PREFACE.

In issuing the Post Office Sheffield Directory the Proprietors have endeavoured to maintain the character borne by the other Directories published by them. The arrangement of the Sheffield Directory is in all respects the same as that of the London Work, giving a Street Directory, and the Court and Commercial names in distinct lists. A superior Classification has been adopted, and an efficient Index is given.

The importance of Sheffield as a great centre of manufacturing pursuit requires that, for the purposes of Commercial reference in the Town itself, and other seats of trade, its Directory, as the guide to its resources, should not be inferior to the Post Office Directories of other Towns, and it is hoped this has been accomplished. With regard to the rural districts, they have been so examined and arranged that the remote Hamlets and populations scattered over a wide range of country have been duly included in the Work.

In making these statements the Proprietors have to express their obligations to the Clergymen, Landed Proprietors and other Gentlemen who have communicated information and furnished corrections, and to solicit their continuous co-operation in the production of a Publication which, if an enterprise of individual profit, is nevertheless a Work of public utility, and for which the Proprietors, as public servants, are anxious to secure every requisite of complete and successful execution.

SHEFFIELD.

SHEFFIELD is a municipal and parliamentary borough, union and market town, parish and railway station in Hallamshire, one of the districts of the West Riding of Yorkshire, in the south Division of the wapentake of Strafforth and Tickhill, in the Unions of Sheffield, Ecclesall and Bierlow, in the district of the Sheffield County Court and Bankruptcy Court, northern circuit, in the deanery of Doncaster, archdeaconry of the West Riding, bishopric, archbishopric, and province of York. It is the capital of Hallamshire, the seat of a County Court and of two Poor Law Unions, but is chiefly known as the emporium of the cutlery and plated-ware trades, and as the southern metropolis of the West Riding, being one of the largest towns of the island.

Sheffield is situated at the junction of the Sheaf with the river Don, and near the confluence of the Porter Brook, the Rivelin, the Loxley and other streams, which supply the neighbouring mills and forges. It occupies part of the hilly ground on the eastern side of the Penine chain or backbone of England. It is in latitude 53° 23′ north, and 1° 29′ west of Greenwich. Its distance by railway is, from London 162½ miles by the Great Northern, and 175¾ by the Midland; from Retford 24, from Chesterfield 20¾, from Derby 45, from Birmingham 86¼, from Lichfield 68¼, from Burton-on-Trent 56, from Tamworth 69, from Leicester 74¼, from Doncaster 19, from Rotherham (Masborough) 5, from Worcester 112¾, from Cheltenham 132¼, from Dudley 85½, from Wolverhampton 92½, from Walsall 79, from Rugby 94¼, from Gainsborough 33¼, from Lincoln 30, from Great Grimsby 69, from New Holland (Hull) 65¾, from Wakefield 27, from Leeds 39, from York 52, from Newcastle 139¾, from Manchester 41¼, from Stockport 47, from Liverpool 72¾, from Huddersfield 26¾, from Bradford 42, from Gloucester 139¼, from Bristol 176½, from Bath 188¼, from Exeter 252¼, from Plymouth 285¼, from Barnsley 19¾, from Edinburgh 162¾, from Aberdeen 313½, from Scarborough 94¾, from Boston 70¾.

The river Don is made navigable to Sheffield, and communicates with the general canal system, and directly with the river system of the Trent and Humber, and so with the seaports of Goole, Hull and Great Grimsby. Sheffield is within 30 miles of ship navigation, but it is as near Liverpool and Birkenhead by railway as it is to Hull and Great Grimsby.

Sheffield, without being on the great north and south railway lines, is close to them by means of the Woodhouse and Masborough stations, and is also a great railway centre, communicating with Manchester and Liverpool on one side, and with Boston and Great Grimsby on the other. By a chain of small railways it communicates with the whole Yorkshire and Lancashire system.

Hallamshire is a district within Yorkshire, of which there are several included within the larger shire, and formerly having separate jurisdiction. It includes three parishes, Sheffield, Handsworth and Ecclesfield, and about 100,000 acres.

The parish of Sheffield is large, and includes six townships divided into two poor law unions, and reaches to the borders of Derbyshire. The townships are:—

	No. of Acres.	POPULATION.
		1736	1801	1811	1821	1831	1841	1851
Sheffield	3,120	9,695	31,314	35,840	42,167	59,011	68,186	83,447
Brightside Bierlow	2,690	983	4,030	4,899	6,615	8,968	10,089	12,042

Total	22,830	14,105	45,755	53,231	65,271	91,692	111,091	135,310

The number of houses in the parish of Sheffield in 1841 and 1851 was as follows:—

Townships.	1841.				1851.
	Inhabited.	Uninhabited.	Building.	Total.	Inhabited.	Uninhabited.	Building.	Total.
Sheffield	14,111	2,222	97	16,663	16,663	142	121	16,926
Brightside	2,065	250	18	2,333	2,455	28	33	2,516
Ecclesall	4,238	508	51	4,797	5,145	61	55	5,261
Nether Hallam	1,219	152	25	1,396	1,551	23	44	1,618

Attercliffe	880	19	—	899	987	12	9	1,008
	22,965	3,183	192	26,340	27,300	275	263	27,838

The number of males and females in the parish at each ten-yearly periods was as follows:—

	Males.	Females.
1801 ..	23,154 ..	23,182
1811 ..	26,478 ..	27,389
1821 ..	32,848 ..	33,208
1831 ..	46,104 ..	46,466
1841 ..	55,401 ..	56,673
1851 ..	68,045 ..	68,242

These returns show a greater uniformity of the sexes than is common in large towns, for the females are commonly in greater number.

The town of Sheffield consists of the townships of Sheffield, Ecclesall Bierlow and Brightside Bierlow, and of the greater part of Nether Hallam. The municipal franchise or parliamentary borough extends to the whole parish of Sheffield. The population of the town of Sheffield is about 120,000.

The name of Hallam or Hallum is peculiar; it seems to denote a Frisian origin, and to be derived from the great tribe of the Halling or Halsing. Of the previous history in the time of the Welsh or Romans there are few traces. A celt was found near BROOMHEAD, and there likewise is a Welsh tumulus or barrow called the "Apron full of stones." The trench called Bardike is supposed to be of remote origin. The camp near Wincobank is by some supposed to be Roman. In 1761, near the Stannington side of the Rivelin, was found a manumission plate of the time of Trajan. Some of the iron mines of Yorkshire are supposed to have been worked by the Romans, and afterwards by the Early English or Anglo-Saxons; but no traces of such working in the neighbourhood of Sheffield have been identified, though there are many beds of ancient scoria.

During the period of the later kings, before the Norman invasion, Hallamshire was chiefly possessed by the family of Waltheof, who for five generations had been Earls of Northumberland, and allied with the kingly blood. Waltheof married Judith, niece of William the Norman, but was nevertheless beheaded in 1075, when his lands were retained by the Countess Judith. From this alliance Hallamshire descended to the St. Liz Earls of Northampton. The manors constituting Sheffield were, however, held of the Countess Judith by Roger de Busli, who possessed Grimesthorpe, Hallam, Attercliffe, and Sheffield. It is not known by what manner these possessions came into the house of Lovetot or Lovetoft. In the reign of Henry II. the heiress of this family married Gerard de Furnivall. At this early period the Castle of Sheffield was in existence and regularly garrisoned by its lords, but the date of its erection is not known. By the Lovetots an hospital for the sick was founded on the site still called Spital hill, and which foundation was abolished by Henry VIII. A bridge over the Don then existed, and a church; and a market was held in the town. The earlier members of the family of Furnivall were crusaders, and their descendants acquired considerable power and were summoned to Parliament. Maud de Lovetot, the heiress, wife of Gerard de Furnivall, lost her husband and eldest son in the Holy Wars. The younger brother buried Thomas de Furnivall, and returned home. The widowed mother nevertheless felt disquieted that the remains should lie in unchristian ground, and the pious son went back and removed the relics, which were safely transported and buried under a splendid tomb in Worksop Priory, as is duly commemorated by the rhyming chronicler of that house. In the latter years of the second Thomas de Furnivall a charter was obtained from Henry III. for the erection of a new castle at Sheffield, in consequence of the castle and town having been destroyed in the baronial wars. In the castle was a chapel. Another Thomas de Furnivall obtained for Sheffield a fresh grant of a market and fair by charter of Edward I., dated 12th Nov. 1296; and the lord further granted to the burgesses a charter exempting them from many feudal tenures, and constituting them a free borough, regulating the court baron, and exempting them from toll within the precincts of Hallamshire. There was at that time a Seneschal of Hallamshire. At this time the castle and lordship of Sheffield were held of the king in capite by the service of rendering yearly two white greyhounds.

Joan, Lady Furnivall, married Thomas Nevil, who in the 9th of Richard II. obtained a confirmation of the grant of a market and fair. By the marriage of her daughter Maud the inheritance was carried to the Earls of Shrewsbury, by seven of whom it was held. George, Earl of Shrewsbury, in the reign of Henry VIII. built a magnificent manor house in the park. The ruins covered two or three acres of ground. In 1529 Cardinal Wolsey lodged twelve days here.

George, sixth Earl of Shrewsbury, held for twelve years the custody of Mary Queen of Scots. About 1571 she became an inmate of the Castle of Sheffield, having with her a train of thirty persons, of whom the greater number were French, her chief attendants being the Lord and Lady Livingstone. Nine servants were allowed by the Earl, and he increased his own establishment by forty servants taken from his tenantry, to keep watch and ward. In 1572 she received the visit of the Marechal de Jos, sent with money from France for her dower. After the massacre of St. Bartholomew, Shrewsbury increased the Queen's guard by thirty men. In 1573 she was removed for a few days to Sheffield Manor. In the ruins of the manor a window is still shown, from which it is said she attempted to escape. In the autumn of 1573 she was allowed to visit the waters of Buxton, and to go to Chatsworth. In 1575 she received commissioners from France, with whom she treated of the exchange of the Duchy of Touraine, part of her dower. Except on such occasions the Queen was kept totally secluded, her chief amusement being needlework. In 1577 she was allowed to visit Buxton twice. In the month of August she made a will at Sheffield Manor. In 1580 she was at Buxton; and in the summer of 1581 she was at Chatsworth, and in 1582 at Buxton for the last time. The greater part of the remaining time was spent in captivity in Sheffield Castle; but in 1584 she was removed, on the 3rd of September. In the decline of his life the Earl built for himself the splendid monument in Sheffield Church. The inscription is by Fox, the martyrologist. In 1606 his granddaughter, the Lady Alethea Talbot, was married to Thomas Howard, Earl of Arundel and Surrey, thus conveying the Lordship of Hallamshire to the princely family of Norfolk. In pursuance of the will of the last Earl of Shrewsbury, an hospital was founded in Sheffield.

In 1554 a patent was obtained by Queen Mary, incorporating twelve capital burgesses and the commonalty of the town and parish of Sheffield, giving them a common seal, and allowing them to maintain three assistant ministers, to repair the parish church, bridges, and common ways, and to relieve the poor.

During the civil war the house of Howard tried to hold Sheffield Castle for the King; but it was taken from them by the popular party, and the town strengthened by entrenchments. The war broke out by an attack of the Royalists on the house of Sir Edward Rodes, at Great Houghton. The popular party then took to arms, and fully secured Sheffield and Rotherham. On the advance of the Earl of Newcastle at the head of a large army, Sheffield was abandoned by the Parliamentary garrison, and occupied by the Royalists, who appointed Sir William Saville governor. Sir William caused cannon to be cast in the neighbouring iron factories for the defence of his works. He was succeeded by Thomas Beaumont, Esq. After the battle of Marston Moor, on the 2nd July, 1644, in which the National party gained a glorious victory over the Royalists, Major-General Crawford was sent by the victorious party to besiege Sheffield castle. The castle was garrisoned by a troop of horse and 200 foot, and defended by a wall 6 feet thick, a wet ditch 18 feet deep, and ten pieces of ordnance. On the 6th August two batteries were raised against the castle, but the besiegers had no pieces of sufficient weight speedily to reduce the castle, and therefore delayed to get up heavier guns. The castle, however, surrendered on a second summons, and large supplies were found therein, which were left to the new garrison. The governor, officers and soldiers were allowed to march out with drums and colours and goods, the officers keeping their swords, pistols and horses. The gentlemen within the castle were allowed the same privilege. The surrender of the castle took place on the 11th of August.

Colonel John Bright was appointed governor of Sheffield, and afterwards Captain Edward Gill. At this time the estates of the house of Howard were sequestered, but they were afterwards restored. In 1647 the Parliament passed a resolution for dismantling the castle, which was effected in 1648. The Earl of Arundel and Surrey proposed to restore the remaining portion as a residence, but nothing was done. The manor house does not appear to have suffered during the civil war, but in 1706 this house was dismantled. Sheffield Park was likewise abandoned; in the seventeenth century a remarkable oak stood within it, stretching forth its branches 45 feet from the trunk, and able to give shelter to 200 horsemen.

In 1666, Sir William Dugdale, Garter King at Arms, held the last visitation at Sheffield of armorial bearings of the gentry.

The trade of Sheffield took its origin from the manufacture of iron in the neighbouring districts; but in the fourteenth century it had already become known by its cutlery, for Chaucer alludes to Sheffield whittles. The same articles were sufficiently esteemed to form a present of a case of them from the Earl of Shrewsbury, in Queen Elizabeth's time, to Lord Burghley. In that reign we find that the cutlery trade was regulated by a fellowship and company of cutlers and makers of knives, which was most likely of ancient organization. A jury of cutlers used likewise to be named by the court leet. The cutlers' marks were then assigned by the lord's court. A fund was raised for the poor of the corporation from entrance and other fines. In 1624 the trade at Sheffield had so advanced that the Cutlers' Company was incorporated by Act of Parliament, and jurisdiction given to it within Hallamshire and six miles around it. In 1638 the company was enabled to build a hall. In 1615 the town was so poor, that of a total population of 2,207, 725 were paupers, there being only 260 householders able to maintain themselves.

In the beginning of the eighteenth century the trade of the district had made so much progress, that the number of persons engaged in it was estimated at 6,000, and the yearly value of goods above £100,000. 1500 tons of Hallamshire manufactures were yearly sent from Sheffield to Doncaster for shipment. At that time the only library was a few books kept in the vestry room.

The names of the streets at that time were as follows:—

High Street	Jehu Lane
Far Gate	Pudding Lane, or King st
Balm Green	Campo Lane
Hollin Lane, or Blind Lane	Hart's Head
Red Croft	Snig Hill
Townhead Street	Irish Cross
Pinfold Lane	New Hall Street
Church Lane	Mill Sands
Ratten Row	The Under Water
Broad Lane	The Isle
West Bar	Water Lane
West Bar Green	Castle Green
Scargell Croft	Castle Green Head
Fig Tree Lane, or New street	Castle Fold
Dixon Lane	Castle Hill
Shude Hill	Wain Gate
The Ponds	Bull Stake

A great improvement in the town was effected by the measures taken for making the river Don navigable to Tinsley. This was proposed in 1720 and 1721, but the Act was not carried till 1726. The works were entrusted to the Corporation of Doncaster and the Corporation of Hallamshire Cutlers, but in 1732 they were transferred to a private company. The works were gradually carried out. In 1720 the erection of St. Paul's Church was likewise begun.

In 1742 Mr. Thomas Bolsover laid the foundation of the manufacture of plated ware, when employed to repair the handle of a knife composed partly of silver and partly of copper, and it occurred to him that articles might be made having the appearance of solid silver. He began with buttons and snuff boxes. It was at a later period that Mr. Joseph Hancock applied this process to the manufacture of teapots, candlesticks, waiters and the like ware.

The silver plate manufacture followed this, and in 1773 an assay office was opened in the town. As much as 6000 lbs. weight of silver has been hall-marked here within a year. The refining of the precious metals was likewise introduced by Mr. John Read, who settled at Sheffield in 1765. About the middle of the century the Britannia metal manufacture was established—the lead works on the Porter were set up and the first public brewery begun. A silk and cotton mill did not flourish. At this period a newspaper was started, but without success, and the only country paper circulated was the 'Northampton Mercury.' In 1733 the assemblies were held in the boys' charity school, but with the reign of George III. a new era began; a handsome assembly room was formed, a theatre was opened, a bank established, and a subscription library founded.

In 1784 the then Lord of Hallamshire, who took particular interest in the town, obtained an Act of Parliament authorising the construction of new and improved markets, and likewise laid out regularly the new part of Sheffield between Alsop Fields and the Sheaf. Several attempts had been made to form water-works from the year 1697; but in 1782, enlarged and efficient works were set up. In 1785, William Jessop, the eminent engineer, was called upon to report on the means of effectually applying the water power of the Hallamshire streams.

In 1802, an Act of Parliament passed, enabling the Dukes of Norfolk to sell portions of their Sheffield estates, under which many portions of the town have passed into the hands of freeholders.

It was not till 1815 that the navigation was continued from Tinsley to Sheffield. Gas was introduced in 1818.

In 1838, the Sheffield and Rotherham railway was opened; in 1840, the Midland; and in 1845, the Manchester and Sheffield railway. On the passing of the Reform Bill, in 1832, the parish of Sheffield became entitled to send two members to Parliament; but it was not till 1843 that it was incorporated as a municipal borough, in consequence of the opposition of some of the local parties.

Sheffield is justly distinguished for its cutlery and hardware. At the Great Exhibition of All Nations, in 1851, the jurors awarded no less than 60 Council or Prize Medals to the exhibitors of this town. In addition to the staple trade of cutlery, files, saws, edge tools, and silver and electro plated goods, German silver, Britannia metal, horn, ivory and bone, cut and converted into their various uses, a very considerable trade is carried on in the heavier branches of manufacture—as railway-engines, steam-boilers, axles, wheels, springs, heavy carronades, with every description of field-pieces. The great increase of this department of manufacture here has created a great desire to build private houses; thus, street after street constantly spring up, and are as quickly inhabited.

Sheffield returns two members to Parliament. The borough consists of nine wards, which are governed by a Town Council, consisting of a Mayor, 14 Aldermen, and 42 Councillors. A magistrates' meeting is held every day at the Town Hall, the Mayor presiding.

The town is exceedingly well paved and lighted, and has many first-class houses and superior shops. The markets are held every Tuesday and Saturday, and are well supplied and attended. The fairs are held on Tuesday and Wednesday in Trinity week, and on the 28th and 29th November for the sale of horses, cattle, cheese, &c.

The Victoria station is a large and beautiful building, admirably constructed for its convenience and requirements. This is the station of the Great Northern, also of the Manchester, Sheffield and Lincolnshire line. There is another large station in the Wicker, belonging to the London and North Western (Midland) line; and contiguous to it are the Cyclops works, one of the largest manufactories.

Amongst the larger class of manufactures in the town are the Cyclops works, the Queen works, the Atlas works, the Sheaf works, the Park works, the Agenoria works, and many others too numerous to mention; and besides manufactories, there are three banks, two fire offices, a large body of merchants, solicitors, surveyors, stock and share brokers, &c. The buildings, as well as the private houses, continue to increase. Amongst those lately erected are the Corn Exchange, the Market Hall, also the Post Office, facing High street, all of which are handsome modern buildings. The Athenæum, in Norfolk street, fitted up in good style, has a well-furnished library; its subscribers are upwards of 500. The Mechanics' Institute, and Lyceum, in Surrey street, are buildings of earlier erection.

The new Barracks, just finished, cover an area of 30 acres, and form one of the largest military depôts in the kingdom.

The Cemetery, situated in the suburbs, one mile south of the Post Office, was opened in 1836, and being found inadequate to the wants of the fast-increasing population, it was enlarged, the total cost being about £25,000, and it now covers 15 acres of land. There is a small but elegant church, with tower and corresponding belfry. The Cutlers' Hall, in Church street, is a magnificent stone building in the Corinthian style of architecture, supported by massive pillars, and was erected from 1832 to 1833. The interior contains several commodious suites of rooms appropriately and elegantly furnished, and the walls are graced by several well-executed portraits, amongst which are the Duke of Wellington, Lord Wharncliffe, Earl Fitzwilliam and the late vicar of Sheffield. There are three newspapers published here every Saturday:—'The Sheffield Times, with the Iris (1794) and The Mercury (1807) united,' published by Harrison and Pawson; 'The Sheffield and Rotherham Independent,' published by Robert Leader, jun.; and 'The Sheffield Free Press,' commenced in 1851, and printed by Eaton, Blenkin and Co.

Dr. Short, a medical writer of the last century, resided here; and it was while practising in Sheffield that Dr. Buchan wrote his 'Domestic Medicine.' The Rev. Joseph Hunter commemorated Sheffield by the publication of a valuable history of Sheffield and Hallamshire. In this town the poet James Montgomery spent his life, and he died here in May, 1854.

The census returns for 1851 give the details for religious worship on Sunday, March 30th, for the municipal borough or parish of Sheffield, which includes the town of Sheffield and the out townships:—

The date of the foundation of the Parish Church is not known, but there certainly was a church in Sheffield in the reign of Henry II. The present church is rectangular, and is 240 feet long and 130 wide, and has a tower and spire rising from near the middle. In 1805 the nave was rebuilt from the foundations. The church is capable of accommodating nearly 3000 persons. The church is dedicated to St. Peter and the Holy Trinity, and its most remarkable portion is the chapel and monuments of the Shrewsbury family, founded in the time of Henry VIII. Here are some fine altar tombs of the Talbots. That of George, fourth Earl of Shrewsbury, is much admired. Here are likewise interred Elizabeth, Countess of Lennox, sister-in-law to Mary Queen of Scots, and Henry Howard, Esq., of Glossop. There are some monuments by Chantry and others. Here are buried Dr. Short, a medical writer, and William Walker, author of the "Vindiciæ contra Tyrannos." In the vestry is a small parochial library. The parish register is very voluminous, it begins in 1560. The tower has ten bells, a set of chimes, and a handsome illuminated clock, which can be seen to great advantage from its elevated position. The living is a vicarage, value £500, in the alternate patronage of P. Gell, Esq., of Hopson, and A. Lawson, Esq., of Boroughbridge. The vicar is the Rev. Thomas Sale, M.A. There are three assistant ministers endowed. The vicarage house, an ancient building contiguous to the church, has just been razed to the ground to make room for some more modern houses.

St. Paul's Church, Norfolk street, is an old stone structure in the Grecian style, built in 1720, and is approached by a flight of stone steps. It has a monument by Chantry. The living is a perpetual curacy, value £130 per annum, in the gift of the vicar and incumbency of the Rev. James Knight, M.A., and the curate is the Rev. James Knight, jun., B.A.

St. James's Church, in St. James's street, is a neat building in rather a secluded part of the town. It was erected in the latter part of the last century, and is nicely pewed. The eastern window exhibits a fine stained glass representation of the Crucifixion, by Peckitt. The living is a perpetual curacy, value £160, in the patronage of the vicar and the incumbency of the Rev. Thomas Best, M.A.

St. George's Church, in Portobello street, a handsome stone structure in the Gothic style of architecture, with lofty tower and bells, erected in 1825. The interior is nicely pewed, and affords accommodation for 2000 persons. The cost of erection was £14,819, granted by Act of Parliament. Over the communion table is a painting of Christ blessing little Children, by Paris, and presented by him to the church. The living is a perpetual curacy, value £400, in the gift of the vicar. The incumbent is the Rev. William Mercer, M.A.

St. Philip's Church, in Penistone road, was erected in 1822 to 1833, at a cost of £11,874. It is a pretty edifice in the Gothic style. The living is a perpetual curacy, value £135, in the patronage of the vicar and incumbency of the Rev. John Livesey, M.A.

St. Mary's Church, situated in the Moor, is a very handsome modern building in the Gothic style of architecture. It stands in a fine open part, and has a large burial ground. From the great increase in the population in this part of the town, the church is well attended. The interior is nicely fitted, and has accommodation for 2000 persons. The living is a perpetual curacy, valued at £450 to £500 per annum. The present incumbent is the Rev. William Wilkinson, M.A., formerly of Trinity Church, Wicker. The expense of erection (£12,649) was defrayed by a parliamentary grant.

St. John's Church, Park hill, is a modern erection in the Gothic style of architecture. It has a fine tower and lofty spire, and was built by subscription at a cost of £3500. It stands on a bold eminence overlooking the town. Around the building is a burial-ground of several acres, which, with the site for the church, was given by the Duke of Norfolk. The living is a perpetual curacy, in the patronage of trustees. The incumbent is the Rev. Edward Gore Kelly, M.A.

Trinity or Wicker Church, Nursery street, a fine building in the modern style, by Flockton, an eminent architect of this town, was erected in 1848, at the sole cost and charge of the Misses Harrison. There is accommodation for 1000 persons. One-third of the sittings are free. The living is a perpetual curacy, value £150, in the gift of the founders, and incumbency of the Rev. John Aldous, M.A.

St. Jude's Church, Eldon street, a neat structure, in the early English style, and was erected at a cost of £2100. The whole expense was defrayed by subscription, excepting £500, which was granted by the Incorporated Church Building Society. The living is a perpetual curacy, value £170, in the alternate gift of the Crown and the Archbishop of York. The Rev. George Sandford, M.A., is the incumbent.

Christ Church, situate at Pitsmoor, a picturesque suburb of the town, is a modern stone building, erected in 1850 at a cost of £2500. There is accommodation for 800 persons. 500 of the sittings are free. The living is a perpetual curacy, value £130, in the patronage of the Crown and Archbishop of York alternately, and incumbency of the Rev. Henry Barlow, M.A.

There is a Roman Catholic Church situate in Norfolk row, and occupying a large site. It is a handsome stone structure, beautifully relieved with various decorations, and was opened with great ceremony in September, 1850. It cost £8000. It has a fine tower and lofty spire, and bell of great weight. The spire is 200 feet in height, and can be seen from most parts of the town. The interior is fitted up in a costly manner. The priest is the Rev. Edmund Sculley, who has a residence opposite the church.

The Catholic Apostolic Church, in Victoria street, was erected in 1850 and 1851, and has 400 free sittings. The building is in the early English style and has two small towers and a spire. The Rev. Thomas Holden officiates.

The Jews have a small synagogue in a secluded part of Fig Tree lane.

There are chapels for Unitarians, Independents, Baptists (General and Particular), Society of Friends, Wesleyans, Methodist New Connexion, Primitive Methodists, Wesleyan Associates and Wesleyan Reformers.

According to the educational census for 1851, there were in the municipal borough of Sheffield 222 day schools, whereof 42 were public and 180 private. In the public schools there were 9333 scholars (males, 4986; females, 4347), and in the private schools 6284 (males, 2992; females, 3292). Of the public schools there were two, supported by general or local taxation (with 115 scholars); 13 endowed (with 1401 scholars); 25 supported by religious bodies (with 7530 scholars—3811 males, 3719 females). Of these public schools the Grammar School contained 77 boys; the two workhouse schools 115 children (59 boys and 56 girls). The Church of England schools were 14 National schools (with 5492 scholars—2804 boys, and 2688 girls), and 4 other schools with 322 scholars (71 boys and 251 girls). The Independents had two schools with 253 scholars (114 boys and 139 girls). The Wesleyans had 4 schools with 709 scholars (450 boys and 259 girls). The British school contained 754 scholars (372 boys and 382 girls). The Ragged School contained 176 scholars (77 boys and 98 girls).

The Sunday schools of the municipal borough of Sheffield were, in 1851, 63 in number, with 14,919 scholars, namely, 7380 boys and 7539 girls. Of these schools there were as follows:—

	No. of Schools.	Total.	No. of Scholars. Boys.	Girls.
Church of England	20	4524	2012	2512
Independents	10	2241	1136	1105
Baptists	4	1109	531	578
Society of Friends	1	187	127	60
Unitarians	1	214	84	130
Wesleyans	17	3984	2109	1875
Methodist New Connexion	5	1349	701	648
Primitive Methodists	1	519	254	265
Wesleyan Association	1	91	43	48
Wesleyan Reformers	1	319	198	121
Undefined Protestant Congregations	1	68	35	33
Roman Catholics	1	314	150	164

The schools are very numerous and well supported. The Free Grammar School in Charlotte street is a large stone building, erected in 1825, and endowed with £160 per annum. It was founded in the 17th century by James I. The master of the school receives £100 per annum, and the usher £50 per annum.

The Collegiate School, Broomhall, erected in 1835, is a proprietary establishment, situated in one of the most healthy spots, and surrounded with extensive pleasure grounds; the building is in the Tudor style, and was founded by a company of shareholders, 25 in number.

Wesley College, Glossop road, erected in 1837 at a cost of £10,000, has several acres of land devoted to pleasure grounds, which are tastefully laid out. The boys' Charity School, occupying a site on East Parade, contiguous to the church (St. Peter's), is supported at a cost of £1300 per annum; it affords board, lodging, clothing and instruction for 100 boys. The girls' Charity School is in St. James's-row, and also affords board, lodging, clothing and instruction to 70 girls. Both these schools are supported by endowments and subscriptions.

The National School, situate in Carver street, is the central school of the Sheffield National Society. It is attended by about 600 boys and girls, and with its numerous branch Day and Sunday Schools, both in the town and suburbs, affords education to at least 6000 children.

There are also various Day and Sunday Schools attached to the Church and Dissenting places of worship.

There are two good-sized Theatres, which are well supported and constantly open.

The Theatre Royal is situate in Tudor street. and the Adelphi in Furnival road, facing the Victoria Railway Station.

Shrewsbury Hospital is situate in Shrewsbury road, and was founded by Gilbert Earl of Shrewsbury in 1616, for the dwelling and maintenance of 20 poor men and the same number of women, the former receiving an allowance of ten shillings and the latter of eight shillings weekly. The Chaplain and Governor is the Rev. John Stacye, M.A.

Sheffield has many remarkable Literary establishments.

The Sheffield Library is a proprietary establishment, founded in 1771, and has about 20,000 volumes. The number of shareholders is about 280, and the yearly subscription 25s. each. The Mechanics' and Apprentices' Library was founded in 1824, and has about 5000 volumes. The Law Library was formed in 1836.

The Literary and Philosophical Society of Sheffield was founded in 1822, and has 118 members and a library of 500 volumes.

The Mechanics' Institution was founded in 1832, and has a new building, formed by the profits of exhibitions and bazaars, a library of 4500 volumes and a news room. The Norfolk Street Athenæum has 3000 volumes.

The Church of England Instruction Society is a kind of mechanics' institution, with a library of 2000 volumes, and museum.

The number of volumes in Public Libraries in Sheffield is about 30,000.

The People's College was established some years ago, and has excited considerable attention.

Sheffield is the seat of a medical school in connexion with the University of London. It is called the Medical and Anatomical Academy, and is held in a building in Surrey street. The pupils attend the General Infirmary. This latter is a large stone building, erected in 1794 and enlarged in 1841. It is maintained by public subscription. There is a Dispensary, erected in West street in 1834; an Eye Dispensary, and an Eye and Ear Dispensary.

The School of Design is in connexion with the educational department of the Board of Trade, and is chiefly supported by the Government.

The Botanical Gardens are one of the chief ornaments of Sheffield. They were opened in 1836, and were laid out by Robert Marnock, one of the most celebrated landscape gardeners, and who in consequence of this design was employed to lay out the Royal Botanic Gardens in the Regent's Park. They occupy about 18 acres of land and cost £18,000. The scenery is one of the finest compositions of the artist who designed them.

Besides the libraries there are several news rooms. The Subscription News Room in East Parade was formed about 1815, and there are a Conservative News Room and News Room at the Music Hall.

The Music Hall was built in 1823. It is a large stone building, and is in Surrey street.

SHEFFIELD SUBURBS.

ATTERCLIFFE, with the Hamlet of CARBROOK.

ATTERCLIFFE is a village giving name to the township of Attercliffe-cum-Darnall and to an ecclesiastical district, in the parish and parliamentary franchise of Sheffield, Sheffield Union and County Court, Strafforth and Tickhill wapentake, Hallamshire, West Riding of Yorkshire, Doncaster deanery, West Riding archdeaconry and York archbishopric. It is 1½ miles north-east of Sheffield, between the river Don and the Tinsley canal, and 1½ miles north-west of the Darnall station of the Manchester, Sheffield and Lincolnshire railway. It is nearly united to the town of Sheffield, of which it may almost be considered a suburb. The inhabitants are employed in the cutlery trades—pen, pocket and other knives, scissors, chisels, anvils, scythes, spades, shovels; also in the manufacture of drain-pipes and pottery.

The district church or chapel of ease is at the eastern end of the village, and was built in 1629. The burial-ground alone is used. The new chapel of Christ Church is a handsome building in the Gothic style of architecture, in a picturesque situation on a bold cliff near the river Don. It was erected in 1826 at a cost of £14,000, derived from a parliamentary grant. The living is a perpetual curacy, valued at £181, in the gift of the Vicar of Sheffield and incumbency of the Rev. C. T. Wilkinson.

The chapelry was constituted an ecclesiastical district by Order of Council on the 4th May, 1849.

The Independents and Methodists have each a place of worship.

The Town school was built in 1779, and is partly endowed. The Girls' National school was built in 1824. There are four almshouses, rebuilt in 1836, and some small benefactions for the poor. The Duke of Norfolk is lord of the manor, lord paramount and impropriator. Earl Fitzwilliam is a large landowner.

The township of Attercliffe-cum-Darnall contains 1270 acres, and had, in 1851, a population of 4873. It includes the hamlets of Darnall and Carbrook. The ecclesiastical district of Attercliffe contained, in 1851, a population of 3000.

CARBROOK is a hamlet half a mile north-east, near the Brightside station of the Sheffield and Rotherham railway.

BEIGHTON is a village most pleasantly situate on an eminence, and railway station of the Manchester, Sheffield and Lincolnshire line, 47½ miles from Manchester, 157½ from London, 7 miles south of Rotherham, 10 miles north-east of Chesterfield, 7 miles south-east of Sheffield, 2 miles north of Eckington station and south of Woodhouse mill station, in the Hundred of Scarsdale and Union of Rotherham, North Derbyshire, Chesterfield archdeaconry, Lichfield bishopric and Canterbury archbishopric. The approach to the village from Eckington is through a massive stone cutting. The parish comprised, with Hackenthorpe, 2 miles east, Birley, 2 miles east, and SOTHAL WATERTHORPE, half a mile west, a population, in 1851, of 1123 inhabitants, and contains 3070 acres of fertile land, chiefly belonging to the Earl of Manvers, who is the lord of the manor, and patron of the church (St. Mary's), an ancient structure in good repair, with square tower of pointed stone, and having a tower, nave, aisles, chancel, porch, font, six bells, organ and clock, in the decorated and perpendicular style. The living is an endowed vicarage, value £312, and 25 to 30 acres of glebe land; patron, Earl Manvers; the incumbent is the Hon. and Rev. Thomas Erskine, M.A., who has a neat residence adjoining the church. There is a small endowment for five free scholars.

The Methodists have a small place of worship at HACKENTHORPE; at this latter hamlet scythes, sickles and reaping-hooks are manufactured very extensively.

BIRLEY is a picturesque hamlet, celebrated for its spa and baths; the water at this place has been in repute for centuries.

BRADFIELD is a township and chapelry, consisting of 19 hamlets, and distant about 7 miles north-west from Sheffield, the post town, the former being about 167 miles from London, 41½ from Manchester, and 3 miles south-east from the Oughtibridge station on the Manchester, Sheffield and Lincolnshire railway, in the Hundred of Upper Strafforth and Tickhill, Union of Wortley, parish of Ecclesfield, and West Riding of the county of York, and diocese of York. It is situate on the road leading from Sheffield to Manchester. There are two small streams running south-west to Loxley, where they take the name of the Loxley brook. The living is a perpetual curacy, value £200 per annum, residence, and 138 acres, 2 roods, 20 perches of glebe land, in the gift of the vicar of Ecclesfield; the Rev. Edmund Wood, A.M., is the present incumbent. The church is a building of good stone, in the early Norman style of architecture. It stands on the brow of a hill, and commands a fine view of the dale of Bradfield. It has a porch, tower, nave, aisles, organ, six bells, two brasses, and a register dating from 1559. There is a chapel for the Wesleyans, built in 1817, in Lower Bradfield. There is an endowed school for boys and girls, supported by Mrs. Rimington, lately of Broomhead Hall, now of Rockbere House, near Exeter. Broomhead Hall is the residence of James Willson Rimington Willson, Esq., magistrate. The Water Company of Sheffield are now making a dam on the Hagaen river, near Lower Bradfield, for the supply of an increase of water; this stream runs through Smallfield, and thence flows into the Rivelin at Malin bridge. The population of the township, in 1851, was 6865, and the acreage is about 33,730. The soil varies, but is very good, excepting the moors, which are about 10,000 acres, where there is fine shooting for grouse. The Duke of Norfolk is lord of the manor.

The township of Bradfield includes the divisions for highway purposes of BOLSTERTONE, Bradfield, Nether Bradfield, Bradfield Dale, BRIGHTHOLMLEE, DUNGWORTH (2 miles south-east), FAIREST GREEN, HOLDSWORTH, MIDHOPE, MOORWOOD, ONESACRE, OUGHTIBRIDGE-WITH-GATE, SMALLFIELD, STANNINGTON, STORRS, UGHILL, WIGTWIZZLE, and WORRAL.

At Bradfield is a mound called the CASTLE HILL, and near the church a Saxon camp called BAILEY HILL. Bardike is an ancient work. There are many barrows and some monumental stones in the neighbourhood.

BRIGHTSIDE BIERLOW and GRIMESTHORPE, suburbs of Sheffield, were formerly united to the chapelry of Attercliffe, but have recently been formed into a district parish, and a church erected at the south end of the village of Grimesthorpe, to serve both villages. Brightside is distant 2¼ miles north from Sheffield, and 3½ south-west from Rotherham, on the Sheffield and Rotherham line of railway, and has a station in the village. It is in the Union of Sheffield, archbishopric of York, and archdeaconry of the West Riding of Yorkshire. The church, a substantial stone building in the Gothic style of architecture, has a nave, chancel, and tower and spire at the south side. It has been erected on ground given by Earl Fitzwilliam, and was consecrated on the 5th of April, 1854, by the Archbishop of York, in the presence of a large assemblage of the clergy and gentry of the neighbourhood; the incumbent is the Rev. Thomas Hulme. Here is a National school for boys and girls. There are several coalpits in this district, belonging to the Pitsmoor and the Brightside Coal Company. Messrs. Jessop and Sons have large rolling and tilting works here. Here is an aluminous spring.

GRIMESTHORPE is a village distant from Sheffield 2 miles north, and 4 west of Rotherham. Brightside church serves this village as well as Brightside, and is erected at the south end of the village on rising ground. The Wesleyan Methodists and Reformed Wesleyans have chapels here. There is also a National school in this village. Messrs. William Wilkinson and Sons have large works for the manufacture of patent sheep-shears, &c. Scissors and forks are made here. The Licensed Victuallers' Hospital is pleasantly situate in a field near the village. It is an institution for decayed licensed victuallers, their wives and widows, and is well supported. In front of the houses is a handsome monument to the memory of the late Mr. Wiley, a great friend of the society; Mr. W. Appleyard, Barker Pool, Sheffield, is secretary. Here are an ancient embankment and a camp.

DARNALL is an ecclesiastical district and scattered village, 2 miles east of Sheffield station. The Manchester, Sheffield and Lincoln line of railway passes through, and has a station here, 43 miles from Manchester and 160½ from London. The chief manufacture is for spring-knives, scissors and razor scales. The church is a stone building in the modern style of architecture, built in 1841, and dedicated to the Holy Trinity, with a square tower and an octagon belfry. The living is a perpetual curacy, value £150, in the gift of the vicar of Sheffield; the Rev. William Louis Gibson, B.A., is the present incumbent. The population of Darnall district, in 1851, was 2,080. The Wesleyans and Independents have each a chapel here. Darnall is in Attereliffe township, Sheffield parish and Union, Strafforth south wapentake, West Riding, and archdeaconry, shire and archbishopric of York.

DORE-with-TOTLEY.

DORE is an agricultural village, formerly a chapelry or quarter of Dronfield, but, on the 31st January, 1844, with the hamlet of TOTLEY, was made an ecclesiastical district; but it is still a township of Dronfield. It is pleasantly situate, 10 miles north-west from Chesterfield, and 5 south-west from Sheffield, in the Hundred of Scarsdale and Union of Ecclesall Bierlow, North Derbyshire, Lichfield bishopric and Canterbury archbishopric. It now comprises 3,800 acres of land; the lords of the manors are the Duke of Devonshire and Lord Middleton. Scythe-making is carried on, and there are a copperas works and brickfields. The church, rebuilt in 1828, is a neat stone building, with a square tower. The living is a perpetual curacy, in the patronage of the Earl Fitzwilliam, now £100 annual value, and enjoyed by the Rev. John Thomas Foster Aldred, B.A. Divine service is performed in the parish once a day, the incumbent's duty being divided between this place and the Union workhouse of Ecclesall Bierlow, of which he is chaplain. There is an endowed school erected on the site of the old chapel, the master receiving £30 per annum for instructing 30 free scholars. The population of Dore township was, in 1851, 574; and of the ecclesiastical district of Dore and Totley, 977.

TOTLEY is a village and township of Dronfield parish, but is included in the ecclesiastical district of Dore-with-Totley, and is in the same jurisdictions. It is 6 miles south-south-west of Sheffield and 1 south of Dore. The population of Dore, in 1851, was 403. The chief manufactures are scythe-making and fire-clay and brick-making. Here is an Infant school built by D'Ewes Coke, Esq., of Totley Hall, and having an endowment of £6 a year.

DRONFIELD is a town and parish, which formerly had a market, lying in a valley, well watered by several springs, and taking its name from the river Dron; on the high road from Chesterfield to Sheffield, 6 miles north-west of the former, and 6 south of the latter place, in the Hundred of Scarsdale, and in the Union of Chesterfield, North Derbyshire, Lichfield bishopric and Canterbury archbishopric. Dronfield parish comprises 15,580 acres of land, and a population of 5,231. The population of the town and township is 2469. Mrs. Cecil is lady of the manor. There is an extensive ironfoundry, where the manufacture of spindles, flyers, also railroad wheels on an improved principle, form the chief trade; also scythe and edge tools are made to a considerable extent. Coal and sandstone are worked here. The church of St. John, standing on a height, is a large and handsome building, in the early Gothic style of architecture; it is 132 feet in length, its tower and spire is also 132 feet high. The living is a vicarage, the annual value £224, in the gift of the Crown; the incumbent is the Rev. William D. Bertles, M.A. There is a chapel for Independents and one for the Methodists. A school founded and endowed by Henry Fanshawe in 1567, and since rebuilt and enlarged, is free to all the poor of the parish; the income derived from certain land and buildings produces £199 yearly, which is paid to a competent master and an usher. There is a mechanics' institute. Several small charities produce about £50 per annum. A cattle fair is held yearly, April 25th, a feast on the nearest Sunday to Midsummer-day, and a hiring for servants November 3rd. Dronfield parish comprises the townships of HOLMESFIELD, COAL ASTON, UNSTONE, TOTLEY, and LITTLE BARLOW.

SUMMERLEY is 1½ miles east, UNTHANK 4 miles south-west, UPPER KNOWL 2 miles east, MILLTHORPE 3 miles south-west, and WOODTHORP 3 miles west.

HOLMESFIELD is a township and chapelry in Dronfield parish, and in the same jurisdiction. The population, in 1851, was 520. Holmesfield is 7½ miles south-by-west from Sheffield, and 1 south-west from Dronfield. The chapel of ease was erected in 1826 on the site of an old one. The living is a perpetual curacy, in the gift of trustees. The incumbent is the Rev. Thomas Hirst, B.D., who has a good house and 60 acres of land, valued at £97 yearly, with a provision that for every neglect in performing divine service, either from illness or other cause, he shall pay 10s. to the poor of the parish. There is a Free school for educating 22 boys, the master of which receives £20 yearly. The Duke of Rutland is lord of the manor.

CARTLEDGE is half a mile south of Holmesfield.

UNSTONE is a township of Dronfield parish, in the same jurisdiction, on the river Dron, 1 mile south-west of Dronfield, and 5 north-west of Chesterfield. The population, in 1851, was 776. Good coal is found and worked here, and there is a sandstone quarry. There are some small benefactions for the poor.

WOODHOUSE, or DRONFIELD WOODHOUSE, is a hamlet close to Holmesfield, and 1½ miles from Dronfield. Here are coalpits.

COAL ASTON is a township of Dronfield parish, and in the same jurisdiction, 1 mile north-east. The poor have several small benefactions here. The population, in 1851, was 421. ASTON collieries are near here.

LITTLE BARLOW is a small township on the Staveley side, and in 1851 had a population of 68.

ECCLESFIELD is an extensive parish and considerable village, 5 miles north of Sheffield, 6 west of Masbrough, and 10 south of Barnsley, on the old north road from Leeds to London, in the Hundred and Union of Wortley, Hallamshire, West Riding, shire, bishopric and archbishopric of York. The church is a good structure, dedicated to St. Mary. It was formerly called the "Minster of the Moors." It is in the perpendicular style of architecture, and consists of a porch, nave, chancel, north and south aisles, north and south transepts, tower, with a clock and peal of eight bells. In the interior is a fine table monument of Sir Richard Scott, a follower of Lord Strafford, some ancient glass, and numerous mural tablets. Here was formerly a parochial library. The living is a vicarage (with residence) in the gift of the Duke of Norfolk. The Rev. Alfred Gatty, M.A., is the incumbent, and the Rev. Jonathan Eastwood, M.A., curate. There are chapels for Independents, Wesleyans, and New Connexion Methodists. There is a National and Infants' school for boys, girls, and infants, liberally endowed. A statute is held yearly for the hiring of servants. The soil is clayey; the subsoil is clay. The Duke of Norfolk is lord of the manor, and William Smith, Esq., of Barnes Hall, W. F. Dixon, Esq., of Page Hall, and John Jeffcock, Esq., of Cowley, are chief landowners. There are charities of the yearly value of £300. Iron and coal mines are found in this parish. There are remains of an ancient camp and Roman ridge in Winco wood, &c. There are many gentlemen's seats distributed over the parish, among which may be mentioned Page Hall, Brush House, Cowley, Bolsover House, Cliff House, Birley House, &c. Manufactures are carried on of files, forks, nails, and bracebits. On Ecclesfield Common are a paper manufactory and iron foundry. Coal, ironstone, and black and fire-brick clay are worked in the parish. At Ecclesfield was formerly a religious priory of the Order of St. Wundville, which in 1386 was given to the Carthusian monastery of St. Anne, near Coventry.

The parish of Ecclesfield consists of two townships, Ecclesfield and Bradfield, comprising 43,450 acres and 16,870 inhabitants in 1851. The township of Ecclesfield proper contains 9810 acres, and a population of 10,005, and includes the hamlets of ALDWARK; BELLHOUSES; BRACKEN HILL; BURNTCROSS, 1½ miles north-west; CRESWICK; CHAPELTOWN, 2 miles north; DEERLANDS; HESLEY; MIDDLETON GREEN, 2 miles north; HARTLEY BROOK, half a mile west; HIGH GREEN; LAPWATER; and PARSON GREEN. BUTTERTHWAITE is 3 miles north-west of Brightside station; MORTOMLEY; PISMIRE, 2 miles north-west; POTTERSHILL; SHIRE GREEN, 2 miles north-west; NETHER SHIRE, 2½ miles north-west; THOMPSON HILL; WINCO BANK, 1 north-west; WISEWOOD, and part of OWLERTON. The other hamlets are near Wadsley station, on the Sheffield and Manchester Railway—namely, WADSLEY, and WADSLEY BRIDGE; SOUTHEY, half a mile west; BIRLEY CARR, half a mile north; ELM GREEN, 1½ miles east; WHITLEY, 2½ miles north; SKEW HILL, 1½ north; UPPER and LOWER HIRST, 1½ miles north-west; GRENOSIDE, 2 miles north; LONGLEY, 2 north; and CRESWICK, 2 north; and SHEFFIELD LANE TOP is 3 miles north of Sheffield.

Ecclesfield parish includes, besides the ecclesiastical districts of Ecclesfield, those of CHAPELTOWN, constituted 18th September, 1844, and containing 2434 persons in 1851; STANNINGTON, constituted 24th February, 1843, with a population of 2356; WADSLEY, constituted 30th June, 1841; and parts of DALTON and THORPE HESLEY.

BIRLEY CARR is a hamlet half a mile north of Wadsley station, 3 north-west from Sheffield, 39 from Manchester, and 166 from London. File-cutting is carried on here.

BUTTERTHWAITE, 3 miles north-west of Brightside station, has a small population, employed partly in file-cutting.

DEERLAND is a hamlet, in which some file-cutting is carried on.

GRENOSIDE is a large village, with GRENO HOUSE and GRENO WOOD, 2 miles north-east of Oughtibridge station, 2 north of Wadsley station, 4½ north-by-west from Sheffield, 38 from Manchester, and 169 from London. Here are large steel works, iron foundries, and stone quarries; and spindles, nails, files, knives, grates, fenders, screw bolts, shuttle tips, linen, and baskets are made here. Here is a union workhouse. There are schools for boys and girls. Grenoside is in the manor of GRENOFIRTH, on the north side of the Don, of which the Duke of Norfolk is lord.

HIRST (Upper and Lower) is 1½ miles north-west from Wadsley station, and 1 south-east from Oughtibridge station.

PISMIRE is a village 2 miles north-west from Brightside station, and 166½ from London. The population are chiefly employed in fork-making.

SOUTHEY is half a mile west of Wadsley station, 3 miles from Sheffield, 39 from Manchester, and 166 from London. It is a manor of the Duke of Norfolk. Pocket and spring knives and hammer shafts are made here.

WINCO BANK, 1 mile north-west of Brightside station, and 166 from London, is chiefly remarkable for the antiquities in its neighbourhood. There is a school for boys and girls. The population are partly employed in fork-making.

Letters received through Sheffield

ECKINGTON is a market town, parish, and railway station, near the river Doe, Moss brook, Chesterfield canal, and Midland railway, in Scarsdale Hundred and Chesterfield Union, North Derbyshire, Lichfield bishopric, Canterbury archbishopric, and Derby archdeaconry, 162¼ miles from London, 6¼ from Chesterfield, 30½ from Derby, 16 from Rotherham, 14½ from Sheffield, 22¾ from Barnsley, 43½ from Leeds, and 55¾ from Manchester. The chief trade is the making of scythes, sickles, shovels, spades and nails, likewise penknives; there is also an iron foundry. Sir Reresby Sitwell is lord of the manor and owner of most of the land. The church, dedicated to St. Paul and St. Peter, is a large ancient structure of stone, with tower and spire, in good repair, and lately repewed. The living is a rectory, in the gift of the Crown, and was formerly annexed to that of Killamarsh; the latter, as also the church at Ridgeway, by Order in Council, June, 1843, have been made separate benefices. The present value of Eckington living is £800 per annum, and enjoyed by the Rev. E. H. B. Estcourt, M.A., who has a neat residence opposite the church. The Free school, built in 1832, is in the Gothic style, and liberally endowed. The Wesleyans and Methodists have small chapels here. Here is the site of a castle, and a place called the DANE BALK. Petty sessions are held at the White Hart inn the fourth Thursday in every month. A small market for butter, eggs and vegetables is held every Friday, and in 1845 two cattle fairs were established, and are held the third Wednesday in April and October. The Midland railway passes through the vale; there is a station at RENISHAW, about 1 mile north-east of the church, close to the park and estate of Sir Reresby Sitwell, Bart. The ancient hall and mansion stand on a fine height, commanding one of the finest views in the county. SPINK HILL, 1 mile east of the station, is on a bold height, where a college and handsome Roman Catholic church have been recently erected, with tower and spire, which from its elevated position is seen to great advantage for many miles.

MOSBOROUGH or MOSBROUGH, is 1 mile from the church of Eckington. The Wesleyans and Primitive Methodists have each a chapel here. There is also an endowed school, the master of which receives £28 yearly, a good house and garden, for teaching 15 free scholars. Sir Reresby Sitwell, Bart., is lord of the manor. The charities are about £50 yearly. Here are coal-pits and brick-kilns. Sickles are made here.

PLUMBLEY, 1 mile north-west of Eckington, SPINK HILL, ¼ mile north of Renishaw, and MOORHOLE, are other hamlets.

Eckington parish includes the townships of Eckington, Troway, Renishaw, Ridgeway, and Mosborough, and includes 6610 acres, and a population in 1851 of 4958. The parish produces coal, ironstone and lime.

GREASBROUGH is a township, chapelry and large village near Wentworth park, in Rotherham parish and Union, West Riding, shire, bishopric and archbishopric of York, 2½ miles north of Rotherham, 7½ north of Sheffield, 46½ from Derby, 36 from Leeds, and 172 from London. The church is a large stone building, dedicated to St. Mary, in the Gothic style of architecture, built in 1828 at a cost of £4750. The living is a perpetual curacy, in the patronage of Earl Fitzwilliam; the Rev. William Judd Upton, M.A., is the incumbent. Here are chapels for the Independents and Wesleyans. The district is well supplied with schools, which are held in lofty rooms beneath the church, as well as a large school-house at PARKGATE, and are liberally endowed by Earl Fitzwilliam, who has extensive coal mines in the neighbourhood, which, with the iron works of Messrs. Beale, and the steel works of Messrs. Oxleys and Cooper, at Parkgate, employ a great portion of the inhabitants. The area of the parish is 2329 acres, and the population, in 1851, was 2017. There are several charities for the poor.

The township includes CINDER BRIDGE, BASSINTHWAITE and GINHOUSE, and parts of LOWER HAUGH and PARKGATE.

Greasborough was constituted an ecclesiastical district under date of the 29th of June, 1849, and had a population, in 1851, of 2017.

HANDSWORTH is a parish and village in Sheffield Union, Strafforth south wapentake, West Riding, shire, bishopric and archbishopric of York, 2 miles west from Woodhouse station, 5 south-east of Sheffield, 169½ from London, 37½ from Derby, 20 from Barnsley, and 42 from Leeds. The parish contains 3,510 acres, and a population, in 1851, of 3,264, distributed in the hamlets or constablewicks of GLEADLESS, Handsworth, INTAKE, RICHMOND and WOODHOUSE. This is one of the parishes in Hallamshire, and is a manor of the Duke of Norfolk. The Midland line of railway runs through the borders of Woodhouse and has a station there; and the Manchester, Sheffield and Lincolnshire line also passes over it by a viaduct. The church is an ancient structure standing on an elevated point, has a small tower and spire, and with the interior has recently been repaired. The living is a rectory, value £589, in the patronage of trustees and incumbency of the Rev. J. Hand, LL.B., who has a neat residence here. There is a small church at Gleadless, the living united to that of Handsworth; the Rev. Thomas Dunnell, curate, officiates. There is an Independent and also a Wesleyan chapel. There are many collieries and quarries in the parish. WOODTHORPE HALL is the mansion of John B. Brown, esq.

GLEADLESS is a village and constablewick of Handsworth, 4 miles south-east from Sheffield. Here is a chapel of ease to the north of the village, built in 1840. Bethel chapel belongs to the Independents. Here are collieries and ironstone pits. A National school has been built here. Table blade forging is carried on. HURFIELD is ½ mile west.

INTAKE is a village and constablewick, 2 miles south-west of Handsworth and 3 south-east of Sheffield. Here are WOODTHORPE, Intake and other collieries.

RICHMOND is a village and constablewick, 1 mile south-west of Handsworth.

WOODHOUSE is a large village and constablewick, 1 mile south-west of the station. Here are a Methodist chapel and a National school.

WOODHOUSE MILL station is 167½ miles from London, and 9½ from Sheffield. Near it are Woodhouse mills and BALLIFIELD colliery. It is near the river Rother.

KIMBERWORTH is a large village, and gives its name to a township, distant 2 miles west of Rotherham and 5 north of Sheffield, Rotherham parish and Union, in the West Riding of Yorkshire and diocese of York. The church, dedicated to St. Thomas, was built by subscription in 1838; it is a neat stone building, with one bell. The Rev. P. S. Sandberg is the incumbent, and the Rev. Charles Collier curate. Here is also a good school, partly endowed, and a Wesleyan chapel. GRANGE HALL, the seat of the Earl of Effingham, is situate in a dale on the border of the parish, about 2 miles west of the village.

Kimberworth township contains 2,940 acres, and a population, in 1851, of 6,952, chiefly in the town of Rotherham. The ecclesiastical district, constituted by Order of Council, 2nd October, 1843, contained, in 1851, a population of 2,542. Here are collieries.

Kimberworth is mentioned in Doomsday as including six carucates under cultivation, and as having Elsy for its lord; but by the Normans it was granted to Roger de Buslè, who had here eight villeins and twelve borderers. It was at that time part of the honor of Pickhill. At an early period in the middle ages ironstone was worked here and forges set up, as they existed even in 1161. The forges at Tunnocliffe, or Thundercliffe, were worked as a speculation by the monks of Kirkstead, and they had a grange here for the accommodation of their resident member. Cinderhill is the site of the most ancient known bloomery in Yorkshire.

The township contains the hamlets of BLACKBURN, 2 miles west of Rotherham; BRUDGATE, 1 west; HILL TOP, 2 west; HOLMES, in Rotherham; JORDAN DAM, 1½ south-west; KIMBERWORTH; MASBOROUGH, in Rotherham; NETHER FOLD; SCHOLES, and part of THORPE HESLEY.

BLACKBURN, 2 miles west, has a National school, endowed by the Countess of Effingham, and a Wesleyan chapel. The population are partly employed in fork-making.

NORTON, a pleasant village and parish, with the constablewicks of HEMSWORTH, GREENHILL, BRADWAY, NORTON LEES and WOODSEATS annexed, in the Hundred of Scarsdale and Union of Ecclesall Bierlow, North Derbyshire, distant from Sheffield 4 miles south, 8 north-west from Chesterfield, 6 north-west from Eckington station, and 164 from London, contained, in 1851, 4330 acres and 1856 inhabitants. The principal part is rich and fertile. Offley Shore, by his assignees, is lord of the manor. The principal seats in the neighbourhood are Norton Hall (now unoccupied); the Oaks, a handsome mansion, the residence of William John Bagshawe, Esq.; and Norton House, an ancient building, the residence of Thomas Beard Holy, Esq. There are several small charities bequeathed by benevolent individuals for the benefit of the poor of this parish. The church, dedicated to St. James, is a spacious and handsome building, with a square bell tower: in the inside are several monuments; the most conspicuous is one to the memory of the celebrated Sir Francis Chantrey, who was born here, and which was executed by himself; also a handsome statue of him, just finished and placed in the high road opposite the church. The living is a vicarage, value £228, in the gift of the Rev. Henry Pearson, father of the present vicar, the Rev. Henry Hollingworth Pearson, M.A. At MAUGERHAY is an Endowed school, conducted by Mr. Charles J. Fox. Scythes, sickles and saw files are made in the parish. Hemsworth is three-quarters of a mile east. Petty sessions are held the second Thursday in every month at the Bagshawe Arms inn. The Farmers' Club, established in 1843, and which now numbers more than 130 members, hold their monthly meetings at this commodious inn: W. J. Bagshawe, Esq., is president; Mr. George Rogers, secretary; and Mr. R. Booker, Jun., treasurer and librarian.

NORTON LEES is 1½ miles north-west.

GREENHILL is a village, 1 mile south-west, with a National school. WOODSEATS is 1 mile north-west; BRADWAY, 2 south-west; MEARSBROOK, 2 north-west; BOLE HILL, 1 north-west.

ROTHERHAM is a large market and union town and railway station in the West Riding, consisting of the township of Rotherham and of the hamlet of Masborough, in the township of Kimberworth, the former containing, in 1851, 2140 acres and 6325 inhabitants, and the latter a large population, making an aggregate of nearly 10,000 people. Both townships are in the parish and Union of Rotherham, in the south wapentake of Strafforth, deanery of Doncaster, West Riding, shire, bishopric and archbishopric of York. The parish includes the townships of Rotherham, Orgreave, Catcliffe, Brinsworth, Tinsley, Kimberworth, Greasborough, and part of Dalton, with 12,640 acres, and a population, in 1851, of 16,730. Rotherham is at the junction of the Midland and Sheffield and Rotherham railways, and of the river Rother, with the Don navigation and Tinsley canal. Masborough station is 172 miles from London, 5 north-east from Sheffield, 16 from Chesterfield, 40 from Derby, 32¾ from Belper, 79¼ from Leicester, 66¾ from Loughborough, 89¼ from Rugby, 81¼ from Birmingham, 63¼ from Lichfield, 107¾ from Worcester, 87½ from Dudley, 13¼ from Barnsley, 34 from Leeds, 47¾ from Bradford, 61¼ from Skipton, 72¾ from Colne, 47¾ from York, 92¾ from Darlington, 135 from Newcastle, 291½ from Berwick, 255¾ from Edinburgh, 14 from Doncaster, 39 from Lincoln, 69 from Great Grimsby, 66 from New Holland (Hull), 22 from Wakefield, 46¼ from Manchester, 77¾ from Liverpool, 52 from Stockport, 27 from Huddersfield, 42 from Bradford, 134¼ from Gloucester, 171½ from Bristol, 280 from Plymouth, and 308½ from Aberdeen.

Rotherham Union is arranged in five sub-districts—1, Beighton parish, and township of Aston, with Aughton, Orgreave, Catcliffe, Treeton, Ulley, and Brampton-en-le-Morthen; 2, Wickersley and Whiston parishes, and the townships of Brinsworth, Tinsley, Rotherham and Dalton; 3, Rawmarsh parish, and the townships of Kimberworth and Greasborough; 4, the townships of Wentworth, Brampton Bierlow, Wath-upon-Dearne and Swinton; 5, the parishes of Hooton Roberts, Thrybergh, Ravenfield, Laughton-en-le-Morthen, and Maltby, with the township of Bramley. The population, in 1851, was 33,082, and the area 50,591 acres.

The number of houses in 1841 and 1851 was as follows:—

Rotherham (the town of the Rother) appears to have arisen in the Anglo-Saxon times. In the time of Edward the Confessor it was the property of Acun, as a manor of five carucates, and was valued at £4. Of the five carucates the lord held one, eight villeins and three borderers held two carucates and a half, and there was a mill yielding ten shillings a year rent. Fou acres of meadow and seven of pasturable wood belonged to the place, and there was a church. After the Norman accession Acum was displaced, and Nigel Fossard was put in possession by the Earl of Mortain, the superior lord. The family of Nigel, however, sub-infeuded Rotherham. At a later period the interest in Rotherham was disputed between the family of William de Vesci and that of Tilli. John de Vesci gave all that he possessed at Rotherham to the abbot and monks of Rufford, who thenceforth acquired the chief interest in the town and manor, at which time, in the reign of Henry III., there was a market, fair, mill, bakehouse, fisheries and local courts. The monks likewise acquired the interest of the Tillis' and others. The abbot, besides the other rights, held assize of bread and beer, tumbril, pillory, standard of measure of both length and weight, infangthief and gallows.

From that date Rotherham was under the jurisdiction of the abbot of the Cistercians' house of Rufford, in Nottinghamshire, until the dissolution. In the year 1307, King Edward I. made a grant to the people of Rotherham of another market to be held on Friday, and a fair yearly at Midsummer. The period of holding this fair was varied by subsequent charters, and it must have been of some importance, as it was held for several days.

In the fifteenth century the town obtained great advantages from one of its townsmen. Robert Scott, called De Rotherham, was born there in 1423. He became archbishop of York, and greatly benefited his native town. In the parish church he founded a chantry, and in 1483 he founded a college of ecclesiastics, consisting of a provost and two fellows, who were to perform divine service and teach a Grammar school free of cost to the learners. The course was to include Latin, poetry, rhetoric and music, including singing, writing and arithmetic. It was to be both a trade school and a preparatory school for holy orders, and the class of writing and arithmetic might be attended by those who did not wish to follow the Latin classes, giving an example of a more liberal and practical institution than until lately was the characteristic of grammar schools. Six poor scholars were to act as choristers of the church. Five chantry priests were provided with apartments in the college. It was by this great benefactor that the church of Rotherham was so magnificently rebuilt. This college was not finally suppressed until the reign of Edward VI. The court house is partly built on the site.

The destruction of this college was a great loss to Rotherham. It deprived it of a collegiate institution, and of a large body of clergy deriving their substance from estates in various distant places.

On the 6th of October, 1537, Rotherham, taken from the monks of Rufford, was granted by Henry VIII. to George, Earl of Shrewsbury. In the default of male issue of the house of Talbot, the lordship of Rotherham became the property of the Howards, dukes of Norfolk, and became afterwards the appanage of a younger branch of that princely house. In 1731 this branch received the title of Earls of Effingham, and by them it has continued to be held.

In 1584 the loss of the college was supplied by the foundation of the Grammar school, or, according to the opinion of some, the Collegiate school had been maintained and was only then further endowed. Mary Queen of Scots, when a prisoner, rested at Rotherham one night in the first year of her captivity, and Charles I., when a prisoner in the hands of the Scotch, likewise stayed a night there.

During the civil wars Rotherham took early part with the Parliament. In September, 1642, the people assembled at Rotherham Moor and proceeded to throw up works around the town. It was established as a garrison by Lord Fairfax and held for the Parliament during the winter.

In 1643 the Royalist forces having been strengthened, advanced against Rotherham, and, headed by the Earl of Newcastle, took possession of the town after a smart resistance. The schoolboys gallantly took part in the contest in defence of liberty, and thirty of them worked a small gun against the enemy. When all their powder was spent the town surrendered on honourable terms, but the Earl of Newcastle levied great exactions on the town and inhabitants. The Royalists garrisoned the town, but after the glorious victory of Marston Moor it was readily yielded up to a detachment of the popular army.

The progress of Rotherham was in a great degree owing to the establishment in the last century of the iron works at Masbrough, by Samuel, Aaron and Jonathan Walker, who are looked upon as benefactors to the town, and were its chief supporters till the close of the last war. It was at their works that the great iron bridges of the beginning of this century were cast, including those of Sunderland, Yarm, Southwark, and Staines.

The iron trade is still a great trade here, and there are large factories for iron and steel, for founding and casting, for railway turntables, wheels, axles, rolling stock and plant, for stove grates, lathes, nails and spring knives; glass works, stone china, earthenware pottery, hot moulds and pipeclay works likewise give extensive employment. There are, further, breweries, maltings, saw mills, flax works, coach lofts, works for pyroligneous acid, starch and British gum, rope yards, and manufactures of oil case covers and combs. The town is largely engaged in the carrying trade; there are large wharfs on the river, and warehouses at the two railway stations. One railway station (that of Masborough) is a great station on the Midland railway; the other (that of Rotherham) is the terminus of the Sheffield and Rotherham railway. In the neighbourhood are gritstone quarries and a brick-kiln. The town is chiefly built of stone.

There are banks, and likewise a savings bank.

Rotherham is the chief place of the large parish and of the Union, and is the seat of a market and a County Court. The town is not incorporated, but under an Act of 1801 it has a body of commissioners, who have charge of the lighting and cleansing of the town, and by whom the market is governed. There is likewise a local board of health.

The markets for corn and cattle bring much trade to the town. The weekly market is held on Monday, and every second Monday there is a larger market or fair. The butter and poultry market is held weekly on Friday. There are fairs yearly on Whit-Monday and December 1st, and a statute fair for hiring servants on the first Monday in November. The shambles are near the Butter cross, and the cattle market is held in the Crofts.

In 1842 a new Corn Exchange and Butter Market was built at a cost of £950.

Quarter sessions and Petty sessions are held here, the latter on every second Monday. A Court Leet is held yearly, by whom a greave is elected and other officers. The police force is under the direction of the town commissioners. Besides the town commissioners, there is a body of twelve feoffees of the common lands of Rotherham, constituted under a deed of trust of the 26th of Elizabeth, who held certain common lands, and some houses, producing about £600 a year, for the relief of the poor people of the town, for the maintaining and repairing the bridges in and about the town, and the payment of common charges wherewith the town and its inhabitants may be charged. The feoffees are likewise governors of the Grammar School and of the Feoffees' School.

The Court House is a handsome building, erected in 1826 at a cost of upwards of £5,000. In it are held the Quarter and Petty Sessions, the County Court, Land Tax Commission, &c.

The Public Building was erected in 1829, at a cost of about £2,000, which was raised by public subscription. It is situate on the site of the old Town Hall, and in it are held the Grammar school, the Dispensary, the Subscription Library, and the News Room.

There are water-works for the supply of the town. The gas-works are near the bridge.

Over the Don is an ancient bridge of five pointed arches. On the centre pier is an ancient chapel. This was long used as the town prison.

The Earl of Effingham, one of the heads of the Howard family, is hereditary lord of the town and manor of Rotherham and of the manor of Kimberworth, patron of the living of Rotherham parish and impropriator of its great tithes, a feoffee of the town of Rotherham, and a governor of the Grammar school. He still holds a Court Leet, by his bailiffs, for the manors of Rotherham and Kimberworth. The Earl resides at Grange Hall, in Kimberworth.

The parish church of Rotherham is justly admired as one of the finest churches in Yorkshire next to the minsters. The site has been occupied as a church from the Anglo-Saxon times, but the present building dates from the reign of Edward IV., and is a fine specimen of the style of that period. It is a building in the form of a cross, with a large nave, aisles, north and south transept, and chancel. The chancel is separated from the nave by the organ screen. There is a marble monument in the south transept in commemoration of 50 young persons who were drowned in the river Don at Masborough on the 5th of July, 1841, on the occasion of a launch. The monument was raised by public subscription, as was a fund for the relief of the bereaved families. The church was thoroughly repaired in 1845, and has been frequently engraved in topographical and architectural works.

The church is sometimes called St. Mary's, but more commonly All Hallows. The transepts are of the same height as the nave, and at the intersection a high and graceful spire arises, with pinnacles reaching to one-third of its height and thence crocketed to the top. The font, supposed to have belonged to the old church, is Anglo-Saxon. On the south side of the altar are three stalls. Some of the tombs are very old. One of these is an altar tomb to Robert Swyft. Richard Howard, Earl of Effingham, is buried here. The parish register is old.

The living is a vicarage, valued at £170 yearly, and held by the Rev. R. Mosley.

The Rev. T. B. Calvert and Rev. T. Smith are curates. The patron of the living and impropriator of the rectorial tithes is the Earl of Effingham, lord of the manor.

The Independents have a chapel, which is connected with the college at Masborough and was built in 1815. It has an organ, and a Sunday school is attached to it.

The Particular Baptists have a chapel near the foot of Westgate.

The Unitarian chapel was originally a Presbyterian chapel, built in 1706. It was partly rebuilt in 1841. The congregation, in 1851, was about 60. The chapel is in Oilmill lane. It has a school connected with it.

The Wesleyans have a chapel in Talbot lane. This was built in 1805, and enlarged in 1832.

The Baptist chapel was formerly on Masborough common. It was rebuilt in 1836 in a handsome style and on an enlarged scale, at a cost of £1,100.

The Roman Catholic chapel is in Masborough, and was built in 1843. It is small, and the congregation, in 1851, was about 180.

The statistics of religious worship in the Rotherham Union, containing 33,082 inhabitants, according to the census of 1851, are as follows, showing the number of attendants at public worship on Sunday, March 30, 1851, &c. :—

The Rotherham Independent college is in Masborough. It is a college in connexion with the University of London, for the education of ministers for the Independent or Congregational denominations, and the students can present themselves for examination for degrees in arts at the university. The college was founded in 1756 and opened in 1795, and has two tutors and about twenty students. Attached to it are the Independent chapel and Sunday school. The income of the college is about £530 yearly.

The Grammar school is under the government of the town feoffees, and is supposed to be of ancient foundation. It is held in the Public Buildings and is not well endowed.

The Feoffees' school is another school under the same government, built in 1776, and having an endowment of £100 a year, half employed in payment of the master and half in finding clothing and books. There are 28 boys and 20 girls on the foundation.

The British and Foreign school was built in 1833. It is for 200 boys and 200 girls. The Parkgate school is likewise on the Lancasterian system, and was built by Earl Fitzwilliam in 1843. It is for 150 children.

Hollis's (or the Unitarian) school was founded by Thomas Hollis for the education of twelve poor boys and twelve poor girls. It is endowed with £20 a year.

There are two Infant schools, one in Wellgate and one in Westgate.

There is a Sunday school attached to the Independent college.

The town has a Mechanics' Institution with 1,200 volumes.

The Public Subscription Library was established in 1775. It has a collection of 3,000 volumes, and is held in the Public Building.

There is a small Mutual Improvement Society.

The News Room is held in the Public Building, and is supplied with the London and local newspapers.

The Almshouses were founded in 1780 by Mary Bellamy, for four poor women, and are endowed with about £70 a year.

The Great Dole produces £57 10s. yearly, and the parochial charities amount to about as much.

The Union Workhouse was built in 1839, and cost £5,000. Five acres of ground are attached to it.

MASBOROUGH is the suburb on the west side of the Don. HOLMES is a suburb on the same side higher up on the Don. Here is a colliery. ICKLES is a suburb to the south; BRADGATE is half a mile west; BASSINGTHORPE, 1 north-west; CLOUGH, half a mile west; EASTWOOD, 1 north-west; HERRINGTHORPE, 1 east; MOORGATE, half a mile south-east; and CANKLOW, 1 south.

Near Ickles Hall is the Roman camp and site of the station called AD FINES. Near this is BURGH GREEN. The Roman ridge passes about 1¼ miles west of Rotherham.

STANNINGTON is a hamlet and ecclesiastical district, in Bradfield township, Ecclesfield parish, Wortley Union, North Strafforth wapentake, West Riding, shire, bishopric and archbishopric of York. It is 5 miles west-by-north of Sheffield. The ecclesiastical district of Stannington was constituted by Order of Council on the 24th of February, 1843, and included, in 1851, a population of 2356. The church was built at a cost of £3000, by a parliamentary grant; the incumbent is the Rev. William Gill. There is a Unitarian chapel, built in 1653 and re-built in 1742. There is a National school. In 1723 a school was founded by William Rouksley. Spring knives, razor scales, and fire bricks are made here. Here are the remains of an ancient cross. In the neighbourhood are coalpits.

MATLOCK is half a mile north, and LOXLEY 1 north-east. On the Storr brook are several water-wheels, as also on the Rivelin.

WADSLEY is an ecclesiastical district, town, railway station, and hamlet, in Ecclesfield township and parish, Wortley Union, North Strafforth wapentake, West Riding, shire, bishopric and archbishopric of York. Wadsley is on the river Don, and is a station on the Manchester and Sheffield railway, 2¾ miles from Sheffield, 38½ from Manchester, 68½ from Hull, and 46 from Lincoln. In 1307, in the 35th Edward I., a charter was granted for a market on Friday and a fair of three days. The population are employed in the large rolling mills and the works. Pocket knives are likewise made. Here are many villas of the inhabitants of Sheffield. The ecclesiastical district was formed on the 30th June, 1841, and in 1851 contained a population of 4333. The church, dedicated to St. Thomas, is of Gothic structure, modernised and in good repair, was built in 1834, and has a small spire and one bell; the living is a perpetual curacy, value £230 per annum, in the patronage of the Misses Harrison, and incumbency of Rev. T. H. Howard, M.A., who has a neat residence adjacent to the church. There are schools—one with liberal endowments; also a National and an Infant school, and chapels for Wesleyans. The Duke of Norfolk is lord of the manor. Wadsley Bridge, where is the railway station, is nearly a mile from Wadsley. WISEWOOD is half a mile south of Wadsley; LOXLEY is three-quarters of a mile south; MIDDLEWOOD is half a mile north-west.

WENTWORTH is a township and chapelry and large well-built village, 8 miles north of Sheffield and 5 from Rotherham (the post town), in Wath-upon-Dearne parish, Rotherham Union, and West Riding of Yorkshire, on the old north road from London to Leeds. The church is an old stone building, containing many monuments to the memory of the Fitzwilliam family, and has a tower with three bells. In the Wentworth chapel is the tomb of the famous Earl of Strafford and some brasses. The living is a perpetual curacy, in the gift of Earl Fitzwilliam, who is lord of the manor; the incumbent is the Rev. James Samuel Upton, M.A., and the Rev. William Hodges, M.A., curate. Wentworth House, the seat of Earl Fitzwilliam, is situate near the northern side of the park; it is a splendid structure with a front of 600 feet, and contains many objects of interest, and some rare paintings by some of the great masters; the library contains many manuscripts and rare books. The park contains about 1,500 acres of land, thickly wooded, and several monuments. Near the village of Scholes, on the rising ground of the park, is the noble stone column erected by the Marquis of Rockingham to commemorate the acquittal of his friend Admiral Keppel; from the top, which is surmounted by a gallery and iron railings, may be had a beautiful and extensive view of the surrounding country. Near the Rotherham road rises the lofty tower of Hoober Stand. One of the most attractive objects is the mausoleum; it was erected by the late Earl Fitzwilliam in the year 1788 to the memory of his uncle Charles, Marquis of Rockingham. The basement storey is square, about 40 feet high, on the top of which are twelve stone pillars of the Doric order, three at each corner supporting four open arches, and beneath the dome thus formed rests a beautiful sarcophagus. Surmounting this the second division is a cupola, formed by twelve columns placed at regular distances. In the centre of the interior of the basement storey is a full-sized white marble statue of the Marquis of Rockingham in his robes on a square pedestal, on the front of which is inscribed his name, titles, &c., with the date of his birth and death. In niches around the apartment are placed marble busts of Edmund Burke, Lord George Cavendish, Charles James Fox, Admiral Keppel, John Lee, Frederick Montague, the Duke of Portland, and Sir George Saville. At each corner of the exterior of the structure is a lofty stone obelisk, the whole being inclosed by a circle of lofty iron railing. In the village is an hospital for six poor men and six poor women, founded by Wentworth Earl of Strafford in 1679, with an allowance of £3 to each person. The present building was erected in 1747. Here is a school for boys, endowed by the Hon. Thomas Wentworth in 1716; also a National (girls') and infant school. The Mechanics' Institution is a neat building, erected by Earl Fitzwilliam in 1845, and has a library of upwards of 1000 volumes. The area of the township is 2308 acres, with a population in 1851 of 1556. The benefactions of the Wentworth family produce above £200 a year.

BARROW, BARLEY HOLE, and HOOD HILL, are adjoining hamlets.

WHISTON is a parish and large village, most pleasantly situate, from 5½ to 6 miles east of Sheffield and 1¾ from Rotherham, and comprises a population of 1050 souls and 3190 acres of land, with 340 acres of wood. The church, dedicated to St. James, is a pretty structure, modernized and in good repair. The living is a rectory, value £868, in the patronage of the Earl of Effingham, and held by the Hon. and Rev. William Howard, M.A. The lords of the manor are Sir Reresby Sitwell and the Duke of Norfolk. Whiston is in Rotherham Union, Strafforth south wapentake, West Riding, shire, bishopric and archbishopric of York, and includes the hamlets of CANKLOW, GUILTHWAITE, HERRINGTHORPE, UPPER WHISTON, MOORGATE, MOORHOUSE, and MORTHEN. Canklow, Moorgate and Herringthorpe are near Rotherham; Guilthwaite is 2 miles north-east of Woodhouse station.

MORTHEN is a hamlet in Whiston parish, but said to be for some purposes connected with Rotherham parish. It is 2 miles east of Whiston and 5 south-east from Rotherham.

This Society is essentially one of Mutual Assurance, in which the Premiums of its Members are reduced after seven years. The average rate of reduction during the last ten years has exceeded 66 per cent.; and for the year 1854 the reduction was 70 per cent., leaving less than one-third of the original Premium to be paid.

The Society also undertakes other descriptions of Assurance, in which the Assured do not become Members; and having ceased to allow commission to agents, the Society has been enabled to reduce the Premiums for this class of Assurances to the following very low rates:—

ANNUAL PREMIUM FOR THE ASSURANCE OF £100.

Actuary & Secretary.—CHARLES JELLICOE, Esq.

The business of the Company comprises Assurance on lives and survivorships, the purchase of Life Interests, the sale and purchase of contingent and deferred Annuities, loans of Money on mortgage, &c.
This Company was established in 1807, is empowered by the Act of Parliament 53 Geo. III., and is regulated by deed enrolled in the High Court of Chancery.
The Company was originally a strictly proprietary one. The Assured, on the participating scale, now participate quinquennially in four-fifths of the amount to be divided.
The Directors have availed themselves of the more accurate information recently obtained as to the rate of mortality amongst assured lives, and have modified the tables originally constructed for the Company accordingly.
The rates now charged are lower than those required by many of the offices, and, as compared with them, a bonus is in fact at once secured by effecting an Assurance with the Eagle Company.
To the present time (1853) the Assured have received from the Company, in satisfaction of their claims, upwards of £1,400,000.
The amount at present assured is £3,000,000 nearly, and the income of the Company is about £130,000.
At the last division of surplus about £120,000 was added to the sums assured under policies for the whole term of life.
The lives assured are permitted, in time of peace, and not being engaged in mining or gold digging, to reside in any country, or to pass by sea (not being seafaring persons by profession) between any two parts of the same hemisphere distant more than 33 degrees from the Equator, without extra charge.
All Policy Stamps and Medical Fees are now paid by the Company.
The Annual Reports of the Company's state and progress, Prospectuses and Forms, may be had, or will be sent, post free, on application at the Office, or to any of the Company's Agents.

THOMAS ALFRED POTT, Esq.

This Office will be found highly eligible for every description of Life Assurance.

Perfect Security is guaranteed by an ample paid-up capital, subscribed by persons of the highest character and respectability.

The Policies are Indisputable, unless procured by fraud, and claims are promptly and liberally settled.

Policies may be effected without loss of time, the Directors, together with the Medical Officer, being in attendance at the Office every day.

Although the principal portion of this Society's Policies are upon first-class lives, its peculiar feature consists in the Assurance, at equitable rates, of the lives of individuals of regular and temperate habits, whose proposals have been declined by other Offices.

Policy-holders may obtain Loans on real or personal security. The Directors have advanced upwards of £150,000 to the members since July, 1848.

The funds of the Society are invested in the most advantageous manner, so as to promote security, and to afford the largest possible Bonus to the Assured at the periodical divisions.

The management of the Office is conducted in the most economical manner, as is shown by the Annual Reports.

Upwards of five thousand Proposals for Assurance were received during the five years ending July, 1853, amounting, in the aggregate, to upwards of Two Millions sterling! and the Directors were enabled to invest Seventy-five Thousand Pounds in such period, chiefly from the accumulated Premiums.

A LIBERAL COMMISSION ALLOWED TO AGENTS & SOLICITORS.

N.B.—Active and Influential Persons will be appointed in Districts where the Society is not already represented.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

THIS CORPORATION has granted Assurances on Lives for a PERIOD EXCEEDING ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTY YEARS, having issued its first Policy on the 7th June, 1721.

Two-thirds or 66 PER CENT. of the entire profits are given to the Assured.

Policies may be opened under either of the following plans, viz.:—

At a low rate of premium, without participation in profits, or at a somewhat higher rate, entitling the Assured, either after the first five years, to an annual abatement of premium for the remainder of life, or, after payment of the first premium, to a participation in the ensuing quinquennial Bonus.

The abatement for the year 1854 on the Annual Premiums of persons who have been assured under Series "1831" for five years or longer, is nearly 33 PER CENT.

The high character which this ancient Corporation has maintained during NEARLY A CENTURY AND A HALF, secures to the Public a full and faithful declaration of profits.

The Corporation bears the whole Expenses of Management, thus giving to the Assured, in consequence of the protection afforded by its CORPORATE FUND, advantages equal to those of any system of Mutual Assurance.

Premiums may be paid Yearly, Half-yearly, or Quarterly.

ALL POLICIES ARE ISSUED FREE FROM STAMP DUTY, or from charge of any description whatever, beyond the Premium.

The attention of the Public is especially called to the GREAT ADVANTAGES offered to Life Assurers by the Legislature in its recent Enactments, by which it will be found that, to a defined extent, LIFE PREMIUMS ARE NOT SUBJECT TO INCOME TAX.

The fees of MEDICAL REFEREES are PAID by the Corporation.

A Policy may be effected for as small a sum as £20, and progressively increased up to £50, without the necessity of a new Policy.

Every facility will be given for the transfer or exchange of Policies, or any other suitable arrangement will be made for the convenience of the Assured.

ANNUITIES ARE GRANTED, payable half-yearly.

Advantages offered by this Company, which is composed of Mutual and Proprietary Branches:—

The security of a subscribed capital of £250,000.

In the Mutual Branch the whole of the Profits are divided amongst the Holders of Policies on which Seven Annual Premiums have been paid.

In the Proprietary Branch the lowest possible rates of Premium consistent with the security of the Assured. Premiums are made payable in a variety of ways to meet the convenience of Assurers.

Credit given for half the Premiums for the first Seven Years, and increasing Premiums commencing at exceedingly low rates. Moderate increased Premiums for increased risks.

Naval and Military men Assured at the ordinary rate when on Home service, with a moderate additional charge for license to proceed to any part of the world. The usual commission allowed to Medical Men, Solicitors, and Agents.

In all cases where a Medical Report is given the fee is paid by the Company.

No charge to the Assured is made for Stamps on Policies issued by this Company.

STAR LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY.

CHIEF OFFICE, No. 48, MOORGATE STREET, LONDON.

The STAR LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY was founded in the year 1843.

The advantages it offers to Assurers include all the benefits which have been developed during the progress of the system of Life Assurance, but the following deserve special notice:—

NINE-TENTHS or NINETY PER CENT. of the Profits, ascertained every Five Years, are divided among Policy-holders having paid Three Annual Premiums; and Policy-holders to the amount of £500 and upwards are entitled to attend and vote at the Annual General Meetings. The Assured, by this arrangement, are made acquainted with the Management, State and Prospects of the Society every year.

2. Policy-holders to the amount of £2000 and upwards, for the whole of Life, are eligible for the office of Director.

3. THIRTY DAYS are allowed for the payment of the Premium, from the date of its becoming due.

4. Policies may be made payable to the Assured on attaining the respective ages of 50, 55, 60, 65, or to the representatives at death, if that event should happen before the time specified.

5. Policies which may lapse, from non-payment of the Premium, may be renewed at any period not exceeding Six Months, satisfactory proof being given that the Life assured is in good health, and on the payment of a small Fine.

6. Assured Persons (not being seafaring by profession) will be allowed to proceed, in time of peace, in decked vessels, to any port in Europe, and return, without extra charge or previous permission of the Directors.

7. No Claim DISPUTED, except in cases of palpable fraud. An unintentional error will not vitiate a Policy.

8. All Claims paid within Fifty Days of their being passed by the Board.

9. No Stamps, Entrance Money, or Fees of any kind, nor any charge made for Policies.

The following Statement shows the number of Policies and the Amount of Business effected by the Society in each year, from its foundation to the present time:

Date.	No. of Policies.	Amount Assured.	Premiums.	Date.	No. of Policies.	Amount Assured.	Premiums.

It may be confidently stated that so favourable a result has but few equals in the history of Life Assurance, and an inspection will at once establish the claim of this Society to public support; and a comparison of the results with those obtained by any similar institution is invited.

Prospectuses, &c., containing full Tables of Rates, Forms of Proposals, and every other information, will be forwarded (postage free) on application to any of the Society's Agents, or to the Secretary, at the Chief Office.

By Order of the Board, W. E. HILLMAN, Actuary and Secretary.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

Eight-tenths of the profits are divided periodically among the Assured. Thus all the real advantage of a Mutual Company is secured to the Assured without incurring the liabilities of copartnership.

NON-FORFEITURE OF POLICIES.—Where Policies of five years' standing are not continued, from poverty or any other cause, the whole of the Premiums which have been paid are returned to the Representatives of the Assured, after deducting a sum to be determined by the Directors (not exceeding two years' premium, the Stamp Duty and Medical Fee).

Policies, except in cases of fraud, are not disputed; for errors and unintentional misrepresentations an equitable deduction only is made from the sum insured, and such errors may be corrected at any time on fair terms.

Policies adapted in amount to all classes; quarterly or monthly payments received, if desired.

The usual commission to Solicitors and Agents.

SHARE OF PROFIT INCREASED FROM ONE-HALF TO FOUR-FIFTHS.

Policies effected with this Society after Midsummer, 1850, and remaining in force at each septennial period of division, will participate in four-fifths of the Net Profits of the Society accruing after Midsummer, 1850, in proportion to their contributions to those profits, and according to the conditions contained in the Society's Prospectus and Act of Parliament.

The Premiums required by this Society for insuring young lives are lower than many other old established offices, and Insurers are fully protected from all risk by an ample guarantee fund in addition to the accumulated funds derived from the investments of Premiums.

Table of Rates, with the Conditions of Assurance, may be had at the Sun Life Office in Threadneedle Street; at the Sun Fire Office, in Craig's Court; and at No. 40, Wigmore Street, London; also of any of the Agents for the Sun Fire Office.

The FELT has been extensively used and pronounced efficient, and particularly applicable for warm climates.

1.—It is a non-conductor.
2.—It is portable, being packed in rolls, and not liable to damage in carriage.
3.—It effects a saving of half the Timber usually required.
4.—It can be easily applied by any unpractised person.
5.—From its lightness, weighing only about 42lbs. to the square of 100 feet, the cost of carriage is small.

Under Slates in Church or other Roofs the Felt has been extensively used to regulate the Temperature.

WATER POISONED BY LEADEN PIPES.

"The above engraving represents accurately a section of a leaden pipe, which was employed for a short time in conveying water from a well on the grounds of Mr. DICK, of Bonchurch, Isle of Wight. The original section of pipe is 8¼ in. long, 2½ in. diameter, and 5-16 in. thick. A great part of the internal surface is corroded by the action of the water; but, as shown in the drawing, four deep excavations have been made, and another is shaded out of view by the manner in which the section of the pipe has been cut. The water has cut these deep pits almost through the pipe, and not only upon the portion which we have illustrated, but has formed similar chasms throughout the entire length."—Expositor.

GUTTA PERCHA TUBING.

Many inquiries having been made as to the Durability of Gutta Percha Tubing, the Gutta Percha Company have pleasure in giving publicity to the following Letters from parties who have had it in use for a considerable length of time:—

FROM C. HACKER, ESQ., SURVEYOR TO HIS GRACE THE DUKE OF BEDFORD,
WOBURN PARK.

SECOND TESTIMONIAL.

"OFFICE OF WORKS, WOBURN PARK,
"January 10*th*, 1852.

"GENTLEMEN,

"In answer to your inquiries respecting the Gutta Percha Tubing for Pump Suctions, I find that the "Water has not affected it in the least, although it will eat lead through in two years; we have adopted it largely, "being cheaper than lead, much easier fixed, and a more perfect job."

THE CORROSIVE WATER OF THE ISLE OF WIGHT
DOES NOT AFFECT GUTTA PERCHA TUBING.

SECOND TESTIMONIAL.

FROM SIR RAYMOND JARVIS, BART.,
VENTNOR, ISLE OF WIGHT.

"March 10*th*, 1852.

"In reply to your letter received this morning, respecting the Gutta Percha Tubing for Pump Service, I can "state with much satisfaction, it answers perfectly. Many Builders, and other persons, have lately examined it, "and there is not the least apparent difference since the first laying down, now several years; and I am informed "that it is to be adopted generally in the houses that are being erected here."

SHEFFIELD,

MANUFACTURERS OF HIGHLY-APPROVED CIRCULAR

BELLOWS, PORTABLE FORGES,

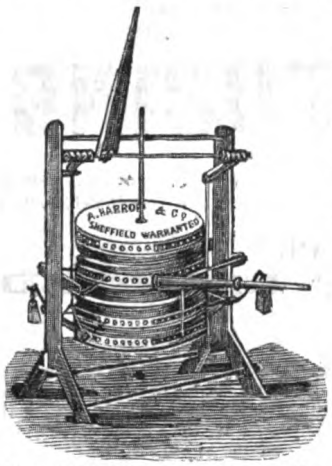

BLOWING MACHINES, &c.

Patronised and used by the chief Railway Companies, Engineers, and Public Works in Great Britain, and the Continents of Europe and America; and are universally admired by Shipsmiths, Machine Makers, Whitesmiths, Blacksmiths, and other Workers in Iron and Steel, for their Compactness, Durability, and Constant Force of Blast.

The Blowing Machines are extremely portable, produce a great Volume of Blast, and are worked with ease by Manual Power.

FITTED UP FOR HORSE, STEAM, OR WATER POWER, PARTICULARS BEING GIVEN WITH THE ORDER.

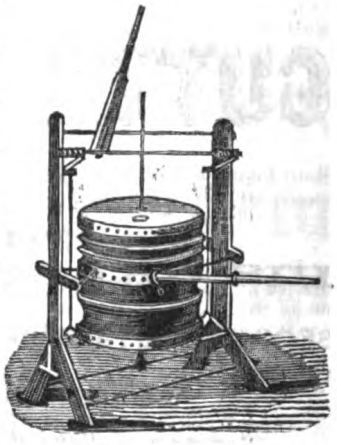

THE PATENT BELLOWS POSSESS THE FOLLOWING HIGHLY IMPORTANT ADVANTAGES:—

CIRCULAR PATENT—Double Blast.

1. They stand in half the room that Long Bellows do.
2. They effect a positive saving of full twenty per cent. in fuel.
3. Every stroke of the lever produces a double quantity of force and blast.
4. They support a discharging-pipe of double capacity.
5. Iron or Steel is brought into a state of fusion in two-thirds of the usual time.
6. They are fitted up complete, ready for work, with a flexible pipe and portable lever, as per drawing.

They produce a soft, regular, and soaking blast, by which Iron or Steel is brought into a welding state without burning or injuring its properties.

IMPROVED CIRCULAR.

PATENT PORTABLE FORGE.

WITH A PAIR OF VICE ATTACHED.

IMPROVED PORTABLE FORGE.

Warranted of Superior Quality, and of the best Materials and Workmanship.

HUBBUCK'S

PATENT WHITE ZINC PAINT,

THE PERMANENT WHITE OF THE ANCIENT ARTIST,

ELEGANT, HEALTHFUL, DURABLE, ECONOMICAL,

RESTRICTED formerly to the use of the Artist only by its cost, is now, by HUBBUCK'S Patent, reduced to a price below that of ordinary White Lead. Scientific men in the last century pronounced the White Paint made from pure Zinc at once the most beautiful and healthful of all paints.

Time and experience have fully justified these high commendations, and conclusively established its superiority over every other Paint known.

HEALTHFUL TO THE PAINTER AND TO THE OCCUPANTS OF NEWLY-PAINTED ROOMS.

Those direful maladies, Paralysis and Painter's-colic, which destroy the health of the workman and entail suffering and misery on his posterity, will be entirely avoided. Apartments may now be immediately occupied without danger. It is entirely free from any poisonous or pernicious property whatever.

Neither bilge-water, vapours from cesspools, sulphuretted hydrogen, nor other noxious gases, exposure to red heat on iron, nor to damp, nor salt water, nor tropical climates, act upon it. Under these and other circumstances, when every other paint hitherto known and tried has failed, "Hubbuck's Patent White Zinc Paint" has preserved the fastness of its colour.

CHEAPNESS.

Two hundred-weight of this Paint, with seven Gallons of Oil and Turpentine, covers as much surface as three hundred-weight of White Lead and twelve gallons of Oil and Turpentine. It thus becomes cheaper in the first instance, as well as desirable on every other consideration.

TO A CONTRACTOR

For extensive works, taken at competition prices, this is important—Cheapness with him depending not alone on the price per hundred-weight. The saving on the cost of the Paint is 25 per cent., whilst on the Oil and Turpentine it is equally great. This applies to Drab, Buff, Lead-colour, and every purpose for which White Lead was formerly used as an ingredient.

As base imitations of this paint are made, containing frequently ingredients detrimental to health, and in appearance coarse and grainy without body, and having no drying property, Consumers are forewarned that each cask of the genuine is stamped with the name of the Patentees, and if the cask is not so marked, the reason is obvious.

"HUBBUCK, LONDON, PATENT;"

For all marine uses—for painting both the inside and outside of ships, light-houses, sluice-gates, iron-roofing, and bridges, the interior and exterior of buildings, and for all ornamental, decorative, and sanitary purposes, HUBBUCK'S Patent White Zinc Paint has proved to be superior to every other Paint known, and equally adapted for all climates.

A CIRCULAR, WITH FULL PARTICULARS, MAY BE HAD OF

THOMAS HUBBUCK & SON,

COLOUR AND VARNISH MANUFACTURERS,

UPPER EAST SMITHFIELD, LONDON

(OPPOSITE THE LONDON DOCKS).

"To our friends in India we would recommend its adoption, as being the only healthful paint, and the only one adapted to the climate."—Atlas for India, December 24, 1852.

"Certified that I have used Thos. Hubbuck and Son's Patent White Zinc Paint on the Government State Yacht Soonamooky, and found it far superior to the White Paint generally in use. It has kept its pure white appearance up to the present time (twelve months since it was laid on), when the white lead paint has turned yellow. It is also much more economical." (Signed) J. SIMPSON, H.E.I.Co.'s Builder and Surveyor, Kiddepore, Calcutta, April 21, 1853.

"Your White Zinc Paint is much liked in India, as it does not change yellow like the ordinary white paint." (Signed) Captain WM. DICEY, H.E.I.Co.'s war steamer Tenasserine, April, 1853.

"For public schools, and all rooms occupied by children, there will now be no excuse for using poisonous paints. Parents have remarked that their children, on returning from the country to newly-painted houses, have suffered in health. The reason is evident: the breath extracts the poison from White Lead even after the paint is dry, and the lungs draw in the deadly vapour."—Wesleyan Times, August 5th, 1850.

ROWLANDS' MACASSAR OIL.

The successful results of the last half century have proved beyond question that this unique discovery possesses peculiarly nourishing powers in the growth, restoration and improvement of the Human Hair, and when every other specific has failed. It prevents Hair from falling off or turning grey, strengthens weak hair, cleanses it from scurf and dandriff, and makes it BEAUTIFULLY SOFT, CURLY and GLOSSY. In the growth of the BEARD, WHISKERS, EYEBROWS, and MUSTACHIOS, it is unfailing in its stimulative operation. For children it is especially recommended, as forming the basis of a beautiful head of hair. Price 3s. 6d.; 7s.; or Family Bottles (equal to four small), 10s. 6d.; and double that size, 21s.

ROWLANDS' KALYDOR,

An ORIENTAL BOTANICAL PREPARATION of unfailing efficacy in thoroughly purifying the Skin from all Pimples, Spots, Redness, Freckles, Tan, and Discolorations; in producing a healthy freshness and transparency of Complexion, and a softness and delicacy of the Hands and Arms. During the heat and dust of summer, or frost and bleak winds of winter, and in cases of sunburn, stings of insects, chilblains, chapped skin, or incidental inflammation, its virtues have long and extensively been acknowledged.—Price 4s. 6d. and 8s. 6d. per bottle.

ROWLANDS' ODONTO,

OR PEARL DENTIFRICE,

A White Powder. Prepared from Oriental Herbs with unusual care, transmitted to this country at great expense, this unique compound will be found of inestimable value in preserving and beautifying the Teeth, strengthening the Gums, and in giving sweetness and perfume to the Breath. Price 2s. 9d. per box.

ROWLANDS' AQUA D'ORO,

A fragrant and refreshing Perfume, combining the spirituous essences and essential properties of the most esteemed and valuable exotic flowers and plants, without any one being in the ascendant. The rich aroma of this elaborately-distilled perfume is gently stimulating to the nerves; it relieves the head, invigorates the system, and in cases of lassitude or fatigue it is found most cordial and restorative in its effects. Gentlemen, after smoking, by rinsing the mouth with a small quantity will find it restore the breath to sweetness and purity. Price 3s. 6d. per bottle.

BEWARE OF SPURIOUS IMITATIONS!!!

The only GENUINE of each bears the name of "ROWLANDS'" preceding that of the Article on the Wrapper or Label.

PRIZE MEDAL.

Patronized by the Lords of the Admiralty, the Governors of Greenwich Hospital, St. George's, Guy's, and adopted exclusively by the French Government for all Public Works.

No. 61.

ADVANTAGES:

HEALTHFULNESS, DURABILITY, UNCHANGEABLENESS, PURITY OF COLOUR, PRESERVATION OF MATERIALS, CHEAPNESS.

WHITE LEAD FORMS THE BASIS of almost every Paint, and when used gives out poisonous exhalations, destructive to the constitution. The Lives of delicate and aged persons are often sacrificed by inhaling its pernicious properties; whilst lingering* disease and premature death attend those employed in its manufacture and use.

A sufficient substitute for White Lead has for many years occupied the attention of Scientific Men, without their arriving at any practical result. This was eventually in part obtained by Monsr. Leclaire, at Paris, in 1846. MESSRS. CROWLEY, WHITE and CROWLEY now offer to Export Merchants and the Trade a disinfecting agent in White Zinc, perfectly free from all deleterious properties, OF GUARANTEED PURITY (UNDER BRAND), EITHER IN THE DRY OR GROUND STATE.

CERTIFICATE.

GENTLEMEN, Ansdale Street, Salt House Dock, Liverpool, Aug. 23, 1852.

We are much gratified to find the last parcel of Oxide of Zinc so much improved in body, and as the colour of the first parcel was very satisfactory, we see very little difficulty in its way to more general adoption and use, for it certainly has, in many respects, a decided advantage over White Lead in situations of severe test—contiguity to bilge water; cesses; wherever gases are evolved, &c.—and we may mention two cases in point: the one was a stable and petit, and the other an apartment in an antiquated building, exceedingly low, with the beams prominently crossing it. In both these instances it was customary to have them painted and whitewashed annually. The workman employed was so ashamed of these at the usual time for renewing, that, hearing of the peculiar properties of the Oxide of Zinc in resisting the action of foul air and gases, he gave Zinc a trial, and the result was, on his employers going over the work when it was supposed to require doing again, that it was deemed unnecessary. Your Oxide of Zinc was that employed, and we have supplied it subsequently, but, of course, time alone will confirm the result. The Zinc was used both in paint and dry, same as Whiting or Paris White.

We are, Gentlemen, your obedient Servants,

(Signed) J. MATTHEWS & Co.,

Messrs. LANGSTON SCOTT and WHITE. Wholesale Colourmen.

1, Orford Street, Liverpool, June 22nd, 1852.

This is to Certify, we painted the Ship "Owen Potter" in June, 1851, with Zinc Paint, manufactured by Mr. LANGSTON SCOTT, of London, which quite suited our expectation as to colour and durability, on her return from Calcutta in April last. We also found in the Bark "Agnes" of London, that her cabin, ceilings, state rooms, &c., were not affected by the steam of a Sugar Cargo, as had always been the case when painted with White Lead Paint, the Zinc Paint in this case quite retaining the purity of its original colour.

(Signed) J. & W. WILSON,

Messrs. L. SCOTT AND WHITE. Ship Owners and Wholesale Colourmen.

DEAR SIR, Mr. W. W. Cooze, 23, Frith Street, Soho Square, December 16th, 1851.

In answer to your inquiry respecting my opinion of the Zinc Paint, I beg to say that, having used it very extensively, I have had an opportunity of testing it in various ways, and have come to the conclusion that it must ultimately supersede White Lead.

I remain, dear Sir, yours very truly,

(Signed) W. W. COOZE,

To L. SCOTT, ESQ. Decorator to the Queen.

* WHITE LEAD.—It is calculated that the use and manufacture of every thousand tons of White Lead produce, on an average, a hundred and twenty patients and five deaths.—Ex. The Builder, October 8th, 1853.
