man aged 70 can purchase an immediate annuity of £1, payable half yearly, for	7	19	5
A woman of the same age can purchase a like annuity for	8	14	2

9. The sums to be charged for the purchase of deferred annuities, or deferred monthly allowances, will vary with the age and sex of the person on whose life the annuity or monthly allowance is to depend; and with the length of the term for which the annuity is deferred (or in other words, with the number of years which are to pass before the commencement of the annuity), and with the conditions of the contract as to the mode of purchase, mode of payment, and return or non-return of purchase money.

10. When the condition of the contract is to be that no part of the purchase money shall, in any event, be returned—

A man aged 24 may purchase a deferred annuity of £1, to commence on his reaching the age of 54, and to be payable half-yearly either by an immediate payment of	3	19	10
Or by an annual payment, until he reaches the age of 54, of	0	4	4
A woman of like age may purchase a like annuity by an immediate payment of	5	3	2
Or an annual payment, up to 54, of	0	5	4

11. When the condition of the contract is to be that, in the event of the death of the person on whose life the annuity or allowance is to depend before the commencement of the annuity or allowance, the purchase money is to be returned to his representatives, and that if the purchaser at any time before the commencement of the annuity or allowance is unable to continue, or wishes to discontinue, the purchase, the purchase money shall be returned to him, the price charged will be higher than when no such condition is made.

	£	s.	d.
Under this condition, a man aged 24 may purchase a deferred annuity of £1, to commence when he attains to 54 years of age, and to be payable half yearly, either by an immediate payment of	6	10	6
Or by an annual payment, until he attains to 54 years, of	0	6	0
And a woman of like age may purchase a like annuity, either by an immediate payment of	7	4	2
Or by an annual payment of.....	0	6	7

12. The annuity granted on any one life must not exceed £100 per annum; but purchasers need not purchase the whole amount of such annuity or allowance at one time. They may begin by purchasing such part as they can afford to purchase, and go on increasing their purchases from time to time as their circumstances will permit But the Acts of Parliament, which empower the Postmaster-General to grant annuities, fix £1 as the smallest sum for which an immediate annuity can be granted in the first instance.

13. Husband and wife may each be insured to the full amount of £100, and may each purchase an annuity of £100. Any two persons may purchase an annuity on their joint lives, with or without continuance of the annuity to the survivor.

14. Persons contracting for the insurance of their lives, or for the purchase of annuities, will necessarily become, if not already so, Savings Bank Depositors, the premiums being deducted from the money which they may deposit in the Bank, and all amounts due in respect of insurances or annuities will be credited to and paid by means of warrants drawn on Savings Bank accounts to pay their periodical premiums or instalments of purchase money at such of the post offices which have been or may hereafter be opened for the purpose as will suit them best.

15. Insurances for sums not exceeding £25 will be granted without a medical examination, but in such cases, if the insurant should die before the second premium becomes payable, the amount of the first premium and no more will be paid to his representative; and if he should die after the payment of the second premium, and before the third premium becomes payable, half the amount insured will be paid. In either case, however, if death was caused by accident, the full amount will be paid. A medical examination in the case of such insurances not exceeding £25, may be made by payment of half-a-crown to medical examiner, in which case the full benefit of insurance is immediately obtained.

For the provisions applying to insurances and annuities effected or purchased by persons domiciled in England or Wales, see Post Office Guide.

THE POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANK.

Post Office Savings Banks are established at all Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom, and are open for the receipt and payment of money and for the transaction of Government Stock business daily during the hours appointed for money order business. At receiving houses in provincial towns, business is, as a rule, continued up to a late hour on Friday and Saturday. In London, although general Savings Bank business ceases at the hours fixed for closing Money Order business, yet deposits are received at the District and Branch offices until 8 p.m. on Saturday, and at the majority of the receiving houses both on Friday and Saturday until 7 p.m.

At these banks deposits of One Shilling, or any number of shillings, will be received; but no one may deposit more than £30 in one year ending 31st December, or make a further deposit when the total amount standing to his credit has reach £150, exclusive of interest. (The limits of £30 and £150 are irrespective of any sums deposited for the purpose of immediate investment in Government stock.)

Any person desirous of saving One Shilling, by means of penny contributions, for deposit in the Post Office Savings Bank, may do so by purchasing with every penny so saved a penny Postage Stamp and affixing it to a form to be obtained at any Post office. When 12 such stamps have been so affixed, the form may be taken to any Post Office Savings Bank in the United Kingdom, where it will be received by the Postmaster, and One Shilling be allowed for the Stamps, which Shilling will be accepted either as the first deposit in a new account then to be opened, or as an ordinary deposit if the owner of it has already opened an account. If the stamps affixed to the form are defaced, or in any way damaged, they will not be received by a Postmaster.

Interest at the rate of £2 10s. per cent. per annum (which is at the rate of Sixpence in the Pound for each year, or at the rate of One Halfpenny on each complete Pound for each calendar month) is allowed until the sum due to a Depositor amounts to £200, when interest ceases to be allowed. The calculation is made from the first day of the calendar month next following the day on which a complete Pound has been deposited, or on which deposits of a less amount shall have made up a complete Pound, up to the last day of the calendar month preceding the day on which a warrant for repayment is issued. The interest due to each depositor is added to the principal due to him on the 31st December in each year.

Besides ordinary persons, deposits may be made:

(A.) By a trustee on behalf of another person, in the joint names of such trustee and the person on whose account such money shall be so deposited; but repayment of the same, or any part thereof, will not be made without the receipts of both parties. A person may act as trustee in any number of accounts, and at the same time have an account in his own name.

(B.) By two persons jointly on their own behalf, provided neither of them is already a depositor.

(C.) By, or for the benefit of, children, but will not be repaid until they attain the age of 7 years, except in the case of death.

(D.) By the trustees or treasurer of any legally established Friendly, Charitable, or Provident Society, or Penny Savings Bank; provided such trustees or treasurer make application by post to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department accompanied by a copy of their rules. Such Societies, &c. are allowed to invest considerably beyond the usual limit, or even without restriction as to amount; according to circumstances.

(E.) In the name of the Registrar of any county court. Under the 24th section of the Act 30 & 31 Vict. c. 142 (County Courts Act), "trust moneys" not in excess of £500, may be thus deposited; and under the 26th section, money paid into a County Court in "equitable proceedings" may be deposited by the Registrar without restriction as to amount.

(1.) Deposits may be made by married women.

(2.) The following provisions apply to such deposits, where the depositor is domiciled in England or Ireland:—

(a.) All deposits which, on the 1st of January 1883, are standing in the sole name of a married woman will be deemed, unless and until the contrary is shown, to be the separate property of such married woman; and the fact that any deposit is standing in the sole name of a married woman will be considered primâ facie evidence that she is beneficially entitled thereto for her separate use, so as to authorise and empower her to withdraw and receive the same, without the concurrence of her husband.

(b.) All deposits which, on or after the 1st of January, 1883, are made in the sole name of any married woman will be deemed, unless and until the contrary is shown, to be her separate property, and payment of such deposits, and all interest accruing thereon, will be made to the receipt of such married woman alone, without the concurrence of her husband.

(c.) Where any deposit stands, on the 1st of January, 1883, or is at any time thereafter made, in the name of a married woman jointly with any other person or persons, whether such married woman is expressed to be a trustee or not, such married woman will be deemed entitled to such deposit, so far as her interest therein extends, as her separate property, and the concurrence of her husband in any receipt, or other proceeding relating to such deposit, will not be required.

(d.) Any woman who marries while she is a depositor should forward to the Controller of the Savings Bank a certificate of her marriage, together with her deposit book, and the deposits will thereupon be entered in her married name, but she will not, by so doing, lose any power of receiving payment of the same, or of any interest thereon, without the concurrence of her husband, but the deposits will remain her separate property.

(e.) If any deposit is made by a married woman by means of moneys of her husband without his consent, the husband may apply, by summons or otherwise in a summary way, to any Judge of the High Court of Justice in England or in Ireland, or in England to the Judge of the County Court of the district, or in Ireland to the Chairman of the Civil Bill Court of the division, in which either party resides, and the Judge of the High Court of Justice or of the County Court, or the Chairman of the Civil Bill Court, may, upon such application, order such deposit, and the interest thereon, or any part thereof, to be paid to the husband, and may make such order for the costs of and consequent on the application as he thinks fit.

(f.) No deposit of the husband made by or in the name of his wife in fraud of his creditors will be valid as against such creditors; but any moneys so deposited may be followed for the benefit of the creditors.

(g.) Deposits belonging to a married woman may be bequeathed by her by will to any person she may choose, and payment will be made to the executor of such will; but if a married woman who is a depositor should die without leaving a will her husband will be entitled to her deposits.

(3.) The following provisions apply to deposits made by married women whose husbands' domicile is in Scotland:—

(a.) Where the depositor was married before the 18th July, 1881, repayment of deposits made by her subsequent to the 1st of January 1878, being the date of commencement of the Married Women's Property (Scotland) Act, 1877, will take place subject to the provisions of that Act, which provides that any money or property acquired after the commencement of the Act by a married woman from her wages or earnings in any employment, or through the exercise of any literary, artistic, or scientific skill, shall be deemed to be settled to her separate use.

(b.) Where the depositor was married after the 18th of July, 1881, repayment of deposits made by her will take place, subject to the provisions of the Married Women's Property (Scotland) Act, 1881, which provides that where a marriage is contracted after the passing of that Act, the husband being domiciled in Scotland at the time of the marriage, the whole moveable or personal estate of the wife, whether acquired before or during the marriage, shall be vested in the wife as her separate estate, subject to the provisions of the above-mentioned Act.

Any dispute in regard to deposits in Scotland may be settled by the Registrar or an Assistant Registrar of Friendly Societies under the Savings Bank Barrister Act, 1876.

Once in each year, on the anniversary of the day on which the first deposit was made, the Depositor should forward his deposit book to the Controller of the Post Office Savings Bank Department in London, in order that it may be compared with the books of that department, and in order that the interest due to the previous 31st December may be inserted in it.

No charge will be made for the books at first supplied to Depositors, or for books issued to them in continuation thereof; but if any Depositor shall lose his book, and shall desire a new book, application must be made by him to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department by letter, stating the circumstances, and enclosing postage stamps of the value of 1s. to pay for the new book should the application be granted.

No charge for postage will be made on the Depositor for any letter passing between him and the Savings Bank Department with regard to his deposits, or with regard to the withdrawal of the same, or for the transmission of his deposit book between him and the Savings Bank Department, and letters addressed to the Controller on Savings Bank business need not be prepaid.

A Depositor in the Post Office Savings Bank may transfer his deposits to any other Savings Bank legally established; and, on his written application, accompanied by his book, to the Chief Office of the Postmaster-General, in a form to be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank, he will be furnished with a certificate of the whole amount due to him; and his account with the Post Office Savings Bank will thereupon be closed. A Depositor in any legally established Savings Bank may transfer his account to the Post Office Savings Bank, and may require from the trustees or managers of such bank a certificate stating the amount due to him; and thereupon his account with such bank will be closed. The certificate may be delivered at any Post Office Savings Bank, and will be received as a deposit of the amount therein set forth; and on the certificate being forwarded to London, and verified by the National Debt Commissioners, an acknowledgment for the amount will be sent to the Depositor.

When a Depositor wishes to withdraw the whole or any part of the sum due to him, he must make application for the same on a printed form called a Notice of Withdrawal, which he can obtain at any Post Office Savings Bank. When he has properly filled up this form, he must fold and secure it, and forward it by post as if it were an ordinary letter. In return for it he will receive a warrant for the amount required by him, payable at the Post Office Bank named by him in the notice of withdrawal. This warrant must be presented by the Depositor at the Post Office named thereon, together with the Depositor's book, in which the Postmaster will enter the amount repaid, and attest the entry with his signature and the dated stamp of his office. The Postmaster will take from the Depositor a receipt (not chargeable with stamp duty) on the warrant for the amount repaid to him. The Postmaster-General will endeavour to prevent fraud, and to identify every Depositor transacting business with the Post Office Savings Bank; but if any person shall obtain possession of a Depositor's book and then fraudulently represent himself to be the Depositor, and by forwarding the proper notice of withdrawal, and by presentation of the Depositor's book, and compliance with the Rules of the Department, shall obtain any sum of money belonging to that Depositor, the Postmaster-General will not be responsible for the loss thereof.

Repayments are made only to the Depositor in person, or to the bearer of an order under his hand, signed in the presence of either the Minister or a Churchwarden of the parish in which the Depositor resides, of a Justice of the Peace, or, in case of sickness, of the Medical Attendant. If the Depositor be resident abroad, the signature must be verified by some constituted authority of the place in which he resides. A Form of Order, to be signed by the Depositor on such occasions, may be obtained at the Post Office at which the warrant is made payable. Money invested under the Act 30 & 31 Vict. c. 142 (County Courts Act), in the name of the Registrar of a County Court, can only be withdrawn upon authority addressed to the Postmaster-General by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

In case any Depositor shall die leaving any sum of money not exceeding £100, exclusive of interest, deposited in the Post Office Savings Bank, and Probate of his Will, or Letters of Administration, be not produced, or if notice in writing of the existence of a Will, and intention to prove the same, or to take out Letters of Administration, be not given at the principal Office within one month from the death of the Depositor; or if such notice be given, but such Will be not proved, or Letters of Administration be not taken out, and the Probate or Letters of Administration (as the case may be) produced to the Postmaster-General within two months from the death of the Depositor, it will be lawful for the Postmaster-General, after such period of one or two months, as the case may be, to pay and divide such funds at his discretion to or amongst the widow or relatives of the deceased Depositor or any one or more of them; or, if he shall think proper, according to the Statute of Distributions. Note.—A form for making application on the subject may be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank.

In case any Depositor shall die leaving any sum of money in the Post Office Savings Bank, which (exclusive of interest) shall exceed the sum of One Hundred Pounds, the same will only be paid to the Executor or Administrator on the production of the Probate of the Will or Letters of Administration of the estate or effects of the deceased Depositor.

If any Depositor, being illegitimate, shall die intestate, leaving any person or persons, who but for the illegitimacy of such Depositor, and of such person or persons, would be entitled to the money due to such deceased Depositor, it will be lawful for the Postmaster-General, with the authority in writing of the Solicitor to the Treasury, to pay the money of such deceased Depositor to any one or more of the persons who in his opinion would have been entitled to the same according to the Statute of Distributions if the said Depositor had been legitimate.

Under the Provident Nominations and Small Intestacies Act 1883 (46 and 47 Vict. c. 47), a Depositor in the Post Office Savings Bank who has attained the age of 16 years may nominate any person or persons not being an Officer or Servant of the Postmaster-General (unless such Officer or Servant be the husband, wife, father, mother, child, grandchild, brother, sister, nephew or niece of the nominator) to whom any sum not exceeding £100 which may remain due to the Depositor may be paid at his death. Note.—Depositors requiring forms of nomination should make application to the Controller, Savings Bank Department, General Post Office, London E.C. from whom also any further information on the subject can be obtained.

If any Depositor shall become insane, or otherwise incapacitated to act, and the same shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General, then the Postmaster-General, if he shall be satisfied of the urgency of the case, may authorise payment, from time to time, out of the funds of such Depositor to any person whom he shall judge proper to receive it.

If any dispute shall arise between the Postmaster-General and any Depositor, or any executor, administrator, next of kin, or creditor, or assignee of a Depositor who may become bankrupt or insolvent, or any person claiming to be such executor, administrator, next of kin, creditor, or assignee, or to be entitled to any money deposited in the Post Office Savings Bank, the matter in dispute must be referred, in writing, to the Registrar of Friendly Societies, and whatever award shall be made by the said Registrar will be binding and final without any appeal.

The officers of the Postmaster-General engaged in the receipt or payment of deposits are not allowed to disclose the name of any Depositor, or the amount deposited or withdrawn by him, except to the Postmaster-General, or to such of his officers as may be appointed to assist in carrying out the provisions of the Post Office Savings Bank Act.

INVESTMENTS AND SALES OF GOVERNMENT STOCK UNDER THE SAVINGS BANKS ACT, 1880.

A Depositor in the Post Office Savings Bank who desires either to invest a certain sum (not being less than £10) in Government Stock, or to purchase a certain amount of Government Stock (not being less than £10 Stock), must send to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department, General Post Office, London, together with his deposit book, an application signed by him on a form to be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank. By the expression "Government Stock" is meant Consolidated Three per Cent. Bank Annuities, Reduced Three Per Cent. Bank Annuities, and New Three per Cent. Bank Annuities.

Within seven days from the receipt of such application the Depositor's account will be charged with the current price of the Stock purchased and the commission, the necessary entries being made in his deposit book; and within the same period the Depositor will be credited in the Government Stock Register of the Post Office Savings Bank with the equivalent amount of Stock, and a certificate thereof (called an investment certificate) will be sent to him by post.

The sum invested must not be less than £10 or the amount of the current price of £10 Stock with the addition of the commission, whichever sum is least. The amount of Stock credited to any one account in any year ending the 31st December (whether any Stock has been previously sold or not) must not exceed £100 Stock; and the whole amount of Stock credited to any one account must not exceed £300 Stock.

For the purpose of an immediate investment in Goverment Stock a deposit to an amount not exceeding the value of £100 Stock with the commission may be made in one year ending the 31st December, irrespective of the limits for ordinary deposits.

Deposits for immediate investment can be made in the accounts of minors under seven years of age, the application to invest being signed at the time the deposit is made by the person, who, if the deposit were a first deposit, would be required to make a declaration, but the Stock cannot be sold until the minor attains the age of seven years.

All dividends in respect of Government Stock standing to a Depositor's credit will be carried to his deposit account in like manner as interest on his deposits.

When a Depositor having Stock standing to his credit transfers his account to another Savings Bank, the authority of that Bank inscribes a memorandum accordingly on the investment certificate.

A Depositor who desires to sell the Stock standing to his credit, or part of the Stock (not being less than £10 or than Stock of the value of £10 over and above the commission), must send to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department, General Post Office, London, together with his deposit book and investment certificate, an application signed by him on a form to be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank.

Within seven days of the receipt of such application the sale will be effected at the current price of the day of sale, and a warrant will forthwith be sent to the Depositor for the amount realised, less the commission.

On proof to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General of the loss or destruction of an investment certificate, a new certificate may be obtained.

The "current price" for the purposes of the Savings Banks Act, 1880, and of the regulations in connection therewith means in the case of an actual purchase or sale of Stock the sum given or realised by the National Debt Commissioners, irrespective of commission; and in other cases means the average price certified for the day on which the application for purchase or sale is received by the National Debt Commissioners from the Savings Bank Department, by the cashier of the governor and company of the Bank of England under the Act, 10 Geo. 4 c. 14.

The commission chargeable on investment, including the receipt of dividends, and on the sale of Stock, is as follows:—

STOCK CERTIFICATES.

A Depositor in the Post Office Savings Bank who desires to obtain a stock certificate with coupons for dividends annexed under the National Debt Act, 1870, for such amount of Stock standing to his credit in the Government Stock Register of the Post Office Savings Bank (being either £5) or a multiple of £50) as is specified in the application, must send to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department, General Post Office, London, together with his deposit book and investment certificate, an application signed by him in a form to be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank. The amount of Stock for which any Stock certificate is obtainable is £50, £100, or £200 Stock. The dividend coupons attached to Stock certificates are payable to bearer at the Bank of England.

The Stock certificate will be delivered to the Depositor on his attending at the Post Office Savings Bank named in his application and giving a receipt for the same. A Depositor who is unable through infirmity, illness, or other sufficient cause, established to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General, to attend personally, may, however, by an order under his hand, authorise the bearer of such order to receive the Stock certificate on his account, and the receipt of such person shall be a good discharge to the Postmaster-General.

Stock certificates cannot be issued in the accounts of minors under seven years of age. Minors under twenty-one years of age must attend personally to receive Stock certificates.

The commission on procuring a Stock certificate with coupons annexed, under the National Debt Act, 1870, is the same as on sale of Stock, which commission is in addition to the fee payable to the Bank of England for the certificate. The commission and fee will be charged to the Depositor's account, and entered in his deposit book accordingly.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

In computing time for the purpose of these regulations there shall be excluded every day which is a Sunday, and every day which is a holiday within the meaning of the Bank Holidays Act, 1871, and the Holidays Extension Act, 1875.

Subject to the regulations under the Savings Banks Act, 1880, all enactments and regulations for the time being in force relating to the Post Office Savings Banks shall so far as is consistent with the tenour thereof be construed to apply to Stock standing to the credit of any Depositor in the Post Office Savings Bank as if such Stock were a deposit.

POST OFFICE TELEGRAPHS.

Inland Telegrams.

1. The charge for telegrams throughout the United Kingdom is 1s. for the first 20 words, and 3d. for every additional five words or part of five words, the names and addresses of the sender and receiver are not counted.

2. Postage stamps are used for the payment of telegrams, and the public are required to affix the stamps to the message forms just as they are required to affix them to letters. As few stamps as possible should always be used.

3. Receipts for the charges on telegrams can be obtained at a cost of 2d. each.

4. The inland telegram forms are of two kinds, namely, the "A 1" form, embossed with a stamp of the value of 1s., and the "A" form (given gratis), with no stamp. The "A 1 forms" may be purchased singly or in any number. They may also be had in books of 20 forms, interleaved, and with a sheet of carbonic paper; price £1 0s. 2d. each book.

5. When the terminal office, i.e., the office situated nearest to the address, is a Head Post Office, the amount paid for transmission covers the cost of delivery within one mile or within the town postal delivery of that office when the delivery extends for more than a mile. But when it is not a Head Post Office, the message is delivered free within the limit of one mile only. When the terminal office is a sub-office, and that office is closed, exemption from porterage is allowed for one mile only if the telegram is delivered from the Head Office, even though the address of the telegram be within the limits of the town postal delivery.

6. When the addressee resides beyond the free delivery, porterage is charged at the rate of 6d. per mile or part of a mile, provided the whole distance does not exceed three miles; but the charge is calculated from the boundary of the district within which no porterage is levied. For instance, if the addressee's residence is a mile and a quarter from the terminal office, and also beyond the town postal delivery, the charge for porterage would be 6d.; if the distance is above two miles and under three, 1s.

7. If the addressee resides at a greater distance than three miles from the terminal office, porterage is charged, for delivery, by mounted messenger, at the rate of 1s. per mile, (except in Ireland, where the charge usually is only 8d. per mile), the charge being reckoned from the office door.

8. The sender is responsible for all charges incurred in delivery; and when the address is not within the free delivery, he must, when practicable, state the distance and pay the charge for delivery in advance. When the exact distance is not known, a deposit must be paid to meet the charges.

9. In the list of Post Offices in the Post Office Guide approximate distances are given. These will furnish some guide in computing porterage charges.

10. If the prepayment be insufficient the deficiency is charged on delivery.

11. If too much, the excess is refunded.

12. If the sender requires his telegram to be forwarded by post or by train from the terminal office he must write the words "by post" or "by train" at the end of the address, and in the latter case he must deposit 1s. to cover the cost of conveyance if the exact cost is not known.

13. If the sender wishes his telegram to be posted in this country to some place abroad, he must write the words "post——" (which will be charged for) at the end of the address; and he must prepay the postage. Thus a telegram of 25 words intended to be posted from London to Calcutta, viâ Brindisi, should be prepaid: 1s. 8d., viz., 1s. 3d. for its transmission by wire, and 5d. for postage.

14. A deposit of 5s. is required upon all telegrams addressed to persons on board ship (unless the ship be lying alongside a wharf, jetty, or pier) to cover any expense incurred in their delivery; any surplus is refunded.

15. An embossed stamp which has been removed from a spoiled and unused "A 1" form will be accepted in payment of a telegram; but mutilated or defaced stamps will not.

16. The sender should avoid all words not strictly necessary in his address. He is not obliged to have his address telegraphed, but he should furnish it to enable the Department to communicate with him if necessary. When the address is not to be telegraphed, it should be written at the foot or on the back of the form.

17. Telegrams can be repeated at the request of the sender, if he desires to adopt this security against risk of error, by being signalled back from each office at which they are received to the office from which they are forwarded. No copy of the telegram is, in such case, given to the sender. The charge for repetition is one-half the ordinary tariff; fractions of threepence being reckoned as twopence.

18. Telegrams containing mercantile quotations, and telegrams written in cipher, or according to a preconcerted code, should always be repeated.

19. If the receiver of a telegram doubts its accuracy, he may have it repeated by depositing half the amount paid for its transmission to him. The money will, however, be refunded to him if it should turn out that the telegram had been inaccurately transmitted.

20. The cost of a reply, not exceeding forty words in length, may be prepaid; and a Reply Form will then be delivered to the addressee, who will be at liberty to send his reply from any Telegraph Office, at any time within two months after the date of the original telegram. If the form be not used, application for the return of the money, accompanied by the form, may be made, by the holder, to the Secretary, General Post Office, London, and the value of it will be refunded. A Reply Form, however, need not necessarily be used for the reply to a message, but may be used for the purpose of prepaying a message containing the same number of words as that named on it.

21. Telegrams re-transmitted to a second address by wire or pneumatic tube are liable to additional charge. No charge is made for the second service, if the re-direction does not involve any use of the wires or tubes. In addition to the amount chargeable on each re-transmitted telegram, a fee of £1 1s. per annum is charged for the registration of special instructions as to the re-direction of telegrams after office hours. Removals are registered, when this is specially requested, for a period of one month; and no charge is made for the registration.

22. Copies of a telegram directed to more than one person or firm in the same free delivery will be delivered separately at an additional charge of threepence per copy. The London Postal Districts will not be regarded, for this purpose, as together forming one free delivery; each Postal District being treated separately.

23. Persons who wish to avoid sending to a Telegraph Office may, without additional charge, post a telegram form enclosed in an envelope addressed "Telegram Immediate," in a wall or pillar box, or in the letter-box of a Receiving Office or Sub-Post Office. Telegrams so posted are sent on by the next collection to the nearest Telegraph Office, are thence transmitted by wire and are delivered free of extra charge, provided the proper amounts for the number of words contained in them, and for porterage when they have to be delivered beyond the limits of the free delivery, have been prepaid. The period of arrival at the Telegraph Office is regarded as the time of receipt from the public. Telegrams may also be posted not enclosed in envelopes, and when so posted they will be treated in the same manner as those enclosed in envelopes.

24. Telegrams posted, insufficiently prepaid, are forwarded to their destination, and the difference of charge is obtained from the addressee; but unpaid telegrams are not forwarded.

25. Most of the Telegraph Offices in the United Kingdom are closed between 8 p.m. and 8 a.m.; and as time is required for transmission between office and office, a telegram if it be deposited in a box at such a time that it cannot reach a Telegraph Office before 7 p.m., may not reach its destination until after 8 a.m. on the following day.

26. Postmasters may accept telegrams after the usual hours on payment of certain fees, provided that the terminal office is open, or that the attention of that office can be gained. These fees are as follows:—

(a.) If the office is not open for either postal or telegraph business, 1s. for the postmaster, 1s. for the clerk, 1s. for a messenger, if one be required to call the clerk.

(b.) If the office is open for postal business but not for telegraph business, 1s. for the clerk, 6d. for the messenger, if one be required to call the clerk.

(c.) If the office is open for the receipt of press news (but not for other telegraph business, or ordinary postal business), 6d. for the postmaster, 6d. for the clerk.

27. Separate fees are payable for each telegram.

28. If a postmaster or clerk be called up to send a telegram, and it subsequently appears that the telegram cannot be dispatched, the person desiring to send it must nevertheless pay the same fees as he would have done if the telegram had been dispatched.

29. When telegrams are handed in at an office which is open for an office which is not open, the following fees for the clerk and messenger at the latter office, if the telegram be delivered, are to be paid by the sender:—

(a.) If the office is not open for either postal or telegraph business, 1s. for the clerk, 1s. for the messenger, 6d. an hour for the clerk if he has to wait for a reply.

(b.) If the office is open for ordinary postal business but not for telegraph business, 1s. for the clerk, no fee for the messenger.

30. Telegrams may be handed to Rural Letter Carriers on their way to Telegraph Offices.

31. Telegrams written in plain language in any European tongue are charged for according to the number of words they contain; but all unintelligible words not forming part of any European language are charged for at the rate of five letters to a word.

32. No combination of two or more words is counted as one word, with the exception of those words which are ordinarily written as one, or coupled by hyphens, such as "mother-in-law," "non-delivery," "sub-lieutenant," "alms-houses," "O'Niel" "MacDonald," "Newcastle-on-Tyne," &c.

33. The following exceptional compound words are charged for as one word:—

Midday	To-day	Halfpenny
Midnight	To-night	Twopence
Noonday	To-morrow	Threepence
Se'nnight	Yesternight	&c.
Cannot	Yesterday

So, too, are names with the prefix "St." such as St. Albans, St. Asaph, &c.

34. Abbreviations of auxiliary verbs designated by apostrophes (such as can't, won't, don't, I'll, you'll, couldn't, shouldn't &c.) are counted as one word. By writing words in this way, however, there is a greater risk of error.

35. Numbers expressed in figures are counted as so many words, according to the number of figures employed. For example, "7" counts as one word, "12" as two words, "385" as three words; and so on. Fractions are counted according to the number of figures employed to express the quantity, one word being added for the bar or mark of division between the numerator and denominator—thus, "½" counts as three words, "⅝" as three words, "109¾" as six words. In groups of figures intended to express time, any bar or stop is counted as one word: thus 12-35 counts as five words. Ordinal numbers are charged in the same way as cardinal numbers, with the addition of one word for the affix st, nd, rd, or th, as the case may be.

36. Where a group of figures is followed by a letter, the letter is counted as a word, thus 104a counts as four words.

37. The initial letters denoting the several London Postal Districts are each counted as one word; for instance, "S W" is counted as two words.

38. All names are counted as compound words if composed of more than one word. For example, "City of Brooklyn" is counted as three words, "New Orleans," two words, "Park Lane," two words.

39. When the sender desires words to be underlined, or placed in a parenthesis, or within inverted commas, two extra words are charged for.

40. When the sender desires that special instructions, such as "private," "confidential," "to be opened at once," or the like, shall be written on the envelope of the message, he must write those instructions immediately after the address of the receiver. The instructions are charged for as part of the message.

41. The sender, upon being informed that his message cannot be delivered in consequence of the addressee being unknown at the address furnished, must, should he furnish a correct address, or require the telegram to be presented a second time, pay the cost of a fresh telegram. In the latter case, should it afterwards turn out that the failure in the first instance was the fault of the Department, the extra charge will be refunded.

42. The sender may have his telegram cancelled, and if the application be made before the commencement of transmission the sum paid will be returned, on application to the secretary, at any time within three calendar months; but if transmission has commenced, no part of the sum paid will be returned. If transmission has been completed, an official telegram, prepaid by the sender as an ordinary telegram, will be sent to the Postmaster at the Terminal Office. In this case no part of the sums paid will be returned, but if the official telegram should arrive too late to accomplish its object, the sender will be informed that the attempt to cancel his telegram has failed.

43. If the addressee of a telegram is known to the messenger, it may be delivered wherever on the road the messenger may meet him, but only on payment of such sum (if any) as would have been payable if the telegram had been delivered at its address.

44. When, in consequence of an interruption of communication a telegram cannot be transmitted to the Terminal Office, notice of the interruption is given to the sender, together, if practicable, with a statement of the cost of delivery by special means, and on payment of such cost the telegram will be delivered. If, however, the sender prefer to cancel the telegram, the amount paid by him will be returned on application to the secretary, at any time within three calendar months.

45. If the sender cannot be found, or, if found, declines either to cancel the telegram or to pay for its delivery by special means, the telegram will be delivered without extra charge by post.

46. Any person may register an abbreviated or arbitrary address on payment of a yearly registration fee of £1 1s., but the address must consist of not less than two words, one of which is to be the town or place of delivery.

47. When telegrams are addressed to a Telegraph Office to be called for, they are kept for two clear days; and, if no application be made for them within that time, are sent to the Chief Office, London.

48. Telegrams for the re-direction of letters are accepted at the ordinary rate of charge; but the sender must append his signature to the telegram, otherwise it cannot be acted upon.

49. Telegrams which are indecently or obscenely worded, or which appear to contain matter of a libellous or grossly offensive character, will not be transmitted.

50. The Department is not liable for losses incurred through the incorrect transmission, delay, or non-delivery of telegrams.

51. Telegraph offices (with the exception of receiving offices in London and other large towns) are, as a rule, open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. on week days. On Sundays the hours of attendance are usually from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. in England, and from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. in Scotland and Ireland. The following offices are open longer:—

The Weather, and Forecasts of the Weather.

The latest information as to the weather in any district of the United Kingdom, and forecasts of the weather one day in advance in any district not bordering on the Atlantic, can be obtained by telegraph from the Meteorological Office on payment of a fee of 1s. in addition to the cost of a telegram and reply.

An application for such information addressed to the Meteorological Office, London, may be handed in at any Telegraph Office. It must be written on an ordinary inland message form, and must bear the full address of the applicant.

The Meteorological Office is open between the hours of 11 a.m. and 8 p.m. on week days, and between 6 p.m. and 8 p.m. on Sundays.

FOREIGN TELEGRAMS.

(Regulations founded upon the International Telegraph Convention.)

1. Foreign telegrams are divided into three classes,—ordinary, code, and cypher. Ordinary telegrams are those composed of a series of words, or of words, figures, and letters conveying an intelligible meaning.

2. Code telegrams are those composed of words, the context of which has no intelligible meaning. Proper names are not allowed in the text of code telegrams, except in their natural sense. In European code telegrams any of the languages in use in Europe, or Latin, may be employed; but no telegram may contain words of more than one language. In extra-European code telegrams, only English, French, German, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Dutch, and Latin, may be employed; but words of any or all of these languages will be allowed in one and the same telegram.

3. Cypher telegrams are those containing series or groups of figures or letters having a secret meaning; or words not to be found in a standard dictionary of the language. The portion in cypher must be composed exclusively of figures or exclusively of letters. Cypher telegrams written in letters are not accepted for Extra-European places.

4. The address of the receiver must be paid for, and must not consist of less than two words, a name and a town. Example: Hercules, Bombay.

5. The address of the sender is charged for if transmitted; it must in any case be written at the foot of the form.

6. In European telegrams the maximum length allowed for a single word is 15 letters in Extra-European telegrams 10 letters; any additional letters being counted and charged for as extra words at the rate of 15 or 10 letters respectively to the word.

7. Subject to the limit imposed by rule 6, ordinary compound words and names of persons and places, &c., written without break or interruption, are counted as single words. If joined by a hyphen, or separated by an apostrophe, or other sign of punctuation, they are counted as so many separate words. Words incorrectly spelled, so as to reduce the number of letters below the maximum, or words incorrectly joined together, contrary to the usage of the language, cannot be accepted as single words.

8. Every separate letter or figure is charged for as one word, and in European telegrams every group of five figures or letters is counted as one word, larger groups being counted at the rate of five figures or letters to a word, plus one word for any excess. In Extra-European telegrams groups of figures (or letters when used as trade marks) are counted at the rate of three to a word, plus one word for any excess. Cypher composed of letters is inadmissible in telegrams for places not in Europe or North America. Bars of division, decimal points, and stops used in the formation of numbers are counted as figures. Letters added to figures to form ordinal numbers are counted as figures.

9. In telegrams addressed to residents in large towns the name of the street and number of the house should be given; and the addresses should be expressed in French or in the language of the country to which they are to be sent. When these particulars cannot be given, the profession, trade, or calling of the addressee should, if possible, be stated. Telegrams which do not contain this information are forwarded only at the risk of the sender. In telegrams addressed to places of which there are more than one of the same name, the name of the country or state in which the place is situated should be added to the address.

10. The sender is held responsible for an incorrect or insufficient address; corrections, alterations, or additions to the address can only be made by means of a fresh telegram, which must be paid for at the ordinary rate.

11. Persons residing in the United Kingdom may have an abbreviated or fixed address, or special instructions respecting the hours of delivery of telegrams which they may expect to receive, registered at the chief office of the town in which they reside, upon payment at that office of a registration fee of one guinea per annum.

12. If the sender of a telegram desires to prepay a reply of 10 words he must insert before the address of the receiver either the words "Réponse payee" (reply paid), which are charged for as two words, or "R P," which is charged for as one word; but if he desires the reply to consist of more or less than 10 words, he must insert the words "R. P ——," which are charged for as three words. More than 30 words cannot be prepaid. In telegrams for Extra-European Countries the sender must always insert the words "reply —— paid" or "R P ——." The amount prepaid for a reply will in no case be handed to the addressee; but if he do not use the reply form which will be handed to him, the amount will be returned to the sender, provided that the addressee returns the form to the Post Office within six weeks, accompanied by a request that the money may be refunded to the sender. No allowance will be made in case the charge for the reply should be less than the amount prepaid.

13. The sender can have his telegram repeated from office to office to the terminal office by paying over and above the charge for the original transmission half that charge in addition. In that case "T C," which is charged for as one word, must be inserted before the receiver's address.

14. Repetition is desirable for all code telegrams.

15. On payment of a charge equal to one half the inland rate, the sender can have the telegram repeated between the office of origin and the office in Great Britain at which it is handed over to the Cable Company.

16. The sender may have a notice of the time at which his telegram was delivered transmitted to him by telegraph by payment of an additional rate for 10 words. In that case "C R," which is charged for as one word, must be inserted before the receiver's address. In North American telegrams the notice is charged for as a five word message.

17. The receiver of a telegram can, within 24 hours after its delivery, request the Department to obtain the correction of passages which appear to him to be doubtful. For this purpose he must pay for two separate telegrams, viz:—

A.—A telegram requesting the repetition, and containing the instruction "R P" or "R P ——."

B.—A telegram of the length of the passage to be repeated, plus two words for the address of the reply.

The amount thus paid is refunded, on application being made to the Secretary, General Post Office, if it should prove that the telegram has been inaccurately transmitted.

18. The receiver of a telegram addressed to a place in the United Kingdom may have it repeated from the office at which it was handed over by the Cable Company to the Department on depositing the ordinary inland rate for the part of the telegram of which he requires the repetition; and if it be found that an error has taken place on the lines of this Department, the amount deposited for the repetition will be refunded.

19. When the sender is not quite certain of the exact place at which the receiver of the telegram will be found, he may insert immediately before the address the words "faire suivre" (to follow), which will be charged for as two words, or "F S," which will be charged for as one word. Telegrams "to follow" are not accepted for Extra-European countries.

20. In telegrams intended to be left until called for at telegraph offices or at post offices, the words "Bureau restant" or "Poste restante" must be inserted as part of the receiver's address. A telegram addressed to several persons in the same town, or to the same firm at different localities in the same town, is charged for as a single telegram, and a sum of 5d. must be prepaid for every extra copy to be delivered if the number of chargeable words does not exceed 100; an additional sum of 5d. being charged for every additional 100 words or part of 100 words. In calculating the charge all the names and addresses are included. Telegrams having multiple addresses are not accepted for North or South America.

21. Under no circumstances is the charge for an unrepeated (uncollated) telegram, which has been inaccurately transmitted, refunded. The cost of a telegram which has been inaccurately transmitted, and of which the repetition to the terminal office has been paid by the sender, is returned when it is shown that the telegram was rendered useless by the inaccuracy. The cost of telegrams which have failed to reach their destination, owing to some error on the part of the telegraph service; and the cost of telegrams which have been delayed beyond two days in the case of European, and beyond six days in the case of Extra-European telegrams, from other causes than an interruption of the telegraphic communication, is returned to the senders. The cost of any telegrams which may have been rendered necessary in consequence of the non-delivery, delay, or incorrect transmission of a telegram is in no case returned. The amount paid for a telegram which has been cancelled before transmission has commenced is returned, less the sum of 6d. If the telegram is cancelled after transmission has commenced, but before it has reached the place to which it is addressed, any balance of charges which may be due to the sender will be returned.

22. Claims for reimbursement of the charges paid for telegrams should be accompanied—

1. In the case of non-delivery, by a written statement from the terminal office, or the addressee, that the telegram has not been received.

2. In the case of error in a collated telegram, or of delay by the actual message form delivered to the addressee.

3. In the case of error in a telegram of which the receiver has paid the repetition from the office of origin, by the original message form delivered to the addressee, together with the form upon which the repeated telegram is written.

23. No claim for reimbursement for European telegrams will be entertained unless it is made within two months of the date of the original telegram; nor in the case of Extra-European telegrams, unless it is made within six months from the date of the original telegram. Foreign administrations decline to make any inquiry into complaints which do not involve a return of the cost of the telegram within the limits of rule 21.

24. Telegrams can be sent from one place to another abroad by post. If the telegram be intended for delivery in the same country, no charge for postage is made, unless it is to be posted from one part to another of China or Japan, for which the charge is 1s. 6d., except in the case of telegrams posted at Tientsin for Pekin, the charge for the postage of which is 10d. If it be intended for delivery in another country, the following are the charges:—

	s.	d.
On telegrams to be handed to the Submarine Telegraph Co.,† Eastern,† Direct Spanish, Great Northern, or Indo-European Companies	1	6
On telegrams to be handed to the Anglo-American, Direct U.S. Cable, Paris and New York and Western Union Companies	1	0

* Except on telegrams posted from France, Italy, Portugal, Spain, or Gibraltar, for which the charge is 10d.

† On telegrams posted from Gibraltar for Morocco or Tangiers, or from Gwadur to Muscat, no charge for postage is made.

PRIVATE WIRES.

The Department undertakes to construct and afterwards maintain, upon the payment of an annual rental, at the rates specified in Tables A. and B., a line of private wire between the place of business or residence of a firm or private individual and a Postal Telegraph Office, or between two or more places of business or residence.

The advantage of having a private wire led into a Postal Telegraph Office is that the renter is placed in direct communication with the public wires to all parts of the kingdom or abroad, messages being received from and sent to the Postal Telegraph Office by wire instead of by hand. The renter has also the privilege of sending messages over his private wire to be forwarded from the Post Office as ordinary letters. See c. under heading D.—Regulations and Conditions.

In any town where a sufficient number of wires are led into the Head Postal Telegraph Office, the Department is prepared to provide a means whereby any two wires may be joined together at will, in order that messages may be transmitted by one renter to another direct without the necessity for repetition at the Postal Telegraph Office. This system is commonly called a Telephone exchange.

The Department also undertakes to supply Greenwich mean time by electric current every hour in the day in London, and at either 10 or 1 o'clock to places in the country at the rates set forth in Table E.

All applications or communications in regard to private wires or time signals should be addressed to "The Secretary, General Post Office, London, EC."

LIST OF

BANKERS IN ENGLAND, IRELAND & SCOTLAND,

With the amount of notes they are entitled to issue under the Acts, 4 & 5 Victoria, cap. 50 (21st June, 1841), and 7 & 8 Victoria, cap. 32 (19th July, 1844), intituled respectively "An Act to make further Provision relative to the Returns to be made by Banks of the Amount of their Notes in Circulation," and "An Act to regulate the Issue of Bank Notes and for giving to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England certain privileges for a limited period."

WHERE NO AMOUNT IS PLACED AGAINST ANY BANK IT DOES NOT ISSUE ITS OWN NOTES.

In England "Such Banker shall not at any time after the Tenth day of October, One thousand eight hundred and forty-four, have in circulation upon the average of a period of four weeks a greater amount of Notes than the amount so certified" (in Ireland and Scotland the amount so certified "and of the amount of Gold and Silver Coin held by such Banker at the head office;" "no amount of Silver Coin exceeding one-fourth part of the Gold Coin being taken into account"), "under forfeiture of a sum equal to the amount by which the average monthly circulation shall have exceeded the amount which such Banker was authorized to issue."

Some of the Channel Islands Banks issue £1 local notes without restriction.

The Isle of Man Bank issues notes under a licence obtained from the Manx authorities.

The Bank of England is empowered to issue Bank Notes to the amount of Fourteen Millions (depositing securities to that amount), and to the amount of Gold and Silver Coin and Bullion deposited, the proportion of Silver not exceeding one-fourth of the Gold.

Bank of England Notes are not a legal tender in Ireland or Scotland.

 In the Official Returns the names are arranged under the title of the Bank; in order to facilitate reference, the ordinary style of the firm has been inserted in the following list, with a reference to the entry which appeared in the Gazette; thus the firm generally known as Gurneys & Co. does not appear in the Official List under G. but under F., L., N., W., & Y.

HARTLEPOOL.

HARTLEPOOL, a seaport, on the north-east coast of England, county Durham, 250¾ miles from London by railway, is a municipal and parliamentary borough, market and union town, head of a county court district, parish, and railway station, 12 miles north-north-east from Stockton and 21 east-south-east from Durham: it is in the southern division of the county, north-eastern division of Stockton ward, rural deanery of Stockton, and archdeaconry and diocese of Durham.

The town is situated on the Hartlepool section of the North Eastern railway. The Hartlepools were constituted a parliamentary borough, returning one member, by the "Representation of the People Act, 1867," and comprise the municipal borough, and the townships of Throston, Stranton (including West Hartlepool) and Seaton Carew, and were not altered by the Redistribution of Seats Act.

The town was first incorporated by Royal Charter in the reigns of John and Elizabeth; the present incorporation is under a charter of 5th and 6th William IV. cap. 76, and was placed under the regulations of the Municipal Act by charter, dated the 5th of December, 1850. The corporation consists of a mayor, four aldermen and twelve councillors; the town council are also the Local Board of Health (Act 1848); it has a commission of the peace; there are six borough magistrates, together with the mayor and ex-mayor, who are ex-officio: the magistrates' sittings are held at the Borough buildings every morning (except Sundays) at 9.30 a.m. for ordinary business; they also hold petty sessional courts every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday at 10 o'clock.

The town is paved and lighted with gas, and well supplied with water of excellent quality from the works of the Hartlepool Gas and Water Company. The police arrangements are under the control of the Watch Committee of the corporation.

The town of Hartlepool, which has become one of maritime celebrity, is of great antiquity, its records going far back into the old Saxon times. The earliest mention of the place occurs A.D. 640, when, as Bede relates, Aidan, Bishop of Lindisfarne, sanctioned the foundation of a nunnery at Heortha, or the 'Isle of Harts,' by a religious Irishwoman, named Hien, or St. Bega, who is stated to have been the first lady among the northern tribes who assumed the monastic veil. On St. Bega leaving Hartlepool, a few years subsequently, she was succeeded by St. Hilda, a daughter of Oswy, king of Northumberland, who afterwards removed with her nuns to the vale of Whitby.

After undergoing the usual fate of towns and monasteries on the east coast of England; after being twice plundered by the Danes, and as many times by the Scots, Hartlepool still continued to be what Camden terms it, a famous emporium (emporium celebre), and received and obeyed many a royal summons to furnish ships and men for continental wars. In the reign of King John the town obtained a charter, by which the inhabitants were made free burgesses, and entitled to enjoy the same liberties and laws as the free burgesses of Newcastle-upon-Tyne: this charter Queen Elizabeth confirmed, at the suit and request of Lord Lumley, in 1593.

In 1614 Hartlepool was described as being the only port town in the county of Durham; and at the commencement of the great civil war it was still the principal harbour and shipping place of the bishopric; but, being like Newcastle, Tynemouth and Stockton, a royal garrison, it was besieged and taken by General Leven and the Scots army, and having been held by them for some time as a garrison and magazine, it was delivered up to Parliament, who ordered its fortifications to be destroyed: from that time its trade declined till it became little more than a fishing village; still, however, retaining its charter, with a shadow of a municipal corporation.

In 1681, the chief offices of the customs were removed to Stockton, leaving the town with nothing but a coast office for the clearance of ships.

An Act of Parliament was obtained in the year 1818 (53 Geo. 3), appointing Improvement Commissioners (the Pier and Port Commission) for the repair of the old pier, town and walls, with power to exact tolls from every vessel using the port, and a fortieth part of the rental of every house in the township of the annual value of £5 or upwards. In 1831 another step in advance was taken. Coal, of first-rate quality, having been discovered north-west of Hartlepool, under the magnesian limestone, a railway and docks were projected to connect this coal field with the sea. The Hartlepool Dock and Railway Company was accordingly formed, and in the following year an Act of Parliament was obtained, authorizing the construction of a dock, to include, with the inner harbour, 60 acres, the estimated expense being £209,000: on the same day another Pier and Port Act was passed, sanctioning additional harbour works, abolishing some of the former tolls, and substituting additional ones.

The Hartlepool railway was opened for traffic July 6th, 1835, the 'Hartlepool' packet being the first vessel loaded with coals in the harbour; and the New, or Victoria Dock was opened 7th of November, 1840, and this previously obscure and languishing fishing village became transformed into a thriving and important place of trade. In June, 1837, a new Pier and Port Act was obtained, authorizing the Commissioners to borrow further sums of money, and defining the boundaries of the Harbour Commissioners' and the Dock Company's jurisdiction.

The number of vessels belonging to Hartlepool, Dec. 31st, 1884: sailing vessels, 13—3,283 tons; steam vessels, 35—29,011 tons. Total, vessels, 48 - 32,294 tons.

The number of ships entering the port to load and for refuge in 1836 was 1,278, whilst in 1877 the number was 3,526, and the quantities of coal shipped during the first-mentioned year was 166,396 tons, and 561,050 tons during the last-mentioned period.

The railway terminus here was made by the Hartlepool Dock and Railway Company, and is now owned by the North-Eastern Railway Company.

The Victoria Dock, within the harbour, is the property of the North-Eastern Railway Co., and is chiefly used for the shipment of coal and the importation of timber, &c. It has a water area of 20 acres.

Depth of water: At entrance to Victoria Dock, springs, 21 feet; neaps, 17 feet; and at entrance to New Dock, springs, 25 feet; neaps, 21 feet.

The port and harbour of Hartlepool is under the jurisdiction of thirteen commissioners, namely, five appointed by the North-Eastern Railway Company as proprietors of the East and West Docks; one appointed by the Board of Trade; one elected by the West Hartlepool Improvement Commissioners; one elected by the Corporation of Hartlepool; three elected by the shipowners of the port of Hartlepool; and two elected by the exporters and importers of the port. The commissioners have jurisdiction over the bay and part of the old harbour. About sixteen years ago they built 720 feet of a breakwater, designed by Messrs. Walker and Robinson, for the protection of the entrances to the East and West harbours. This breakwater starts from the east corner of the Headland, and extends in a south-easterly direction: in 1870, after obtaining the necessary parliamentary power, the commissioners entered into a contract with Messrs. H. Lee & Sons, of London, for a further extension of 600 feet, and this work, since June, 1873, has been carried on by the commissioners themselves, under the superintendence of Mr. Howkins, of Granton, as consulting, and Mr. William Belk as resident engineer: the whole of the extension is to be built of concrete blocks, while the face is also of concrete of a superior kind: the first section was cased with sandstone ashlar. In the beginning of 1870 the commissioners having purchased a powerful dredger of improved construction, together with extensive dredging plant, set to work to deepen the approach to the old harbour, which is less exposed to the violence of easterly seas than the entrance to the West harbour, and the result of their labours was soon made manifest: the depth of the water over the bar, which was only 4¼ feet at low water of spring tides at the end of 1869, was increased to 12½ feet at the end of 1877: the difficulty of maintaining a considerable depth of water will, in all probability, be diminished by the extension of the breakwater seawards. Besides the sea-works above mentioned, the commissioners have in their jurisdiction the large lighthouse called the Heugh lighthouse, which was erected in 1846-7, from designs furnished by Stephen Robinson esq: the foundation stone of the tower was laid on the 12th August, 1846, and the light first exhibited on the 1st October, 1847: the tower is an elegant shaft of white sandstone, tapering from a base of 24 feet diameter to a diameter of 16 feet under the projecting balcony: the height of the tower from the ground to the top of the gallery is 48 feet, and 10 feet more to the centre of the light, which is 84 feet above high water mark: the lantern is 14½ feet diameter, and 10 feet high in the glazed part: the cost of tower, lantern and lighting apparatus, including a tide light on the same principle, at an elevation of 61½ feet above high water, was £3,200; for the security of the lighthouse it was found necessary to defend the face of the cliff on which it stands with masonry set in cement, which cost £2,100; lightkeepers' cottages and other erections, £450—making the total expenditure £5,750. The higher and larger light is a stationary white light of the first order, the lower, or tidal one, being a stationary red light of the fifth order: the large light is exhibited during the whole night, from sunset to sunrise, but the red light is only shown at night between half-flood and half-ebb tide, as a signal when ships may enter the harbour; and a large red ball is hoisted to the head of a mast attached to the lantern as a day signal for the same purpose: both lights are produced from coal gas, and so directed by optical apparatus as to send forth the light in a plane nearly parallel to the horizon. The commissioners have also the working of a ferry for the conveyance of passengers from Hartlepool to Middleton and West Hartlepool.

The parish church of St. Hilda is an ancient structure, occupying an elevated situation, and forms a conspicuous object on the coast; it is supposed to occupy the site of a more ancient edifice; it consists of a chancel, nave, with chancel aisles, and massive square tower; the latter is supported by buttresses of great strength and thickness, and ornamented by two tiers of Pointed arches, and surmounted by an embattled parapet, with crocketed pinnacles at each corner, and contains 3 bells: the doorway on the south side, protected by a handsome memorial porch, is a fine specimen of the late Norman period: the principal entrance, through the tower, long closed up, has been opened out: the interior of the church is well proportioned, the nave being 85 feet in length by 44 in breadth; each of the aisles is formed by five pillars, supporting Pointed arches, above which rises a lofty clerestory, containing on each side five Early English windows set in exterior arcades: the nave and chancel are separated by a lofty arch of fine proportions: in 1867 the nave was restored, the floor lowered, so as to show the bases of the piers, a new roof was put on, and the whole re-seated: in 1869 the chancel was also restored and enlarged to something approaching its original dimensions; it is now 45 feet in length, with aisles corresponding with those in the nave, and has a richly and deeply arcaded clerestory, lighted by three windows on each side: the entire length of the church is 130 feet, and in the nave and chancel are several stained windows: in March, 1872, a fine organ was placed in the north-west arcade of the chancel aisle: the font, which was presented to the church in the beginning of last century, is an elegant basin of Yorkshire marble: there were formerly several chantries belonging to this church. The register of the parish dates from the year 1560. The living is a rectory, yearly value £350, in the gift of the vicar of Hart, and held since 1874 by the Rev. Edwin Robert Ormsby M.A. T.C.D. surrogate, and domestic chaplain to the Earl of Castlestuart.

Holy Trinity church is a handsome stone structure in the Decorated style, and consists of chancel, nave, aisles, with north and south porches, having deeply moulded doorways and seats: the vestry and organ chamber are on the north side, and at the west end is a small turret containing 2 bells: the pulpit is of Caen stone, carved: the foundation stone was laid by J. P. Denton, esq. on the 22nd August, 1850: the site was given by the trustees of the late Duke of Cleveland: the edifice, with its fittings, cost £2,635. The vicarage house, a pleasant and commodious brick building, is adjoining: the register dates from the year 1851: the living is a vicarage, yearly value £300, in the gift of the vicar of Hart, and held since 1865 by the Rev. Edwin Shaw M.A. of St. Bees.

St. Mary's Catholic church was erected in Brougham street in 1850, and opened for service in August, 1851: the cost of erection, including priest's residence and site, amounted to nearly £4,000, the greater part being raised by subscription: the exterior is plain, in the Transition Norman or First Pointed style, and stands east and west, the tower with spire being at the east end, and the altar is placed at the west: the church is entered at the east end and south side, the former being richly carved, and the building consists of apsidal chancel, nave, with clerestory, aisles and tower containing 8 bells: the entire length is 121 feet, with a breadth of 43 feet, and is lighted by 36 windows, exclusive of those in the staircase: the altar is of stone, standing upon five pillars, richly carved and ornamented: the roof of the chancel is in the Byzantine style; the pulpit is of stone; it has a good-toned organ: G. Van-Hooff, priest; G. Brown, assistant priest.

St. Bega's Schools, situate in Hart street, and in connection with St. Mary's Catholic church, were opened February 25th, 1884: the premises were purchased from the Presbyterian community, who used the same as their place of worship: it consists of mixed and infants' departments, and is capable of accommodating 413 scholars; the present July 1885 average attendance, 373.

The Baptist chapel, situated in Baptist street, is a stone building erected in 1851, at a cost of about £700, and is capable of seating 550 persons.

The Wesleyan chapel, situated in Northgate street, was erected in 1839, and enlarged in 1868, at a cost of £1,100, and will now seat 800 persons: an organ and warming apparatus have been added, and a building for day schools erected at the rear of the chapel.

The Primitive Methodist chapel, situate in Brougham street, is a commanding edifice of stone, erected in 1851, the total cost, including residence for the superintendent minister of the circuit and Sunday schools and other additions, has been £2,700: there are sittings for 900 persons.

The United Presbyterian church, situate in Brougham street, is a fine red brick building with stone dressings of the Early English style of architecture: the foundation stone was laid on April 15th, 1882, by William Gray esq. J.P.: the building was opened for public worship on November 25th, 1883: it cost with the site nearly £7,000, and was defrayed by public subscription, and will seat 700 persons: in the basement there is a large and commodious school and class rooms, and has accommodation for 600 scholars; occasionally the large school-room is used as a lecture hall.

The Methodist New Connexion Chapel, St. Mark's, situated in Church close, is a brick building in the Italian style, erected in 1859: the ground floor of the chapel is 6½ feet above the level of the street, and is approached by moulded stone steps: the building is 72 feet long, with a breadth of 43 feet, and is capable of seating 800 persons: below the chapel is a well lighted and lofty school-room with class rooms: th entire cost of the building, including the site and organ, was near £3,000.

The United Methodist Free Church, in Frederick street, has sittings for 400; the ministers are various, the same being in connection with the West Hartlepool Circuit. The original church, in Lumley street, was erected in 1852, and is now used as a day school, which is an addition to the Prisseck School, and has accommodation for 250 boys.

The Congregational chapel, situated in Brougham street, was erected in 1842, at a cost of £1,200, exclusive of site: there are over 400 sittings; the chapel-keeper's residence is underneath the chapel. Here is a library, in connection with the Sunday school, which is situate under the chapel, containing 400 volumes, and the school is attended by about 300 scholars.

There are Sunday schools in connection with each place of worship.

The Borough Hall Market Buildings were opened in October, 1866: the principal front in Middlegate street is in the modern Italian style: it has a façade 120 feet in length, 34 feet in height, with a central turret and spire of 100 feet high: the red brick facings and dressings of Durham stone, with the carved stonework, add a richness of finish to the whole; the turret surmounts a lofty arched entrance to the market, which is in the rear of these buildings, and with second entrance and market keeper's lodge, extends backwark to Union street. The block of buildings comprising the Borough hall is divided by the south avenue to the market, 18 feet wide: the eastern wing contains, on the ground floor, the offices of the Clerk to the Justices, Town Clerk's offices, Borough Surveyor's offices, offices for the superintendent registrar and relieving officer, and waiting room for applicants for relief, and offices for the Clerk to the Urban Sanitary Authority, and on the floor immediately above, reached by a central staircase, in oak, a council chamber, a lofty and well-proportioned board room, the Town Surveyor's office, and office for the overseers for the parish of Hartlepool. The county court offices are in this block, the entrance being in the south avenue to the market. The western wing contains, on the first floor, a room 56 feet long by 27 feet wide, which is used as the county and justice room: here are also magistrates' ante-room, magistrates' clerk's room, witnesses' and solicitors' retiring room; whilst below, in the front, is the residence for the chief constable, and at the back the police office and 6 prisoners' cells and airing grounds: the borough police force consists of a chief constable, 4 sergeants, and 16 constables: the space of ground occupied by these buildings and the market is 21,100 square feet.

Here is a charity called Henry Smith's Charity, which has existed for many years: it was much improved by a scheme passed by the Court of Chancery in the year 1855: the trustees consist of the rector of the parish of Hartlepool, the vicar of Holy Trinity, the mayor and aldermen of the borough of Hartlepool, and the churchwardens and overseers of the parish as ex-officio trustees, and nine other trustees elected from the town: the income is about £400 yearly, of which £100 is distributed annually amongst the poor of Hartlepool and in apprenticing poor children, £100 a year is given towards the support of the hospital, and the buildings called the Friarage are also allowed to be used for the purposes of the hospital, and £100 is given annually for educational purposes in the district of the Holy Trinity: a sum of 10 per cent. of the net income of the charity is also annually set aside for the purpose of protecting the headland of Hartlepool: if the income of the charity should increase, there are still further powers of promoting educational purposes. The extensive building called the Friarage, so called from the circumstance of its having been built on the site of a monastery belonging to the Franciscan friars, which was formerly used as a workhouse for the Hartlepool district of the Stockton union, was, in 1867, with the consent of the trustees of Smith's charity, allowed to be converted into an hospital, and is called the Hartlepool Hospital: there are beds for 35 in-patients, a new wing was erected in 1871 by Rowland Burdon, esq. for accidents and surgical cases: during the year 1877, 257 in-patients and over 400 out-patients were treated. The total number of patients treated during the year 1884 was 1,266 as compared with 1,009 in 1883, and 963 in 1882. Of this number, 258 were in-patients, and 1,008 were out-patients. The hospital is supported by voluntary contributions, and a levy on all vessels (according to tonnage) using the ports of the Hartlepools, and is governed by 33 managers. On January 1st, 1884, there were 18 patients resident, and on January 1st, 1885, there were 9 patients in the hospital. In 1884, there were 240 patients admitted, as compared with 264 in 1883. Of the 258 in-patients treated during the year, 216 were cured or relieved—16 were incurable, 17 died, and 9 remained in the hospital on December 31st. The total number of patients showed an increase of 257 over the previous year. The subscriptions and donations in 1884 amounted to £471 0s. 6d. being £212 3s. 9d. less than in 1883. The receipts in 1884 were £317 5s. 5d. less, and the expenditure £71 5s. 1d. less than in 1883.

The chief trade of the town arises from the shipping resorting to it for coal; iron ship building is carried on; there are also extensive boiler, engineering, brass and iron castings, and malleable iron works; steam sawing, planing, moulding, and corn mills; rope manufactory; glass bottle and cement works and breweries.

There are two newspaper branch offices here; the "Northern Daily Mail" and the "South Durham Herald and Stockton Journal" are published at West Hartlepool; the former daily and the latter weekly, and have branch offices in High street: The "South Durham and Cleveland Mercury" and the "Northern Echo" are published in Darlington, and have branch offices in Victoria street.

Here are two branch banks—those of Messrs. Backhouse and Co. and the National Provincial Bank of England.

The market day is on Saturday.

The Temperance Hall, situated in Lumley street, was erected in 1862, at a cost of £2,200: it comprises a hall, 68 feet by 44 feet, with a platform 30 feet by 15 feet, and seated for 1,000 persons; a lecture room, and club room; the large room is now let for concerts; the hall is the property of the Hartlepool Temperance Society.

The Durham Militia Artillery Depôt, situate in Baltic street, is a stone building, erected in 1861, with drill ground.

The Mechanics' Institute has ceased to exist as a society: the building erected by them in 1865 is now in private hands; it contains a large hall, temporarily used as an Evangelistic chapel.

The population of the municipal borough in 1861 was 12,245, and in 1871, 13,166; in 1881, 12,364, showing a decrease of 802; parliamentary borough in 1871, 38,303; in 1881, 46,324; rateable value, £26,462; and in 1884, £28,489 10s.

The Hartlepools Steam Tramways Company, Limited, was promoted in the year 1884, for the purpose of laying down and working a system of steam tramways in the district of the Hartlepools, forming a connecting link between East and West Hartlepool, and giving direct tramway facilities to the piers, harbours, and docks with which the neighbourhood abounds.

SCHOOLS.

Crooke's Endowed school was founded in the year 1755 by Ann Crooke, who, by deed, gave certain lands in the township of Stranton for the endowment of the same; the clear rents of the estate are to be applied by the trustees for the instruction of such a number of poor boys, and providing them with books and writing materials, as the rents will afford: there are at present 60 boys on the foundation, who receive their education free. The lease of the old school premises in Sunnyside having expired, the trustees purchased a site at the corner of Brougham and Moor streets, whereon they erected, in 1871, an entire block of new buildings: they include a residence for the master: the school-room is 56 feet in length, with a breadth of 20 feet, and accommodation for 185 scholars; there is also a class room, cloak room, and lavatory, with large recreation ground for the boys. WEST HARTLEPOOL.

WEST HARTLEPOOL is a seaport town, station, and sectional department for the North Eastern Railway Company, within the civil parish of Stranton, 250 miles from London, 10 north-north-east from Stockton and 21 east-south-east from Durham; it is in the Southern division of the county, in the Stockton ward, Hartlepool union and county court district, rural deanery of Stockton, archdeaconry and diocese of Durham. West Hartlepool is situate 72 miles from Leeds, with which town, and the manufacturing districts of Yorkshire and Lancashire, it is connected by the Leeds Northern branch of the North Eastern Railway Company. The town is governed by commissioners constituted under the authority of the West Hartlepool Extension and Improvement Act, 1870, 33 and 34 Vic. cap. 113: it is paved, lighted with gas, and well supplied with good water.

The peninsula on which Hartlepool stands is washed on the north by the German Ocean, and is bounded on the north-west by what was formerly a salt marsh or slake, the greater part of which is now being converted into large docks and basins; on the other side stood the hamlets of EAST and WEST STRAUNTON (or Stranton), which had remained stationary, having, in the years which had elapsed between 1801 and 1831, increased their population only from 325 to 381, in 1858 its population was 12,200, in 1871, 22,250; in 1881, 28,472; and estimated now, 1885, 35,000. In 1841 the Port Clarence and the Stockton and Hartlepool railways opened a direct access from the interior to the coast at this point, and the promoters of these undertakings finding it inconvenient to ship their coals as they had done for some time in the "old dock" (the property at that time of the Hartlepool Dock and Railway Company), in the year 1845 obtained an Act for the construction of a harbour and dock to the south-west of the old dock at Hartlepool; the new dock was opened on the 1st of June, 1847, and while for three years the total quantity of coals conveyed by the Stockton and Hartlepool railway and shipped at the old docks was only 117,441 tons, yet during the first three years of the existence of the West harbour and docks—that is, from June, 1847, to June, 1850—the quantity shipped was 886,271 tons, and in the year ending June, 1851, no less than 58,876 tons were shipped, of which about one-fourth was to foreign countries and to our colonies, and in 1884 coal and coke 768,026 tons, of which 47,637 tons were sent to Hamburg, and coal sent coastwise 483,181 tons.

In May, 1852, the Leeds and Thirsk railway connected this place with their system by a branch line. On the 1st of June following, a second dock of 14 acres, called the "Jackson Dock," after Ralph Ward Jackson esq. chairman of the West Hartlepool Harbour and Railway Company) was opened, and on the 3rd June, 1856, the third, or Swainson Dock, of 12½ acres was opened.

The harbour, docks, shipbuilding yards, &c., at East and West Hartlepool, belonging to the North Eastern Railway Company, cover an area of upwards of 350 acres—including two tidal harbours of 63 acres, six docks of 80 acres, four timber ponds of 56 acres, and deal yards and railway sidings upwards of 150 acres.

On the quays are warehouses, covering 4½ acres of ground, for storage of general goods on the ground floors, and for 160,000 quarters of grain on the upper floors.

There are facilities at the port for constructing, repairing, and cleaning vessels of all kinds. The graving docks, four in number, will accommodate ships up to 550 feet long; two are leased to Messrs. Gray & Co., and one to Messrs. Irving & Co. (shipbuilders and repairers); and the other is worked by the Company for general use.

There are sheers worked by hydraulic and manual power, the former being capable of lifting 80 tons.

The above items include "East" Hartlepool for 1884.

The staple trade of the town consists of extensive iron and steel manufactories, iron ship building, steam sawing and planing mills, and a steam corn mill, brick, lime, cement and grease manufactures, creosote and paint works, exportation of coal and coke, the importation of timber and general produce; there are also graving docks for the repairs of ships of a large class. Here are three banks, those of Messrs. Backhouse & Co. (Walter Nichol, manager), a branch of the National Provincial Bank of England (Thomas Harker Wilkinson, manager), and a branch of the North Eastern Banking Company (William John Sivewright, manager).

The principal object in natural curiosities here is a submerged forest, forming part of the sea-beach, where perfect acorns and hazel nuts, probably grown twenty centuries since, may frequently be picked up.

The town is divided into four ecclesiastical parishes. All Saints, Stranton (the original parish out of which the others have all been formed), Christ Church, St. James's, and St. Paul's.

All Saints (Stranton Parish Church) is an ancient structure, consisting of chancel, nave, aisles, and square tower containing three bells, and supposed to occupy the site of that given by Robert-de-Brus to Guisboro' Priory: the building appears to have been erected about the year 1350, the arches being evidently of that period: the Register dates from the year 1580: the living is a vicarage, yearly value £300 with residence, in the gift of Sir Matthew White Ridley bart. M.P. and held since 1885 by the Rev. Joseph Bennett M.A. who is supposed to be the 35th who has held that position (as vicar); the first vicar was Rev. Richard-de-Topcliff, 1312.

Christ Church, which is a handsome building in the Gothic style of architecture, was erected by public subscription (to which the late Ralph Ward-Jackson esq. and his family were large contributors), at a cost of £12,000 from a design by E. B. Lamb esq. architect, of London; it consists of chancel, nave, transepts, and lofty tower (originally intended for a beacon), which contains a peal of six bells; the windows are all stained, and there is a fine organ: the church was opened on April 24th, 1854: the register dates from the year 1854: the living is a vicarage, with residence, yearly value between £300 and £400, in the gift of the Bishop of Durham, and held since 1884 by the Rev. H. E. Savage M.A. fellow of Corpus Christi College, and chaplain to the Bishop of Durham.

St. James's Church, situate in Whitby street, is in the Gothic style of architecture: it was erected in 1868, at a cost of about £3,000 from designs by J.P. Pritchett, architect, of Darlington, and consists of chancel, nave, and aisles, and is capable of seating 600 persons: the register dates from the year 1868: the living is a perpetual curacy, yearly value £200, in the gift of the Bishop of Durham, and held by the Rev. T. C. Mulholland.

St. Paul's Church (now building) will be a handsome stone building of the Gothic style of architecture, situate in Victoria road and corner of Murray street, and will cost between £5,000 and £6,000, defrayed entirely by public subscriptions, and will have sittings for 750 persons: at present services are conducted in Mission Rooms: No. 1 (temporary), The Armoury, Ward street; No, 2, Mission Room, Alma street; and No. 3, Mission Room, Edwin street: a Sunday School is attached to each place of worship; also Band of Hope and Reading rooms are in connection with the same: curate in charge, the Rev. F. L. Cope M.A.

The Scandinavian Church, situate in Clarence road, was built in 1884 by subscription (the largest contributions came from Sweden): it cost, with site, £2,400, and is a handsome brick building with stone dressings, in Early English style of architecture; the foundation stone was laid by the Norwegian and Swedish consul, Geo. Horsley esq. J.P.: the Rev. Johan August Dalen is minister.

The Wesleyan chapel, erected in 1871-2, at a cost of £5,000, is a handsome brick building, with stone dressing, in the Italian style; the front is entirely of stone, and consists of a Corinthian portico of four columns, access being had by a noble flight of steps extending the whole width of the chapel. There are sittings for 1,250 persons: beneath the chapel, on the basement, is a large schoolroom, capable of seating 600 children, in connection with which are four vestries and a large meeting-room capable of holding 150 persons.

The old Wesleyan chapel is now used a Temperance hall.

The Primitive Methodist chapel, situated in Reed and corner of Whitby streets, is a large stone building, erected in 1861, at a cost of £1,500, and is capable of seating 700 persons: the school is being enlarged, and extensive alterations are being made in the interior of the chapel, at an additional cost of £1,100: there is also a Primitive Methodist Chapel at Middleton.

The Baptist Chapel in Tower street is a temporary school-chapel erected in 1867, at a cost of £350, and is capable of seating 160 persons: a site has now been secured adjoining, on which it is intended to erect a more suitable structure, at a cost of £2,000.

The Baptist (Calvinistic) Chapel, situate in Thornton street, was opened in August, 1879, and cost £500, and is capable of seating 150 persons.

Saint Joseph's Catholic temporary chapel is in Ouston street (formerly the skating rink), but a site of about half an acre has been secured in Victoria road for the purpose of building a more commodious one: connected with the site is a residence now occupied by the "Sister's faithful companions of Jesus," named St. Joseph's convent.

The Jew's Synagogue, situated in Whitby street, is a small plain building, erected in 1872, at a cost of £1,100, including site, and is capable of seating 170 persons; in the rear is a schoolroom, to hold 80 children; minister, Rev. Abraham Friedner.

There is a Catholic Apostolic Church in Stockton street.

The Presbyterian church, situated in Commercial street, was erected in 1880, at a cost of £5,500; it is a handsome building in the Gothic style, with sittings for 650; a school room in basement capable of holding 400 scholars; minister, Rev. Thomas Campbell.

The Congregational church, in Tower street, is a handsome and commodious structure, erected in 1857, at a cost of £4,000, and is capable of seating 700 persons.

The United Methodists have several places of worship, including chapels and mission rooms: Lynn street is a stone building, erected in 1851, at a cost of £700, to seat 550 persons; in 1861 this chapel was enlarged at a cost of £1000, and has now sittings for 800; Burbank street chapel is a large brick building, erected in 1868 at a cost of £1,430, including site; this building is now used as a school and class rooms, at which there are 500 children attending: a chapel was built in 1875 immediately adjoining the last mentioned; it is a fine commodious place of worship, will seat 1,100 persons, and cost £6,000. South parade (Belle vue) chapel, which was erected in 1870 by Mr. Isaac Robinson and by him presented to the denomination, will seat 250 persons; it is also used as a sunday school: a site adjoining this chapel has been secured and conveyed to the denomination for the erection of a larger chapel when required. There is a mission room in Caroline street (West Hall): this building is about to be superseded by a new place of worship; a site has been purchased not far from the present mission room, and the foundation stone will shortly be laid; there will be sittings for about 200 people; also a sunday school has been established here. Dyke street, Middleton, has been erected recently and will seat 200 persons. The mission room at Throston has similar accommodation to the one in Dyke street. Circuit ministers are the Rev. Joseph Kirsop and Rev. William Lock Smith.

The Police Station, situate at the junction of Church street and Clarence road, is a large brick building, with stone dressings, erected in 1872, at a cost of about £4,500: the court room, at which the petty sessions are held every Monday, is 46 ft. long, 21 ft. wide and 20 ft. high: there are six cells, three for males and three for females; one of each number is used for disorderlies; there are also retiring rooms for the justices and witnesses: the superintendent and some of the force reside on the premises: the force consists of 1 superintendent, 2 inspectors, 6 sergeants, and 28 constables, who are under the control of the chief of the county constabulary.

The Hartlepool exchange, in Mainsforth terrace, is a handsome Gothic structure, built of red brick, with stone dressings: it was erected in 1875 at a cost of £10,000, and contains a large hall (now used for offices); the rest of the building is divided into suites of offices, the north-eastern portion being occupied by the Post Office.

The Athenæum and Mechanics' and Literary institution is a handsome stone building in Church street, with a full suite of rooms, including room, library containing 3,500 volumes, and museum; also a large concert hall, 70 ft. by 34 ft., and lecture room 38 ft. by 20 ft.: the Government school of Science, established here in 1883, occupies a portion of this building: the board of guardians hold their meetings here, and offices are occupied by the registrar of births, deaths, & marriages; clerk to the board of guardians; & collector of taxes, &c.: the foundation stone was laid by the then president of the institution (Ralph Ward-Jackson, esq.), in August 1851, and the building was opened on June 3, 1852.

The Gaiety Theatre, situate in Mainsforth terrace, is a handsome building in the Corinthian style, erected in 1868, at a cost of £6,000, and is capable of holding 1,800 people: there is a plentiful supply of water in case of fire, and the place can be cleared in two minutes, by 5 doors.

The Theatre Royal, in Whitby street, is a plain brick building, capable of holding about 1,700 people; the stage is 24 ft. by 28 ft.

The 4th Durham Artillery Volunteers' drill ground and shed and armoury are situate at the end of Ward street, and occupy about 3 acres of land; the drill shed is a wooden structure 40 yards long by 20 yards wide, and the armoury is attached to it; it was erected in 1881, at a cost of about £2,000, which was defrayed partly by the officers of the corps, and by public subscriptions; the erection was carried out under the supervision of Mr. J. Clayton, architect; the N.E. Railway Co. let the land to the corps at a nominal rental: it is centrally situated & well adapted for the purposes named; 1,000 men can be drilled on the ground, and 450 in the shed; the corps is up to its maximum strength of 6 batteries, which including officers & men number 480: the armament consists of four 32-pound guns, one 64-pound rifled gun, and two 40-pound breech-loading Armstrong guns, and the battery is situate on Seaton banks; the corps is commanded by Lieut.-Col. J. W. Cameron, Greenbank, West Hartlepool, and is efficiently drilled by Sergeants Miller & Towells R.A.

The Northern District Telephone Company have made arrangements for opening a Telephone Exchange at the Hartlepools to be fitted up with the latest improvements in telephonic apparatus; their present premises are at No. 19 George street, West Hartlepool.

Public Slaughter Houses are situated in Howbeck terrace off Hart road, and consist of 12 houses, the Town Commissioners' bye laws are in force with regard to them.

Ward-Jackson Memorial park was opened for the use of the public on July 12, 1883: the park is designed not only to afford recreation to visitors, but as a memorial to the late Ralph Ward-Jackson; the land was purchased by public subscription, and presented to the town commissioners, Mr. W. J. Young being chairman of the purchase committee: it is situated on the Elwick road, at a distance of about half an hour's walk from the centre of the town, and was formerly a portion of Tunstall estate: it is 17 acres in extent, and was obtained from Mr. W. A. Wooler, of Sadberge Hall; the original extent of the land was 15 acres, for which the sum of £15,000 was paid, but Mr. Wooler generously gave 2 additional acres: the park is fenced round by artistic iron railings, and almost forms a square: about £6,000 have been laid out in bringing the park to its present state of perfection. The repayment of the cost of laying out the park will extend over 50 years, and will probably cost the ratepayers only ½*d.* or, at the most, 1*d.* in the £.

West Hartlepool Cemetery comprises 17 acres of land; was opened April 28th, 1855; consecrated June 3rd, 1856; first interment therein on May 14th, 1856; is now about two-thirds filled; has two chapels—one for the Church of England, and the other for Dissenters; is under the control of the West Hartlepool Improvement Commissioners; it is well laid out, and kept in good order: superintendent—Thomas Hugill.

The Market Hall is situated in Lynn street, has a stone frontage, and entered by two openings with iron gateways, in addition to the lock-up shops; there are ten rows of stalls for various trades: the market day is on Saturday, but the hall is open for business every business day: the Market Hall keeper is Benjamin Parkinson: the fire engine and house are situated at the east end of the Market Hall: Robert Mothersdale, superintendent.

Young Men's Christian Association, situated in Church street, was established 19 years ago, for the purpose of enabling the young men of West Hartlepool (and district) to meet together for their spiritual, moral, and intellectual improvement: it seeks to supply a want amongst the young men of the offices, shops, factories, &c. many of whom, residing in lodgings, derive very special benefit from such an institution: in the past, the operations of the Association have been much impeded by inadequate accommodation; therefore it has been decided to build new premises upon the site in Whitby street, the contracts for which have been let: the new building will be arranged as follows, two cellars for shops above, and one cellar containing ample appliances for tea meetings, connected with a lift with each floor above: ground floor, two lock-up shops, reading-room and library, class-room, secretary's office, lavatory, &c.; first floor, large hall, to seat about 300, and gymnasium; two large class-rooms and one smaller class-room, with lavatory attached: it will be a plain brick building, with stone dressings, from plans drawn by Mr. Macara, architect, Darlington, and will cost (including furnishing) about £1,800.

West Hartlepool Friendly Societies Medical Association, formed 1879-80, to provide medical attendance for the wives and families of the various club members in the district: their appreciation of the benefits it offers is shown by the fact that to-day over 1,100 families are enrolled in its membership, and that people are seeking daily to become members: by subscribing to various convalescent homes, it affords the means of patients being sent away free of expense: the committee also show many other liberal acts towards its members on the recommendation of their medical officers, such as providing them with expensive splints and other requirements: resident medical officer, Edward Seaton Cockell, M.R.C.S. Eng., L.S.A. Lond., 104 Lynn st.

The market day is on Saturday.

The "Northern Daily Mail" and the "South Durham Herald and Stockton Journal" are published here; the former daily and the latter weekly: the "South Durham and Cleveland Mercury," the "Northern Echo," and "North Eastern Daily Gazette" have branch offices here.

Gross estimated rental, £170,856 10s.; rateable value, £137,915, which includes the whole of the township of Stranton: in January, 1858, its population was 12,200; in 1871 was 22,250; and in 1881 was 28,472, including Stranton.

Middleton in Stranton is a place situated between East and West Hartlepool: it is in the civil parish of Stranton, ecclesiastical parish of Christ Church, West Hartlepool, and now forms a part of the borough of Hartlepool: the extensive iron works of Thos. Richardson and Son are here, also the shipbuilding yard belonging to Edward Withy & Co.; besides which there are boat builders, packing makers, coppersmiths, and other branches of the shipbuilding trade.

GREATHAM is a parish, comprising the township of its own name and CLAXTON, in the Southern division of the county, north-eastern division of Stockton ward and union and county court district of Hartlepool, rural deanery of Stockton, archdeaconry of Auckland, and diocese of Durham. The village is situated on the ridge of a hill, about 8 miles north-east-by-north from Stockton, 2¼ north-west from the estuary of the Tees, and half a mile from the railway station on the West Hartlepool section of the North Eastern railway. The church of St. John the Baptist is an ancient edifice of stone in the Norman style, consisting of chancel, nave, aisles and an embattled tower; the chancel is maintained by the Master and Brethren of Greatham Hospital, who are impropriators of the great tithes of the parish: there are sittings for 400 persons. The parish register dates from the year 1556, and contains many interesting entries of the time of the civil wars of 1644-58. The living is a vicarage, tithe rentcharge £65, net, yearly value £200, including 81 acres of glebe with good residence, in the gift of the Master and Brethren of the Greatham Hospital, and held since 1879 by the Rev. William Wilson Morrison M.A. of Corpus Christi college, Cambridge. Here is also a small Wesleyan chapel. The Greatham parochial institute, formerly the Barrington boys' schools, has a reading room, well supplied with newspapers, a library of 502 volumes, and bagatelle and chess room. Parkhurst's Hospital was founded by Dormer Parkhurst esq. in 1761, for six poor widows or unmarried women above 50 years of age, to be chosen from the township of Greatham and legally settled there; or, in default of such persons within Greatham, from the neighbouring townships: each sister receives 21s. per month, 4s. at Christmas, 2s. at Easter and 2s. at Whitsuntide, £4 yearly for coals and a gown and flannel petticoat at Christmas. Matthew Carr, by will, January 28th, 1818, bequeathed £100 to the minister and churchwardens, in trust, to be placed out on good securities, and the interest to be distributed at Christmas to poor widows resident in the parish. Rand's Charity of £6 yearly is laid out in apprenticing poor boys, and there are a few other small charities: a feast is held here annually, on the 24th of June, the festival of St. John the Baptist, the patron saint of the church, called "Greatham Midsummer," at which races and rural sports are continued for two days. Greatham Hall is an ancient mansion of stone, formerly occupied by Ralph Ward-Jackson, esq. to whose enterprising spirit the port and town of West Hartlepool owe their origin. The Master and Brethren of Greatham Hospital are lords of the manor and chief landowners; this manor was anciently in the possession of Peter de Montfort, cousin of the celebrated Simon de Montfort, Earl of Leicester, and on forfeiture by him in 1264 it was granted by the King to Thomas de Clare; but on Bishop Stichell's representation that the manor lay within the Palatinate, he revoked the grant and allowed it to the Bishop, who soon after founded the Hospital of Greatham and endowed it with the manor: the hospital, situated on the west side of the village, was rebuilt in 1803 by the Earl of Bridgwater, and enlarged in 1868; it is a rectangular structure of stone, consisting of a large hall occupying the centre of the building, together with rooms for the brethren and other officers: the institution, on its foundation, was dedicated to "God, the Blessed Mary and St. Cuthbert," and endowed with the manor of Greatham for the reception and support of eight priests, two clerks and forty almsmen, selected from the Episcopal manors of the bishopric. By the statutes of the foundation, dated January 23rd, 1272, the pensioners were all to live in one house and mess at one table, and the number was to be augmented or decreased according to the sufficiency of the income: the foundation charter was confirmed by Edward III. and Edward IV.: King James I. on the 20th of July, 1610, refounded the hospital, which, for the future, was to consist of a master and thirteen poor unmarried men of advanced age, and to be called "The Hospital of God in Greatham, in the county palatine of Durham:" the Bishop of Durham is now the patron and has the appointment of the master, who in turn nominates the brethren; under a scheme approved by the Court of Chancery in 1865, the hospital is to be enlarged as leases fall in, until it maintains the original number of brethren, viz.—ten decayed and aged clergymen, and forty lay brothers; and the master, in appointing lay brethren, is to give the preference to such as have seen better days and have become decayed by circumstances beyond their own control: the in-brethren receive a pension of £12 yearly, together with rooms, liberal board, attendance, clothing, gas, firing and medical attendance; and the out-brethren £26 yearly, and medical attendance: the chapel, rebuilt in 1788, possesses some very fine communion plate, presented by Sir Gilbert Gerrard, bart. master in A.D. 1666: adjoining the hospital are houses for the matron and porter: the control, discipline, and spiritual charge of the hospital is entrusted to the master, but the estates and expenditure of the hospital are managed by a board of 13 trustees, of whom the master, the vicar of Greatham, the rector of Sedgefield, the vicar of Stockton and the archdeacon of Durham are ex officio: the other trustees are the Marquis of Londonderry, Thomas Hutchinson, Robert Fawcus and William Joseph Young, esqs. and the Revs. J. Lawson, John Burdon and Henry Baker Tristram M.A., LL.D., F.R.S. hon. canon of Durham. The mastership is now vacant (1885). At the time of the Charity Commissioners' report the revenue amounted to £1,486 5s. 3¾d.; the expenditure was £601, leaving a net revenue to the master of £885 5s. 3¾d. which was reduced to £500. Among the names of former masters occur those of Bishop Sparke, suffragan of Berwick; Gabriel Clarke D.D.; Dr. Rand, Oliver Cromwell's physician; Colonel Askew, of the Parliamentary army; Bishop Cosins, afterwards Bishop of Durham; Sir Gilbert Gerrard, Dr. Parkhurst, John, Earl of Bridgwater and the Hon. Augustus Barrington D.C.L. The soil is clay and gravel; subsoil, clay and loam. The principal crops are wheat, oats, potatoes and turnips. The township of Greatham comprises an area of 3,310 acres; rateable value, £6,543; and the population in 1881 was 737.

Claxton township is situated 1 mile to the west of Greatham. The principal landowners are the trustees of S. Jobson esq.; it comprises 824 acres; rateable value £1,287; the population in 1881 was 51.

Parish Clerk, Thomas Young.

The small village of Hart, which has a station on the North Eastern railway, is pleasantly situated on a gentle eminence, 4 miles south-by-south-east from Castle Eden and about the same distance north-by-north-west from Hartlepool. The church of St. Mary Magdalen is an ancient edifice of limestone, principally in the Norman style, and consisting of chancel, nave, aisles, south porch, and a low tower containing 3 bells: in the porch and the north aisle are several grotesque heads, much mutilated: the font is octagonal in form and is ornamented with figures of saints and cherubs: there are sittings for 320 persons. The register dates from the year 1557. On the south-west side, adjoining the churchyard, is the manor house, and a short distance to the west are the remains of an ancient building which, from the portion of wall still standing, appears to have been monastic: the foundations extend a considerable distance to the north. Sir Frederick Acclom Milbank bart. D.L. M.P. of Thorpe Perrow, Bedale, Yorkshire, is lord of the manor and the principal landowner. The soil is of a clayey nature; the subsoil is gravel and limestone. The chief crops are wheat, oats, beans and potatoes. SEATON CAREW is a township in the parish of Stranton, and an ecclesiastical parish with a station on the West Hartlepool section of the North Eastern railway. The village is situated on the sea shore, 248 miles from London, 10 north-east of Stockton, and 1½ south from West Hartlepool, and is held in high estimation as a healthy bathing-place; it is in the Southern division of the county, West Hartlepool petty sessional division, south-eastern division of Stockton ward, rural deanery of Stockton, archdeaconry of Auckland and diocese of Durham. Salmon fishery is carried on here to a great extent. The village is well lighted with gas, and supplied with water from the Hartlepool Gas and Water Company's works, and is governed by a Local Board of Health. The church of the Holy Trinity is a modern building in the Early English style, erected at a cost of about £1,700, and consisting of chancel and nave and a square tower; the interior was re-arranged and re-seated with open benches in 1864, at a cost of £245; there are several stained windows, one of which is a memorial to Mrs. Fawcus, of Over Dinsdale Hall; there are sittings for about 600 persons. The register dates from the year 1831. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £158, with residence, in the gift of the Lawson family, and held since 1835 by the Rev. John Lawson M.A. of St. Alban Hall, Oxford. Here is a Wesleyan Methodist chapel, erected in 1830, and enlarged in 1878; and a meeting house for the Society of Friends. There is a Temperance hall, built by the late Edward Backhouse esq. at a cost of £800; it will hold 400 persons and is used for entertainments &c. Seaton Carew is a lifeboat station: it is now sixty-two years since the first lifeboat was brought here, and it is calculated that during that period the lifeboat here has been the means of saving 260 lives: the present splendid boat is called after the donor "The Job Hindley:" the boat house is a brick building situated at the south end of the town. Oughton, situated to the south-west of the village, is an ancient menor, formerly belonging to the Lamberts, who forfeited it in 1569; it is now the property of George Pyman, esq. J.P. ESTABLISHED 1807.

EAGLE INSURANCE COMPANY

FOR LIVES ONLY.

79, PALL MALL, LONDON.

THE Company affords undoubted security to Insurers, and from its judicious management in the past, and from the ample reserves that have been made to meet all contingencies, is able to anticipate an increasing amount of success, and the consequent augmentation of the future Bonuses to its Policy-holders.

The following figures show the progress of the Company in these respects :—

In 1877 the Assurance Fund, invested upon first-class securities, was equal to 32 per cent. of the Sums assured and Bonus added thereto; and to 11 times the amount of the Annual Premiums payable.

In 1882 to 36 per cent. of the Sums Assured and Bonus added thereto; and to 13 times the Annual Premiums payable.

In 1884 to 37 per cent. of the Sums Assured and Bonus added thereto; and to 13 times the Annual Premiums payable.

In June, 1877, the amount of Profits declared by the Company was £183,883

In December, 1882 „ „ „ . . . £218,182

Of these sums the amount divisible amongst the Participating Policyholders in cash was equal to the following percentage of the premiums paid during the two quinquenniums :—

1877 ... ... From 12 to 22 %
1882 ... ... „ 13 „ 23 „

according to the age of the Assured at entry.

In addition to the Bonus thus declared periodically, interim Bonuses are given on Policies of five years old and upwards which become claims between any two valuations, thereby practically securing to the Assured an Annual Bonus.

During the past thirty-seven years the Company has paid in Claims £7,872,396

And divided Bonuses amongst the Assured (exclusive of those taken in reduction of premium) amounting to £1,012,761

Claims are paid three months after the death of the Life Assured, provided that satisfactory proof of death shall have been furnished in the meantime.

The Directors are prepared to grant Loans on all Policies to the absolute owners, or to pay a fair and liberal Surrender value, should it be desired to discontinue the Assurance, thereby protecting the Assured against loss from inability to meet the premiums.

Where Bonuses to the amount of £50 and upwards have been allocated to a Policy, the Company will purchase the Surrender of such Bonuses if desired. The consideration may be received in cash or applied to reduce future premiums. In the case of old lives the consideration will frequently be sufficient not only to extinguish all future premiums, but to permit the payment of an Annuity to the Assurer in addition, the full sum assured being also payable at his death. INDISPUTABLE POLICIES.—After five years most of the Society's Policies become free of every restriction, and all are practically indisputable on any ground except fraud, when the age has been admitted as mentioned in the Prospectus.

PAID-UP POLICIES.—When Policy-holders are unable to continue their Assurances, they can, if preferred, receive a paid-up Policy, computed upon liberal terms, in lieu of the last Cash Surrender Value.

SETTLEMENT OF CLAIMS.—Claims arising on Policies effected now will be paid without any delay, as soon as Certificates of Death have been exhibited, and the title to receive payment established.

FOREIGN RESIDENCE.—Persons whose lives are assured in this Office may reside or travel in most of the temperate climates of the world without extra premium; and extension to risk of residence in any part of the world may be readily arranged upon most liberal terms.

Assurances on the lives of Naval and Military Officers effected on most favourable terms. [6]

CHAS. ROUSE BROWNE, Secretary.

WESTMINSTER AND GENERAL LIFE OFFICE,

28, KING STREET, COVENT GARDEN, LONDON, W.C.

ESTABLISHED 1836.

Trustees:

ARTHUR T. PRATT BARLOW, Esq. EDWARD BRYDGES HARDISTY, Esq. ALBERT MOTT, Esq.

Entire security is given to the Assured by a Guaranteed Capital of nearly £120,000, and a Fund amounting to £460,000 invested in the Public Stocks and on Mortgages, &c., being the accumulated premiums received on Assurances.

The rates of Premium are moderate and the conditions of Assurance liberal.

Eighty per Cent. of the net profits are divided every five years among the holders of Policies under the participating class of Assurers.

The Tenth Division of profit will be made in February, 1887, and Assurances effected in the participating class, prior to 1st January, 1886, will share therein for two years.

The profits may either be received in Cash or a Bonus added to the Policy, or a reduction made in all future Annual Premiums.

At the Ninth Division of Profit, declared 21st February, 1882, on the business of the Association for the Five Years ending 31st December, 1881, Reversionary Additions were made to the sums assured of 38 per cent. and under (according to the age of the life assured) on the premiums received upon Policies since the division of 1877.

Endowment Assurances are granted by this Association, by which a person, by the payment of a moderate Annual Premium, can secure a sum to be paid to himself, should he attain a specified age, or the amount will be paid to his representatives, should he die before that time.

Immediate, Deferred, and Survivorship Annuities granted upon favourable terms.

The Directors invite applications for Agency from Gentlemen who are in a position to introduce business.

THE YORKSHIRE
Fire & Life Insurance Company.

Established at York 1824, and Empowered by Act of Parliament.

CAPITAL, £500,000.

Accumulated Fund, £870,707. Annual Income, £160,583.

W. H. HARRISON BROADLEY, Esq., M.P. The Right Hon. LORD WENLOCK.
The Right Hon. LORD DERWENT.

THIS COMPANY has been Established more than Sixty Years Ample time has therefore elapsed to test the soundness of the principles upon which it has been conducted.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

This Office combines every substantial advantage offered by any Assurance Company.

The Rates of Premium with and without Profits are moderate.

Four-Fifths or Eighty per Cent. of the Profits on the Participating Policies are divided amongst the Policyholders in that department every five years, thus giving them nearly all the advantages of a Mutual Company, but without any risk or liability whatever, which in Mutual Offices is borne exclusively by the Assured, but in the Yorkshire by a large and influential Proprietary, independent of the Accumulated Fund.

No charge made for Stamps or Medical Fees.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The Rate of Premium for Private Dwelling-Houses, built of Brick or Stone, and Tiled or Slated, is 1s. 6d. per cent.

 A Policy for ONE HUNDRED POUNDS on Furniture, including Wearing Apparel, China, Glass, Musical Instruments and Pictures, in a Private Dwelling-House, built of Brick or Stone, and Tiled and Slated, can now be effected for the small cost of TWO SHILLINGS, and larger sums at the same rates.

FARMING STOCK INSURED AT 5 PER CENT.

No extra charge made for the use of a Steam Thrashing Machine. Losses by Lightning made good.

Prospectuses, Tables of Rates, Forms of Proposal, and every information on the subject of Fire and Life Insurance business, can be obtained on application at the Head Office, York, or to any of its Agents throughout the United Kingdom.

R. LLOYD & CO. beg to lay before Fan users the special merits of this new Machine, first brought into notice by the Engineer Newspaper in February, 1883, when after tests made by their skilled staff with a 6-in. Blast Fan, it was declared to be the most powerful Fan ever made.

From B. HUNTSMAN, Steel Works, Attercliffe, Sheffield.—"The Capell Blast Fan which you sent me last month continues to give excellent results, both in regard to power of blast and economy in working."—(Signed) B. HUNTSMAN.

From A. E. PIRIE, Esq., Lechmelm, Ross-shire.—"I have had an extended trial of the 20-inch Capell Fan you supplied for my Steam Yacht. I can now report very favourably. It went well, gave a powerful draught, and enabled me to burn smokeless coal on all occasions. I am now enabled to keep a full head of steam with smokeless coal, whatever the wind may be. This I found impossible to do before with a following wind or in a dead calm."—(Signed) A. E. PIRIE. Mr. Pirie also informed the Inventor, when first communicating, that he had tried other Fans up to 36-inch without success. A further order for Special Fans with combined Engine is now in hand for Mr. Pirie's Model Yacht, now building.

Haunchwood Colliery, Nuneaton.—"The 11 feet Capell Fan supplied by you is working extremely well and giving us every satisfaction."—(Signed) W. NOWELL, Manager.

GREENS'

IMPROVED PATENT

For Utilising the Waste Heat from Steam Boilers.

This ECONOMISER, after having been applied to UPWARDS OF ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTY THOUSAND BOILERS, and subjected to every variety of trial through a long period of years, still holds its position as the best and most effectual means of Heating the Feed Water with the waste or residual heat from the Flues of Steam Boilers, Furnaces, etc.

The recent improvements in the ECONOMISER, especially in the self-acting Scrapers and in the new style of Gearing, also in the method of casting the Pipes and other parts of the Apparatus, render it still more worthy of adoption by users of steam.

KELLY'S HANDBOOK

TO THE

Titled, Landed, and Official Classes,

CONTAINING ABOUT

TWENTY THOUSAND NAMES,

GIVES AN ALPHABETICAL LIST OF

ALL MEMBERS OF NOBLE FAMILIES, BISHOPS, PRIVY COUNCILLORS, BARONETS, MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS, LORDS-LIEUTENANT, GOVERNORS OF COLONIES, KNIGHTS AND COMPANIONS OF ORDERS, DEANS, AND ARCHDEACONS, JUDGES, SERJEANTS-AT-LAW, QUEEN'S COUNSEL, ETC.
SUPERIOR OFFICERS OF THE ARMY AND NAVY,
COUNTY MAGISTRATES, AND OWNERS OF THE PRINCIPAL SEATS IN ENGLAND.

Price to Subscribers, 12s. Non-Subscribers, 16s.

The object of this Book is to include, in one general alphabetical list, all those who have any definite position, or title, from Hereditary rank, or order conferred on them by the Sovereign, or from any of the higher grades of the Military, Naval, Legal, Clerical, or Colonial Services of the State; also Deputy Lieutenants, Royal Academicians, Presidents and Vice-Presidents of Learned Societies, County Court Judges, and the larger landowners of the United Kingdom. It is to be observed that it is the only book which enables any one, by reference to a single list, to determine whether any person having a particular title exists, and if so, to discover his residence.

"'Kelly's Handbook to the Titled, Landed, and Official Classes' includes not only untitled landowners, but Indian civilians, admirals, generals and colonels, Royal Academicians and many leading members of the clerical and legal professions who have not received any special title or dignity. The work is likely to be widely useful, and it has reached its eleventh year of publication."—The Times, April 7th, 1885.

"So well known and so valuable an annual needs no words of commendation. As in the previous editions, the proof of every entry has been submitted to the person referred to (with the exception of those instances in which no address in the United Kingdom has been obtained), and the correctness of the work is thereby insured."—The Observer, April 5th, 1885.

"'Kelly's Handbook to the Titled, Landed, and Official Classes' for 1885 is a successful attempt to combine within one volume the contents of several. There are numerous books which record biographical details of the peerage, the legislature, the landed and official classes, but each is distinct, and a small library is consequently required before the whole are comprised. In 'Kelly's Handbook' we have a concise and comprehensive record within the pages of a single portable volume of the whole of the titled, landed and official classes of society. The alphabetical arrangement has been adopted, so that reference to the volume is unattended with difficulty. The great care which Messrs. Kelly & Co. invariably take in the compilation of their directories has been bestowed upon the present volume, which is remarkably clear, concise and accurate."—Court Journal, February 28th, 1885.

"When this book made its first appearance as the 'Upper Ten Thousand,' it was favourably and hopefully reviewed in our columns. Since then it has changed its name and extended its plan, and this eleventh annual edition is a marvellous compilation. The information given is very accurate, and the value of the book for constant reference cannot be over-estimated."—The Queen, March 7th, 1885.

"As a comprehensive, complete, and accurate biographical dictionary and address book of the living notabilities of the realm, designed for daily use and general purposes, this is beyond comparison the best."—Civil Service Gazette, March 7th, 1885.

"In the practised hands of Messrs. Kelly & Co., this work (originally brought out as the 'Upper Ten Thousand') has been developed into the handiest general book of reference of the kind that is before the public. Every possible care appears to have been taken with the corrections, and the volume is attractively got up."—Daily Chronicle, February 26th, 1885.
