Benachrichtigung.

Der Verfasser beabsichtigt in dem vorliegenden Werke die Resultate seiner Collation des zweiten Bandes des Londoner Inschriftenwerkes, welcher die Grundlage der assyrischen und akkadischen Studien enthält, in der Form eines Wörterverzeichnisses den Assyriologen und Anfängern in diesen Studien zugänglich zu machen. Schon öfter ist von verschiedenen Seiten der Wunsch ausgesprochen worden, diese Inschriften selbst von Neuem veröffentlicht zu sehen. Er wählte diese Form, um zugleich einen Beitrag zu einem künftigen philologisch-kritischen assyrischen Wörterbuche zu liefern und die Vorarbeiten dazu zu erleichtern. Die assyrischen und akkadischen Wörter sind in Transscription und Keilschrift der Reihe nach angeführt mit dem Citate der Stelle, wo sie in den Texten vorkommen, und dem Zusammenhange. Andere Texte aus dem ersten und fünften Bande der Cuneiform Inscriptions werden dabei Berücksichtigung finden, wenngleich nicht mit derselben Vollständigkeit. Besonders ist darauf Rücksicht genommen worden, die den einzelnen assyrischen Wörtern entsprechenden akkadischen zu geben und umgekehrt. Es schien am einfachsten, das Akkadische nicht getrennt zu behandeln, sondern unter die assyrischen Wörter, nach der allgemein üblichen Transscription und nach dem semitischen Alphabete einzuordnen. Besondere Sorgfalt ist auch der Paläographie gewidmet worden, indem alle Wörter genau so wie sie an den citirten Stellen der Originale erscheinen, in archaistischen, assyrischen oder babylonischen Charakteren angeführt worden sind.

VORWORT.

Wer immer der raschen Entwicklung der assyriologischen Studien in den letzten Jahrzehnten gefolgt ist, wird den Besitz eines assyrischen Wörterbuches als nicht länger entbehrlich erkannt haben, um die bis jetzt gewonnenen Resultate mit genügender Vollständigkeit und Sicherheit benützen und durch eigene Forschungen weiterfördern zu können. Seit den grundlegenden Arbeiten von Sir Henry Rawlinson und Jules Oppert haben die fortgesetzten Ausgrabungen in Mesopotamien unsere Kenntnisse stetig erweitert und vervollständigt, neue Forscher haben das alte Material mehr und mehr gesichtet und geordnet, neue Fragen wurden angeregt, alte Vermutungen bezweifelt und beseitigt, andere wieder bestätigt, und auf die immer eindringendere philologische Genauigkeit in Detailfragen waren die Bestrebungen der Assyriologenschulen des Continents während der letzten Jahre gerichtet.

Das vorliegende Werk will nur eine Stoffsammlung für einen Teil des Inschriftenmaterials sein und ein zukünftiges kritisches Wörterbuch der assyrischen Sprache vorbereiten helfen. Nachdem ich im Jahre 1869 mit Hülfe der damals zugänglichen Publicationen einige Kenntniss des Assyrischen mir angeeignet hatte, wurde mir 1878 die Gelegenheit diese assyriologischen Studien im Britischen Museum selbst fortzusetzen. Drei Jahre lang copirte ich meist unveröffentlichte Keilschrifttexte und collationirte die Publicationen nach den Originalen. Nur diejenigen können die Mühe einer solchen Arbeit würdigen, die selbst sich für längere Zeit im Copiren der kleinen, oft fast unleserlichen und fragmentarischen Keilschrifttexte geübt haben. Den Conservatoren der Assyrischen Sammlung, besonders dem unterdessen leider zu früh verstorbenen Herrn Dr. S. Birch und Herrn Theo. Pinches, spreche ich bei dieser Gelegenheit auch öffentlich meinen herzlichsten Dank aus für die grosse Freundlichkeit und Bereitwilligkeit, mit der sie mir stets die gewünschten Inschriften zur Verfügung stellten. Ein Teil der Resultate dieser Studien ist nun in diesem Wörterverzeichniss zum zweiten Bande des Londoner Inschriftenwerkes niedergelegt. Zu der gewählten Form veranlasste mich die Erwägung, dass dieser zweite Band die meisten für die Assyriologie grundleglich wichtigen sog. Syllabare, dessgleichen die Synonymenverzeichnisse enthält, von deren allseitigen Kenntniss und richtigem Verständniss die assyrische Worterklärung in nicht minderem Grade abhängt als von dem Zusammenhang der Stellen und der Etymologie. Da auch das sog. Akkadische der linken Columnen der zweisprachigen Inschriften aller Beachtung werth ist, insofern es in sehr vielen Fällen dazu dient die assyrischen Synonyme zu erkennen und ihrer Bedeutung nach zu bestimmen, so schien es das Zweckmässigste, alle Wörter, die assyrischen wie die akkadischen, in der Reihenfolge des hebräischen Alphabets anzuführen, und zwar mit Beibehaltung der Vocalunterschiede unter Hinzufügung der Belegstellen, des Contextes und der Synonyme. Die Vocale wurden zu den ihnen nächststehenden Consonanten gestellt: A zu א, E ( , das im Anlaut nur selten mit  wechselt) zu ה (wo zugleich die wenigen mit dem Hauchlaut beginnenden Wörter am Anfang mit aufgeführt sind), J zu י, U zu ו (am Anfang getrennt die mit  â beginnenden Wörter). Die Consonanten ע, א, ה wurden nicht geschieden, weil sie es in der assyrischen Schrift nicht werden. Bei der Anordnung wurde im Allgemeinen darauf geachtet, die gleichen Keilschriftzeichen möglichst zusammen zu stellen, wesshalb z. B. an mit folgendem Vocal: a, i, u, getrennt ist von an mit folgendem Consonanten. Bei der Vieldeutigkeit der Silbenzeichen, besonders der für zusammengesetzte Silben, war es unvermeidlich, dass mitunter das nämliche Wort an zwei Stellen und mit verschiedener Aussprache wiederholt wurde: erst nach Vollendung eines vollständigen Wörterverzeichnisses wird die endgiltige Lesung vieler Wörter, was vor allem die Sylben bu und pu, za und ṣa, ḳi und ḳi u. s. w. betrifft, fixirt werden können. Dieses Ziel aber mit anbahnen zu helfen, ist ein Hauptzweck dieses Werkes.

Da der Wunsch ausgedrückt worden war, die verwandten Sprachen zur Vergleichung herbeizuziehen, so unterdrückte ich auf den ersten Bogen viele andere nützliche Citate. Die Vergleichungen wollen nicht so verstanden sein, als seien diese Wörter identisch oder stammverwandt, sie wurden vielmehr angeführt um die Nothwendigkeit ganz besonderer Vorsicht in der Beiziehung jener Sprachen darzuthun: die von mir zusammengestellten Ähnlichkeiten, an sich wohl möglich, scheinen mir selbst oft unwahrscheinlich genug. Erst von Mitte des B an war es möglich den ursprünglichen Plan zu verfolgen und mehr auf die Reichhaltigkeit des gebotenen Stoffes als auf unzeitige Erklärungen zu achten. Da jeder, der die Resultate der Assyriologie benützen will, wenigstens die einfachen Silbenzeichen kennt, so schien es nicht nothwendig, jedesmal die Transscription der citirten Stellen beizufügen; der Raumersparniss halber wurde sie zumeist weggelassen, wenn es nicht galt die Aufmerksamkeit des Lesers wachzurufen oder auf eine Vergleichung zu verweisen.

Trotz des grossen Umfanges ist das Werk noch lange nicht vollständig: selbst aus dem zweiten Bande der Cuneiform Inscriptions können noch viele, besonders akkadische Wörter, deren Lesung mehr oder weniger unsicher ist, nachgetragen werden, geschweige denn aus den vier übrigen Bänden, dessgleichen den Werken von Botta und Dr. Stolze und den vielen Tausenden noch unpublicirten Inschriften des Britischen Museums. Das Werk ist nur der Anfang einer vollständigen Sammlung, wird aber hoffentlich auch in dieser Unvollständigkeit und trotz seiner Mängel nicht ohne Nutzen sein. Dem Zwecke entsprechend ist jede Inschrift genau citirt und zwar ganz im Anschluss an meine eigenen Copien der Originale, ohne Aenderung der archaistischen und babylonischen Schriftzeichen, auch mit Angabe der im Originale unsicheren Zeichen: viele meiner Citate aus dem zweiten Bande werden daher in Folge von Ergänzungen oder Verbesserungen sich nicht so in der Publication finden, sondern statt dessen die Berichtigung geben. Die auf das Londoner Inschriftenwerk bezüglichen Citate beschränken sich auf Angabe des betr. Bandes nebst Seite und Zeile*). Ausser dem zweiten Bande sind die I. 9—26 und 53—58 veröffentlichten Inschriften von Tiglathpileser, Asurnaṣirpal und Nebukadnezzar (letztere, im East India House zu London aufbewahrt, als Nbk. E.J.H. citirt), sowie die Syllabare in V. 11—32 mit berücksichtigt worden, die übrigen veröffentlichten Texte dagegen so gut wie gar nicht. Von sonst unedirten Inschriften wurde besonders in der zweiten Hälfte ein ausgiebiger Gebrauch gemacht; dieselben sind nach den Registrationsnummern der Sammlungen des Britischen Museums) ,und des Louvre in Paris) citirt. Aus der Bibliothèque nationale in Paris (NB.) wurden mehrere Inschriften benützt, besonders die Cylinder-Inschrift Asurbanipals (NB. 5929), die Nebukadnezzars (Mylitta-Inschrift, NB. 786, von der sich ein Duplikat in New York (NY) befindet), und mehrere kleine Fragmente von Contracttafeln. Die übrigen Citate sind wohl durch sich selbst verständlich. Die altbabylonischen Verträge (die Case-tablets, mit B bezeichnet), welche mit einem 624 Wörter enthaltenden Wörterverzeichniss in den Verhandlungen des Berliner Orientalisten-Congresses veröffentlicht sind, wurden nicht weiter berücksichtigt.

Leider hat sich der Druck des Werkes wider Erwarten verzögert, theils durch das mühsame Autographiren, theils durch andere Störungen. In Blijenbeck, Holland, begonnen und in Diton Hall, Lancashire, fortgesetzt, wurde es in London glücklich vollendet. Obwohl alle Sorgfalt auf möglichste Correctheit verwendet worden ist — die einzelnen Inschriften wurden wiederholt mit den Originalen verglichen, die Citate während des Autographirens wiederum verificirt und mit Context gelesen, die Druckbogen aufmerksam corrigirt —, mögen dennoch manche Schreibfehler übersehen worden sein, doch werden sich diese wohl leicht durch Vergleichung der vielen gegenseitigen Citate auffinden lassen.

Zur Erleichterung des Gebrauchs des Werkes ist als Anhang ein kurzes Syllabar beigegeben, das zwar auf Vollständigkeit keinen Anspruch macht, aber immerhin vielen willkommen sein wird. Ebenso wird der zweite Anhang, welcher das Wörterverzeichniss zu den dem Leidener Orientalisten-Congress vorgelegten babylonischen Inschriften enthält, manchen erwünscht sein, da er zu dem vorliegenden Werke einen nicht unerheblichen Nachtrag (im Ganzen 1586 Wörter) liefert, und frühere Lesungen mehrfach berichtigt oder bestätigt. Möge denn das Werk trotz seiner Mängel dazu beitragen, das Studium der assyrisch-babylonischen Alterthümer zu erleichtern und die Resultate der jungen Wissenschaft mehr und mehr zu befestigen!

London, April 1886.

DAS BABYLONISCHE NIMRODEPOS.

Keilschrifttext der Bruchstücke der sogenannten Izdubarlegenden mit dem keilinschriftlichen Sintfluthberichte.

Nach den Originalen im Britischen Museum copirt und mit Transscription, Übersetzung, Commentar und Glossar

herausgegeben von Paul Haupt.

Das Werk enthält den autographirten Keilschrifttext der im Britischen Museum befindlichen Bruchstücke der zwölf Tafeln der sogenannten Izdubarlegenden auf deren elfter sich die keilinschriftliche Sintfluthepisode findet. Bisher ist nur ein Theil der sechsten und der elften Tafel im vierten Bande des englischen Inschriftenwerkes herausgegeben worden; die übrigen sind nur aus den Übersetzungen in George Smith's „Chaldäischer Genesis" bekannt. Von mehreren der Tafeln haben wir verschiedene Exemplare, allein von dem Sintfluthberichte kennen wir bis jetzt schon die Bruchstücke von acht Tafeln. Der Herausgeber hat jedes einzelne Fragment besonders mit der grössten Sorgfalt copirt und zu wiederholten Malen genau collationirt; er wird auch alle seine Abschriften, mit Einschluss sämmtlicher Duplicate, vollständig veröffentlichen; nicht bloss einen nach den verschiedenen Exemplaren zusammengesetzten Text, wie er sich im Londoner Inschriftenwerke findet, da es mindestens von gleicher Wichtigkeit ist, die Übereinstimmungen der Duplicate kennen zu lernen, wie ihre Abweichungen. Die erste Lieferung des Werkes wird den autographirten Keilschrifttext der ersten zehn Tafeln, mit Ausnahme der Bruchstücke von vier Columnen der fünften Tafel, enthalten und Anfang des nächsten Jahres zur Ausgabe gelangen. Nach Fertigstellung des Textes und einer nochmaligen Collation desselben mit den Originalen gedenkt der Verfasser die Transscription und Übersetzung nebst Commentar und Glossar in der Weise seiner Bearbeitung des keilinschriftlichen Sintfluthberichtes in der zweiten Auflage von E. Schrader's „Keilinschriften und das Alte Testament" (Giessen 1882) folgen zu lassen.

Der Verfasser hat in diesem Werke eine möglichst übersichtliche und correcte Ausgabe des in verschiedenen, zum Theil schwer zugänglichen Publicationen verstreuten Textes der sogenannten „Trilinguen Inschriften" mit danebenstehender Übersetzung zu geben versucht. Die Lesarten sämmtlicher früheren Editionen von Niebuhr, de Saulcy, Westergaard, Rawlinson, Oppert etc. sind in zahlreichen, siebzehn Seiten füllenden, autographirten textkritischen Anmerkungen verzeichnet und geprüft worden. Als Anhang ist auf sechzehn, von Paul Haupt autographirten, Tafeln der Keilschrifttext der kleineren Achämenideninschriften, zum Theil nach neu angefertigten Copien der im Britischen Museum aufbewahrten Papierabklatsche und den photographischen Aufnahmen in dem Stolze'schen Prachtwerke „Persepolis", beigegeben.

AUSWAHL DER WICHTIGSTEN TEXTE DES KÖNIGS SARGON II.

Nach den Originalen in London und Paris durchgängig collationirt, in autographirtem Grundtext neu herausgegeben und mit Transscription, Übersetzung und Commentar versehen

von Dr. D. G. Lyon.

1882. gr. 4. ca. 104 Seiten. ca. M. 20. —.

Der Verfasser giebt die Cylinder- und Stier-Inschrift, sowie die Bronze-, Silber-, Gold- und Antimon-Inschrift Sargon's II. in sorgfältigster Abschrift nebst einer grossen Zahl Varianten anderer Copien dieser Inschriften und hebt, um nirgends Zweifel zu lassen, die mangelhaften Abweichungen der früheren Ausgaben absichtlich hervor. Für die assyrische Paläographie verspricht das Werk besonders werthvoll zu werden, da es durchweg die Keilschriftzeichen in peinlichster Übereinstimmung mit den Originalen wiedergiebt. Im Commentar beschränkt sich der Verf. wesentlich auf die schwereren, bis jetzt missverstandenen Stellen, jedoch mit steter Berücksichtigung der älteren Erklärungsversuche.

Benachrichtigung.

Der Verfasser beabsichtigt in dem vorliegenden Werke die Resultate seiner Collation des zweiten Bandes des Londoner Inschriftenwerkes, welcher die Grundlage der assyrischen und akkadischen Studien enthält, in der Form eines Wörterverzeichnisses den Assyriologen und Anfängern in diesen Studien zugänglich zu machen. Schon öfter ist von verschiedenen Seiten der Wunsch ausgesprochen worden, diese Inschriften selbst von Neuem veröffentlicht zu sehen. Er wählte diese Form, um zugleich einen Beitrag zu einem künftigen philologisch-kritischen assyrischen Wörterbuche zu liefern und die Vorarbeiten dazu zu erleichtern. Die assyrischen und akkadischen Wörter sind in Transscription und Keilschrift der Reihe nach angeführt mit dem Citate der Stelle, wo sie in den Texten vorkommen, und dem Zusammenhange. Andere Texte aus dem ersten und fünften Bande der Cuneiform Inscriptions werden dabei Berücksichtigung finden, wenngleich nicht mit derselben Vollständigkeit. Besonders ist darauf Rücksicht genommen worden, die den einzelnen assyrischen Wörtern entsprechenden akkadischen zu geben und umgekehrt. Es schien am einfachsten, das Akkadische nicht getrennt zu behandeln, sondern unter die assyrischen Wörter, nach der allgemein üblichen Transscription und nach dem semitischen Alphabete einzuordnen. Besondere Sorgfalt ist auch der Paläographie gewidmet worden, indem alle Wörter genau so wie sie an den citirten Stellen der Originale erscheinen, in archaistischen, assyrischen oder babylonischen Charakteren angeführt wo den sind.

DAS BABYLONISCHE NIMRODEPOS.

Keilschrifttext der Bruchstücke der sogenannten Izdubarlegenden mit dem keilinschriftlichen Sintfluthberichte.

Nach den Originalen im Britischen Museum copirt und mit Transscription, Übersetzung, Commentar und Glossar

herausgegeben von Paul Haupt.

Das Werk enthält den autographirten Keilschrifttext der im Britischen Museum befindlichen Bruchstücke der zwölf Tafeln der sogenannten Izdubarlegenden auf deren elfter sich die keilinschriftliche Sintfluthepisode findet. Bisher ist nur ein Theil der sechsten und der elften Tafel im vierten Bande des englischen Inschriftenwerkes herausgegeben worden; die übrigen sind nur aus den Übersetzungen in George Smith's „Chaldäischer Genesis" bekannt. Von mehreren der Tafeln haben wir verschiedene Exemplare, allein von dem Sintfluthberichte kennen wir bis jetzt schon die Bruchstücke von acht Tafeln. Der Herausgeber hat jedes einzelne Fragment besonders mit der grössten Sorgfalt copirt und zu wiederholten Malen genau collationirt; er wird auch alle seine Abschriften, mit Einschluss sämmtlicher Duplicate, vollständig veröffentlichen; nicht bloss einen nach den verschiedenen Exemplaren zusammengesetzten Text, wie er sich im Londoner Inschriftenwerke findet, da es mindestens von gleicher Wichtigkeit ist, die Übereinstimmungen der Duplicate kennen zu lernen, wie ihre Abweichungen. Die erste Lieferung des Werkes wird den autographirten Keilschrifttext der ersten zehn Tafeln, mit Ausnahme der Bruchstücke von vier Columnen der fünften Tafel, enthalten und Anfang des nächsten Jahres zur Ausgabe gelangen. Nach Fertigstellung des Textes und einer nochmaligen Collation desselben mit den Originalen gedenkt der Verfasser die Transscription und Übersetzung nebst Commentar und Glossar in der Weise seiner Bearbeitung des keilinschriftlichen Sintfluthberichtes in der zweiten Auflage von E. Schrader's „Keilinschriften und das Alte Testament" (Giessen 1882) folgen zu lassen.

Der Verfasser hat in diesem Werke eine möglichst übersichtliche und correcte Ausgabe des in verschiedenen, zum Theil schwer zugänglichen Publicationen verstreuten Textes der sogenannten „Trilinguen Inschriften" mit danebenstehender Übersetzung zu geben versucht. Die Lesarten sämmtlicher früheren Editionen von Niebuhr, de Saulcy, Westergaard, Rawlinson, Oppert etc. sind in zahlreichen, siebzehn Seiten füllenden, autographirten textkritischen Anmerkungen verzeichnet und geprüft worden. Als Anhang ist auf sechzehn, von Paul Haupt autographirten, Tafeln der Keilschrifttext der kleineren Achämenideninschriften, zum Theil nach neu angefertigten Copien der im Britischen Museum aufbewahrten Papierabklatsche und den photographischen Aufnahmen in dem Stolze'schen Prachtwerke „Persepolis", beigegeben.

AUSWAHL DER WICHTIGSTEN TEXTE DES KÖNIGS SARGON II.

Nach den Originalen in London und Paris durchgängig collationirt, in autographirtem Grundtext neu herausgegeben und mit Transscription, Übersetzung und Commentar versehen

von Dr. D. G. Lyon.

1883. gr. 4. ca. 104 Seiten. ca. M. 20. —.

Der Verfasser giebt die Cylinder- und Stier-Inschrift, sowie die Bronze-, Silber-, Gold- und Antimon-Inschrift Sargon's II. in sorgfältigster Abschrift nebst einer grossen Zahl Varianten anderer Copien dieser Inschriften und hebt, um nirgends Zweifel zu lassen, die mangelhaften Abweichungen der früheren Ausgaben absichtlich hervor. Für die assyrische Paläographie verspricht das Werk besonders werthvoll zu werden, da es durchweg die Keilschriftzeichen in peinlichster Übereinstimmung mit den Originalen wiedergiebt. Im Commentar beschränkt sich der Verf. wesentlich auf die schwereren, bis jetzt missverstandenen Stellen, jedoch mit steter Berücksichtigung der älteren Erklärungsversuche.

Benachrichtigung.

Der Verfasser beabsichtigt in dem vorliegenden Werke die Resultate seiner Collation des zweiten Bandes des Londoner Inschriftenwerkes, welcher die Grundlage der assyrischen und akkadischen Studien enthält, in der Form eines Wörterverzeichnisses den Assyriologen und Anfängern in diesen Studien zugänglich zu machen. Schon öfter ist von verschiedenen Seiten der Wunsch ausgesprochen worden, diese Inschriften selbst von Neuem veröffentlicht zu sehen. Er wählte diese Form, um zugleich einen Beitrag zu einem künftigen philologisch-kritischen assyrischen Wörterbuche zu liefern und die Vorarbeiten dazu zu erleichtern. Die assyrischen und akkadischen Wörter sind in Transscription und Keilschrift der Reihe nach angeführt mit dem Citate der Stelle, wo sie in den Texten vorkommen, und dem Zusammenhange. Auch andere Texte aus dem ersten und fünften Bande der Cuneiform Inscriptions sind dabei berücksichtigt worden, wenngleich nicht mit derselben Vollständigkeit. Besonders ist darauf Rücksicht genommen worden, die den einzelnen assyrischen Wörtern entsprechenden akkadischen zu geben und umgekehrt. Es schien am einfachsten, das Akkadische nicht getrennt zu behandeln, sondern unter die assyrischen Wörter, nach der allgemein üblichen Transscription und nach dem semitischen Alphabete einzuordnen. Besondere Sorgfalt ist auch der Paläographie gewidmet worden, indem alle Wörter genau so wie sie an den citirten Stellen der Originale erscheinen, in archaistischen, assyrischen oder babylonischen Charakteren angeführt worden sind.

Der Verfasser giebt die Cylinder- und Stier-Inschrift, sowie die Bronze-, Silber-, Gold- und Antimon-Inschrift Sargon's II. in sorgfältigster Abschrift nebst einer grossen Zahl Varianten anderer Copien dieser Inschriften und hebt, um nirgends Zweifel zu lassen, die mangelhaften Abweichungen der früheren Ausgaben absichtlich hervor. Für die assyrische Paläographie verspricht das Werk besonders werthvoll zu werden, da es durchweg die Keilschriftzeichen in peinlichster Übereinstimmung mit den Originalen wiedergiebt. Im Commentar beschränkt sich der Verf. wesentlich auf die schwereren, bis jetzt missverstandenen Stellen, jedoch mit steter Berücksichtigung der älteren Erklärungsversuche.

Der Verfasser hat in diesem Werke eine möglichst übersichtliche und correcte Ausgabe des in verschiedenen, zum Theil schwer zugänglichen, Publicationen verstreuten Textes der sogenannten „Trilinguen Inschriften" mit danebenstehender Übersetzung zu geben versucht. Die Lesarten sämmtlicher früheren Editionen von Niebuhr, de Saulcy, Westergaard, Rawlinson, Oppert etc. sind in zahlreichen, siebzehn Seiten füllenden, autographirten textkritischen Anmerkungen verzeichnet und geprüft worden. Als Anhang ist auf sechzehn, von Paul Haupt autographirten, Tafeln der Keilschrifttext der kleineren Achämenideninschriften, zum Theil nach neu angefertigten Copien der im Britischen Museum aufbewahrten Papierabklatsche und den photographischen Aufnahmen in dem Stolze'schen Prachtwerke „Persepolis", beigegeben.

DAS BABYLONISCHE NIMRODEPOS.

Keilschrifttext der Bruchstücke der sogenannten Izdubarlegenden mit dem keilinschriftlichen Sintfluthberichte.

herausgegeben von Paul Haupt.

Das Werk enthält den autographirten Keilschrifttext der im Britischen Museum befindlichen Bruchstücke der zwölf Tafeln der sogenannten Izdubarlegenden auf deren elfter sich die keilinschriftliche Sintfluthepisode findet. Bisher ist nur ein Theil der sechsten und der elften Tafel im vierten Bande des englischen Inschriftenwerkes herausgegeben worden; die übrigen sind nur aus den Übersetzungen in George Smith's „Chaldäischer Genesis" bekannt. Von mehreren der Tafeln haben wir verschiedene Exemplare, allein von dem Sintfluthberichte kennen wir bis jetzt schon die Bruchstücke von neun Tafeln. Der Herausgeber hat jedes einzelne Fragment besonders mit der grössten Sorgfalt copirt und zu wiederholten Malen genau collationirt; er wird auch alle seine Abschriften, mit Einschluss sämmtlicher Duplicate, vollständig veröffentlichen; nicht bloss einen nach den verschiedenen Exemplaren zusammengesetzten Text, wie er sich im Londoner Inschriftenwerke findet, da es mindestens von gleicher Wichtigkeit ist, die Übereinstimmungen der Duplicate kennen zu lernen, wie ihre Abweichungen. Die erste Lieferung des Werkes, welche auf ca. 50 Seiten den Keilschrifttext sämmtlicher Fragmente der ersten sechs Tafeln enthält, ist bis auf einen halben Bogen bereits gedruckt und wird binnen Kurzem zur Ausgabe gelangen. Nach Fertigstellung des Textes und einer nochmaligen Collation desselben mit den Originalen gedenkt der Verfasser die Transscription und Übersetzung nebst Commentar und Glossar in der Weise seiner Bearbeitung des keilinschriftlichen Sintfluthberichtes in der zweiten Auflage von E. Schrader's „Keilinschriften und das Alte Testament" (Giessen 1883) folgen zu lassen.

Druck von August Pries in Leipzig.
